BAKER IS GIVEN A SURPRISE

Retiring Chairman of the Board of Supervisors Gets a Watch.

DISPOSITION OF EXPOSITION WIGWAM

Board Agrees to Assume the Debt Due and Take Full Charge of the Building to Be Sold or Homoved.

At the closing session of the Board of County Supervisors yesterday morning the chairman, Colonel W. F. Baker, was made the recipient of a handsome testimonial from his colleagues on the board and county officers. The testimental was in the form of a valuable gold watch and chain and was a small token of the esteem felt for him by his official associates and a recognition of the faithful manner in which he had performed his official duties. County Attorney C. G. Saunders made the presentation soon after the board convened and the gift came as a complete surprise to the colonel. In making the presentation Colonel Saunders said to Colonel Baker that every time he wanted to know the hour of the day he would be reminded that he had not performed his duty in vain and that he retired from the county board with best wishes and esteem of those with whom he had been officially connected.

The whole affair was such a complete surprise to Colonel Baker that for a time he was overcome, but he pulled himself together and heartly thanked his associates for their kind remembrance.

The most important matter before the Council camp No. 14, Woodmen of the Position of the Pottawattamie Wigwam on World, will entertain the members and the the exposition grounds. President Graham members of their families next Friday even- of the Council Bluffs Exposition association, position of the Pottawattamie Wigwam on the exposition grounds. President Graham who has had entire charge of the building during the entire time of the exposition, appeared before the board and asked that some disposition be made of the matter. He gave it as his opinion that if it was decided to hold another exposition next year the building could be sold either to the new exposition management or to some private individual and that it would be allowed to remain where it was. He informed the board that he had been notified by the uary 1 at the latest, but he believed that he could get the time extended for another month. Mr. Graham presented a bill for the maintenance of the Wigwam during the month of August, which had never been settled, and requested that the board order it paid. George F. Wright appeared on behalf of the Council Bluffs Exposition association and guaranteed the board that if it would pay the bill, which amounted to about $140, that the association would lay no claim to All members are requested to be present that the association would lay no claim to at a special meeting of the Unity guild to be an equity in the Wigwam and that the held tomorrow evening at 8 o'closs at the board could make such disposition of the residence of Mrs. Madden, on East Pierce building as it saw fit. The board, after street, as there is business of the greatest considerable discussion, decided to stand considerable discussion, decided to stand good for the amount of the bill.

The matter of the final disposition of the Wigwam was left to a committee consisting of County Auditor Matthews, Supervisor Baker and President A. C. Graham of the exposition association with instructions to either sell the building as it stands, if the Council Bluns Women's club met yesterday exposition is to be continued another year, afternion in the ordinary of the Grand bottel. The feature of the meeting was a ber brought to this city to be used on the paper on "Child Study from a Mother" repairs to county bridges.

The balance of the session was occupied in disp-sing of a number of bills, after syth of Waveland had also been called for which the board adjourned. The next session of the board will be held on the first Monday in January, when County Auditor John Matthews will succeed Colonel Baker as member from this district.

NOTES FROM THE SEVERAL COURTS. City Loses the Poll Tax Suit Brought

Refore Judge Aylesworth. The city has failed in its suits brought against C. R. Hanan, cashler of the Citizens' State bank, and Attorneys G. H. and L. G. Scott, to enforce the payment of poll tax. The suits were brought in the superior court and the defendants demurred to the petition filed by the city. The demurrers were based on four grounds: First, that the superior court had no jurisdiction; second, that the notice was insufficient in that it did not comply with the law and did not give the necessary time of notice as provided by the laws of Iowa, neither did it show competent or sufficient service and further that same was not given prior to the is of September of the year for which the city asked payment for poll tax as required by the city ordinances; third, that as shown by the city's petition and exhibit there had been no legal, sufficient or proper notice given to the defendants requiring them to work out or pay the said poll tax; fourth, that the amount in controversy claimed by the city was in excess of the amount du under the laws of Iowa. Judge Aylesworth yesterday handed down his decision sustaining the demurrer and overruling it in part. He sustained it on the second and third grounds and overruled it on the first favor of the defendants. The Schlitz Brewing company filed a motion for a new trial in the suit brought against it by John Lindt, and in which the jury awarded Lindt a verdict for $515. The forencon yesterday in the district court was occupied with the trial of the accreted land case of Roosa against Hough. The case promises to be a long drawn out affair, as much of the evidence consists of the introduction of old records to show the boundaries of the property in controversy before Boyer lake became dried up. #### OBITUARY.

Mrs. Edith Allen Westerdahl. Edith Allen, wife of George W. Wester-dahl, died Wednesday morning, November 16, at 6 o'clock, after a lingering illness, of 16, at 6 o'clock, after a lingering lliness, of tuberculosis, aged 22 years. The closing of this young life was pathetically sad, as she had never known a mother's love, her mother having died at her birth, and but two and one-half years ago she stepped to the altar a happy bride. "Death loves a shining mark," and since the birth of her infant son, eighteen months ago, it became avident to her friends that we wanted. evident to her friends that she was not long for this world and would soon be numbered with them that were, but now are not. In the hope of staying the hand of the dread Destroyer, upon the advice of physi-cians she was taken to Arizona for several months, but the change proved unavailing, and two months ago she returned to die in the home where she was born and married. Her sufferings in her last illness were agonizing in the extreme, but were borne without a murmur, never losing hope of ultimate recovery. Her death bereaves a hus-band, an infant son and three sisters, who rendered her loving attention in her last illness. The latter are Mrs. Charles Mat-thai, Mrs. C. C. Lincoln of Wyoming, Ill., and Miss Mamie Allen. Since the marriage of Mrs. Matthai the entire care of the youngest sister, Edith, devolved upon Miss devotion almost akin to idolatry, and who will now render a like service for the little son, George Allen.

The remains, decked in her bridal robes, were encased in a silver grey casket, com-pletely hidden with floral offerings of lov-ing friends and rested in the same corner of the room in which she first saw the light of day, where they were viewed by friends till the hour of the funeral, which occurred on Friday afternoon at 2:30 from St. Paul's church, Rev. L. P. McDonald reading the services at the church and at Fairview cemetery, where interment was made. The following young friends acted as pall bearers: E. C. Hodder, Will Green, C. L. Wrenn, F. H. Schwalenberg, jr., W. R. Meron, J. T. Flannigan, jr.
