Papa's Humor.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Why were you sitting in the dark when I came in?" incuired her father.

"The electric light went out," replied Mabel. "George said he thought it was something the matter with the armature."

"Well, it did seem a little out of place," said the father, thoughtfully.

"What seemed out of place, papa?"

"The arm-at-your waist."

And, laughing coarsely, the pleased old man went down to tell his new pun at the club.

True to His Promise.

Chicago Tribune: "I may be an ornery cuss and people may think I don't amount to much," said Greasy Grimes, "but some day men will fight fur the possession of my dead body!" It was about a month after this that Greasy Grimes, tired of life, dragged himself to the county line, lay down with his head on one side of it and his feet on the other and peacefully yielded up the ghost.

Motive in Atrocity.

Detroit Journal: The bootless atrocity of the crime was what fascinated us.

"Why." we asked ourselves, again and again, "should a man whose only purpose was robbery go out of his way to murder the entire family, thus?"

It was the haggard party with the thin chest who had a theory.

"Possibly," he suggested, in a fearsome whisper, "the fellow had barked his shins against buycles in the front hall!"

The orator will see to it that his entertainment for the evening is up to the mark set by this council, and the members look forward to a pleasant evening of music, speech and other things. Union Pacific council, No. 1969, will on Tuesday evening, the 22nd instant, give the first party of the season at Metropolitan hall. The first floor will be used exclusively for progressive high five, while the dancers take possession of the hall room. Buffet lunch will be served on both floors. These parties are given solely for the members of Union Pacific council and their wives and are free. Other gentlemen are not expected, but should a member wish to bring one additional lady he may do so by purchasing a ticket for them at $1 from the council collector.

Woodmen of the World.

The sovereign officers report an unprecedented growth in all the camps of the city and state. At the weekly meeting of the various camps the new members initiated from five to fifteen and in some instances even more. The members of Omaha camp, No. 16, are organizing a drill team and have appointed the following officers: Captain, R. L. Forgan; first lieutenant, M. P. Scott; second lieutenant, Earl Stiles. They plan to give a dance December 13 and will devote the proceeds to purchasing uniforms for the team. Alpha camp, No. 1, will devote the last Thursday evening of each month to socials and smokers during the winter. Seymore camp, No. 57, will give a smoker

The Fraternal Home Protection jubilee, recently held at Red Oak, Ia., was a great success. The Woodmen of the World camps of the surrounding country took part in it with regalia, banners and bands. Hon. H. A. Gunn of Oskaloesa represented the order and spoke for an hour on the principal work and features of Woodcraft.

Sovereign Manager S. L. Walde of Chicago has a record of placing nearly 5,000 members in the order. He is at present working in Indiana with great success and is popular in Sioux City camp held a beautiful unveiling ceremony recently at the grave of a departed member, which was attended by an mmense concourse of people. The camp is one of the progressive ones of Iowa. Sovereign Clerk Yates has gone to Baltimore, Md., to attend the National Fraternal congress which convenes in that city Tuesday. November 15. This is an annual convention when delegates from all fraternal orders come together and discuss methods and means of fraternal protection.

Hon. C. C. Farmer, the lecturer of the Woodmen of the World, has started on a of the present officers and it is planned to two months' tour through the state of Missouri, lecturing at open meetings every night in the week also adding many members to the camps.

A big camp was organized at Scribner, Neb., last week by Deputy A. E. Kivett, with a charter list of twenty-two members. Riverside camp, with a membership of 237, was organized at Sioux City last week. The following officers were elected and installed: C. C., G. H. Hollister; A. L., J. W. Wolfe; B., H. W. After organizing a number of lodges in that state a controversy arose between the supreme lodge and the insurance commissioner in regard to a section in the constitution. This matter was taken to the supreme court and a decision rendered recently which now places the organization in a position to contirue business in Missouri. It has some fifty organizers expecting to take up the work within the next thirty days. Arrangements are being made by the supreme lodge to push the work and great results are ex-

DAWSON A GREAT DOG TOWN.

How a Canine of the Bull Variety Was Initiated. Dawson is the greatest dog town on earth and the canines know their worth. The miner can do little without them in winter, relates the Seattle Post, and is more willing to feed them well through the summer for their services during the cold winters. Consequently the Eskimo is extremely well kept and has great pride. This the well-nurtured pups that have been taken gold hunting know to their sorrow. Every one has suffered a severe drubbing almost immediately one. After that the native dogs, with an air of toleration, allow them to live. Civilized canines by the hundred submitted to this initiation and suffered in silence. It was only a few weeks ago that a milk-white bulldog was imported into the famous camp and did a little initiating on his own account. When Al Bartlett, the speedy packer and rich mine owner, was in New York he got hold of a Bowery production that was a wonder. The beast was milk white with great red eyes and massive jaws which had won him more than one hard

After landing from a little up-river steamer Bartlett started up the water front with the ugly bulldog close at his heels. Down the street came an old Eskimo dog, fairly bristling for a fight. Here was chance for a conquest. He had never been against a buildog before. The fish-red native fairly rushed into the fight, but found the milk white bulldog more than ready to go to work. It was a great fight and soon over wi h. The buildog, finding he had something easy, changed holds a dozen times and with every two minutes the native sulked up the street hardly able to walk. But the bulldog had not finished yet, for the Dawson dogs are full

From away up the street came the members of the clan with the defeated member trotting along on three legs at their head They howled with delight when they caught sight of their prey. The bulldog made one grab, catching the wounded leader by the throat. After that he could do nothing but Beach camp and Neighbor McCurdy of the discount of the hold on. A dozen dogs grabbed him and dragged him about as if he had been a bone. The fight ended as all fights do. The Eskimo dog which had been looking for trouble was dead. The bulldog was a deep crimson and most of the dye was furnished of three legs, one eye was almost closed and his close-cropped ear was cropped closer still. The bull had made dog history at
