DEATH LOVES A SHINING MARK.

"She is an only daughter and only seventeen." "She is the favorite of her mother." Mrs. H. H. Conklin, of Morten Avenue, Batavia, N. Y., in a recent letter addressed to a friend at the time she died, said that she was very fond of Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the "Beaumont" Hospital and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. "We began your medicine in May (the 'Favorite Prescription')." My daughter then was very wasted, in fact we did not think she could live long. She had profuse menstruation which was of long standing; also a bad cough. We had spent a great deal of money and worried a great deal. When she began taking your medicine her cough was gone and she gained weight in only eight days. She weighed only eighty-five pounds. She now weighs from ninety-eight to one hundred and is well. I am cured entirely of her difficulty. There has been no cough at all, and all for eight or ten dollars. It had gotten to be a serious question with us. We had done all we could for her. We are truly grateful to you for all your kind advice and sympathy in the matter. We feel that you are a personal friend.

No living physician has a wider practical experience or enjoys a higher reputation in the treatment of diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce. In cases of this nature he will send by mail careful professional advice without charge, and instructions whereby the most obstinate ailments may be quickly overcome. His "Favorite Prescription" is the only proprietary remedy ever designed by an educated, authorized physician specifically to cure women's diseases. It is the only medicine which makes motherhood perfectly safe and comparatively easy and painless. Say "No" to any stick to it when urged to accept a substitute.

The bank recently attached the cattle.

Police Court Matters.

"Con," alias John Riley, who was arrested late Thursday night by Officer Wilson on Broadway, was turned over to the Omaha police yesterday. Riley is wanted across the river for working the padlock trick. He is one of the two men who gave Officer Weir the slip a week or so ago. Weir had them under arrest and they asked permission to go into the Valley restaurant and get their overcoats. Weir consented, and while he was in the sidewalk outside for them to return they slipped out through the back door.

The case against the two colored women and colored man charged with robbing John Hamilton, a white man, of $15 and a revolver, which was set for yesterday afternoon in Justice Burke's court, was continued until next Tuesday. The case in the meantime will be investigated by the district court grand jury now in session.

Advertising Mixup.

Rev. G. P. Fry, pastor of the Fifth avenue Methodist church, complained to the police yesterday afternoon that Mrs. Ray Blankenship was soliciting advertising from the local business men, using the name of the church, which he claimed she had no authority to do. From Mr. Fry's story to Chief Bixby it appeared that about ten days ago Mrs. Blankenship called at his house during his absence with a proposition that would financially benefit the church. She was directed by Mrs. Fry to Mrs. Fulmer, president of the Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. Blankenship submitted her proposition to Mrs. Fulmer, which was as follows: She had a small cook book which was to be interleaved with advertisements from local merchants. The proceeds of the advertising were to pay for the printing of the book, 300 copies of which Mrs. Blankenship agreed to publish and in return for her trouble in securing the advertising was to receive what was left over. The Ladies' Aid society was to receive the books and sell them. Mr. Fry stated that Mrs. Fulmer entered into an agreement with Mrs. Blankenship on the understanding that the advertisements were not to be solicited for the church, but for the Ladies' Aid society, which had undertaken to wipe off the debt on the new parsonage. Mr. Fry's complaint was that Mrs. Blankenship had violated the agreement and had solicited the advertisements on the plea that the proceeds of the book were to be devoted to the printing of the church and the purchase of pew.

Mrs. Blankenship when brought to Chief Bixby's office indignantly denied the allegations of Mr. Fry and insisted that she had acted in good faith in the matter. After a conference on the matter with Mr. Fry, Mrs. Blankenship agreeing to discontinue the solicitation of advertising and Pastor Fry agreed to her keeping what small amount of money she had collected, he in turn promising to refund the same to the business men who had paid it. Mrs. Blankenship showed credit for her work where she had successfully carried out the same scheme to the mutual benefit of herself and the church which contracted with her.

IOWA WOMAN AN HEIRESS.

Mrs. Peter Christianson of Davenport Receives a Fortune.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The fortunate Davenport woman, Caroline Christianson, who is to fall heir to a California estate valued at $75,000, became known to the people of this city by the death of her husband, the farmer and child-rearer, Mr. Christianson, who lived at the Farmers' hotel on Fourth street. Mr. Christianson is well known in Davenport, having been long employed by J. S. Altman, when the latter was in charge of business seven years ago, and later working as a driver for the Crystal Ice and Cold Storage company. Now Mr. and Mrs. Christianson run the farmers' hotel. Both husband and wife are hard workers and have been all their lives. Mrs. Christianson takes her good fortune in a very prosaic manner and she will work just as hard as ever. But she is very glad to find herself so situated as to give her children a better education. She is 54 years of age.

She tells an interesting story about the manner in which she became acquainted with the good news. Years ago the Christiansons lived at Vorburg, island of Alsen, Schleswig-Holstein, Germany. There was a young man named Peter Christianson, of a roving and unsettled spirit. Naturally he became a sailor, leaving his native home in 1840.

Then it was as though he had passed completely into oblivion. For over half a century nothing was heard of the wanderer. But as recently as a year ago an announcement appeared in California newspapers of the death of an aged hermit at Stockton. So far as known he was without relatives, but as he had an estate valued at $100,000, his death was given widespread publicity.

True to the course of human events, an Omaha Danish paper announcing the hermit's death fell into the hands of Mrs. Christianson of this city. The name was that of her uncle, the roving Peter. Though she had almost forgotten that such a relative lived she spoke to Attorney Bleik Peters about the matter and suggested, though with little faith, that she might come in for a share of the fortune of the hermit. She had never known the uncle, but her mother had frequently spoken of him and his disappearance. Attorney Peters became interested in the strange history and took steps at once to open correspondence with the Stockton people and has kept the ball rolling ever since. As a result Mrs. Christianson's claim to a share of the fortune is established beyond doubt. A petition has been filed in the probate court at Stockton, setting forth the claims of the Davenport woman, and Attorney Beardlee of Stockton will look after her interests at that end of the line.

Though Mrs. Christianson is probably the only heiress to the estate living in this country, there are numerous nieces and nephews of the deceased on the old continent, and up to date five of them have filed claims, another Stockton attorney having been retained to look after their interests. Mrs. Christianson's mother having married a second time there are a large number of heirs back in the old country.

Two strange features of the case are that the hermit didn't seem to think of the relatives he had left behind, and that his roving spirit was in such a measure curbed as to allow his lone life. A peculiarity in Mrs. Christianson's case is that she married a man whose name is so similar to her maiden cognomen and to that of the Californian hermit. It is almost needless to hope that the good fortune will speedily find its way higher, for Mrs. Christianson's claims are too well established to admit of a slip. Congratulations are already in order.

CRIMINALS GET PARTIAL DUES.

Two Had Men Confined for Breaking a Federal Sale.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—In the federal court yesterday before Judge Shiras, William Biglow alias Mason alias Chris together with his partner, James Collins, was sentenced to nine months in the penitentiary. They pleaded guilty to cracking the safe in the postoffice at Standwood on April 26. On June 16 they were arrested by Deputy Marshal Healy of Cedar Rapids. They are desperate men and have twice broken out of steel cages since then, once at Davenport and once at Marion.

Biglow, or "Kid" Woodruff, as he is known to the metropolitan police, is 52 years old and has spent twenty-six years of that time in various prisons. He got out of jail at Cedar Rapids after serving five years for shooting at a policeman. He is an expert safe blow and claims to be able to get out of almost any jail.

CRESCO, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Governor Shaw has announced the appointment of B. P. Norton of Cresco as dairy commissioner to succeed L. S. Gates, who dropped dead at the Omaha exposition a few weeks ago.

Nervous Wreck

Left by La Grippe in a Very Nervous Condition. "Had 'Queer Feelings' in my Head." Cured by

DR. MILES' NERVINE

If you have had La Grippe, you can realize something of the suffering endured by its thousands of victims every year. You know, perhaps, how it tears and strains at your spinal column; how it twists your neck and fairly seems to split your head wide open. You know how it seizes you with a vice-like grasp, whisks you up into the black cloud of a nervous cyclone—then suddenly lets you go and you fall back bruised and wounded when the storm is over. Perhaps you also know that Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic will kill La Grippe—that it is a wonderful healer and will close up the lacerated wounds and revive the vanquished spirits. Thousands of unfortunate victims have found in that great nerve food and tonic just the medicine needed to repair the injuries inflicted by the modern scourge, La Grippe. If you don't feel it tell your friends about it. It will help them.

Mr. J. M. Allison, 54 Tacoma ave., Indianapolis, Ind., can not say too much in praise of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Tonic. He writes: "In January, 1892, I was taken with a very severe case of La Grippe which hung on for five long weeks, and as a result I was left in a very weak condition. My nervous system was affected to such an extent that I could not sleep at night, and I was restless at all times. As my physicians were unable to relieve my suffering, I decided to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Tonic. After using one bottle I began to sleep at night, and my sleep was quiet and restful. As I continued the use of the medicine my nerves healed up, my 'queer feelings' left my head, and I have not been troubled with them since. Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic did more for me than all the doctor's medicine I ever took."

Another victim of La Grippe writes as follows: "I had an attack of La Grippe which left me in a fearful condition. I lost all appetite for food, was troubled with a fluttering sensation of my heart, and my nerves were so shattered that it was almost impossible to obtain sleep or even to sit down. The doctors did all they could for me and finally told me that I could not live more than three weeks. I then commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Tonic together with Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and in less than two days I was able to go to bed and sleep soundly all night. I continued to improve steadily until my old strength and vigor had returned to me, and now I feel as if I had been made a new man. My gratitude for the benefit I have received from these wonderful medicines is unbounded, and I never cease to sound their praises whenever and wherever opportunity occurs."

I am 49 years old, and Wine of Cardui has brought me through the Change of Life all right.

MRS. M. E. BROTHERTON.

Change of Life is the most serious period in every woman's life. Many do not survive the ordeal. Those whose delicate womanly organs are weak and deranged have the most to fear. Change of Life cannot be avoided. It is part of Nature's programme. But the pains and dangers can be largely overcome if Wine of Cardui be taken faithfully. It will fortify a woman's entire system for the trials through which she must pass. It will strengthen her nerves, and modify in large part every distressing symptom. No time should be wasted. Wine of Cardui should be taken during the whole period of the Turn of Life, sometimes two or three years. The patient, if she does so, will live to a happy, peaceful old age as a reward.
