

FAST MAILS ARE NUMEROUS

Two Roads Will Run Two Each Way Daily for a Time at Least.

PLAN NOT LIKELY TO BE PERMANENT

Struggle of the Northwestern to Secure Control of the Mail from Chicago to Omaha Brings About the Duplication.

The latest development in the fast mail fight between the Burlington and the Northwestern systems is that both roads will soon place in service fast mail trains leaving Chicago at about 10 o'clock at night and arriving here at about 8 o'clock the next morning, and that they will also continue their fast mail trains, leaving Chicago at 3 a. m. and arriving here early the same afternoon.

This was the news given out yesterday morning after W. A. Gardner of Chicago, assistant general superintendent of the Northwestern system, had held a lengthy conference with General Manager Dickinson and General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific. In explanation of the prospective running of two fast mail trains on each road from Chicago to Omaha, it is said that the changes will be made to conform with the changes contemplated in the fast mail service from New York to Chicago over the New York Central and Lake Shore railroads.

Although it is admitted that the first Lake Shore train into Chicago may be met at the first-class mail that is to come west, it is proposed to run a fast mail train from Chicago to Omaha as the western connection of each of the two Lake Shore trains. This will result in a fast mail train out of Chicago for Omaha at about 10 p. m. and another for the Northwestern route, at least, that is going to be tried for awhile.

With the arrival of the overland mail for the Pacific coast and for the islands and countries further west in two sections, instead of one, the great quantity of mail now taken westward from here by the Union Pacific in the afternoon will be cut in half. The mail that leaves Chicago at 10 or 10:30 o'clock at night, arriving here at 8 a. m., will go west on the "Overland Limited" train of the Union Pacific at 8:50 a. m. The rest of the overland mail which leaves Chicago on the Chicago newspaper train at 3 a. m., arriving here at 2:30 p. m., will go west on the fast mail train of the Union Pacific, leaving here at 4:35 p. m. Instead of changing the mail from the afternoon to the morning train of the Union Pacific, as previously reported, the new time card will have the effect of giving each of the big western trains of the Union Pacific a share of the mail to carry.

Exact Time Not Yet Fixed. It was said by Assistant Superintendent Gardner of the Northwestern that the exact time for the new fast mail trains has not been fixed and will not be until the New York Central and the Lake Shore operating departments announce their new time. It is known that the Northwestern will endeavor to make such a showing with its new fast mail trains that it will wrest from the Burlington the through mail contract from Chicago to Omaha.

There will be more changes in the passenger department of the Rock Island road on December 1, 1898, than have been at any one time for fifteen years past. In addition to those previously announced the following minor changes will become effective on that date: J. D. Sipe will become agent at Gilead, Neb. vice J. A. Gove. S. F. Haas will be agent at Jewett, Neb. vice G. M. Lawrence. Charles Klinger, now day ticket agent at the Des Moines station, will go to Chicago as assistant city ticket agent, succeeding Frank Barnes, who is already established as city passenger agent at Lincoln, Neb.

General Manager Webster of the Omaha Bridge and Terminal company was a very busy man yesterday. Arrangements are being made to take advantage of the city's permission to run a line down Fourteenth street just as soon as it can be done. The present season is unfavorable for the bridge and the company's business advantage will be taken of every open day this winter until the work is complete. He is of the opinion that the extension could be built in sixty days, if open weather prevailed, but at this period of the year it is difficult to see how long a time may be needed to do the work.

Union Pacific Changes.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Patrick Stack, a traveling locomotive engineer for the Union Pacific, has been made foreman of the company's shops at Laramie. William Daley, for the last five years assistant train dispatcher at Laramie, resigned today to take a position on the Norfolk & Virginia.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR NEBRASKA.

Exposition a Big Thing in This Line and Being Followed Up.

It is my opinion that the exposition did more to advertise Nebraska than could have been done in five years in any other way," writes Immigration Agent of the Burlington to a B. & M. official. The Immigration man expresses the hope that there will be another exposition held here in 1899, as in his opinion still better results in the way of immigration into this state can thereby be secured.

The advertising department of the Burlington here is following up the exposition by sending out an immense amount of literature booming Nebraska. Over 12,000 people left their names and addresses with the Burlington exhibit on the grounds of the exposition and to each one of these 12,000 is being sent a series of Nebraska advertisements. The work has kept quite a force of clerks under General Advertising Agent Campbell busy at local headquarters ever since the exposition closed. Most of the people who have left their names for Nebraska literature reside in states east of Missouri, though quite a number live in Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. About 2,000 names are of persons living in Iowa. Illinois is almost as numerously represented, and Nebraska is about equal with about 500 names each. The eastern states, especially New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, have contributed a number of names.

The railroad officials say it is all a guess how many of the 12,000 people may be induced to move into this commonwealth and settle here, but a determined effort will be made to interest every one of them in Nebraska's rich resources and its attractions for settlers. To each person who has registered is being sent an illustrated pamphlet on Nebraska, written especially for this purpose by ex-Governor Furness; a book that gives more detailed information about the state's agricultural, horticultural, live stock and beet sugar industries and a copy of the last issue of the Corn Belt. To secure further literature for this purpose the Burlington road has offered $100 worth of cash prizes for the best written articles on Nebraska, the copy to be sent to General Passenger Agent Francis of the B. & M. by February 1, 1899. The first prize is $25, the second $20, the third $10 and ten prizes of $5 each. To all who compete for the prizes will be given a six months' subscription to the Corn Belt.

WRECK NEAR SOUTH OMAHA.

Rear End Collision on the Belt Line Hill Occurs During a Fog. The Kansas City and St. Louis express on the Missouri Pacific road, which was wrecked on the main line of the Union Pacific at a point just south of W street, South Omaha, yesterday. A heavy fog overspread the bottoms and made it difficult to see any distance ahead at that hour. The passenger train ran into the freight train, which piled four freight cars up in a heap. Both the freight and passenger trains were bound north, but the passenger train traveled so much faster than the freight that it overtook the latter on a grade. The freight train was what is called a "Gilmore special" and consisted of eighteen freight cars pulled by Union Pacific switch engine No. 1173. The train was too heavy for the engine, and consequently the run was made on slow time. No one was injured, although the engineer and fireman of the engine were badly shaken up. Not one of the cars left the track, but one box car is piled on top of a car of wheat, while a coal car was smashed into kindling wood. The platform on the mail car was broken, but no other damage was done to the car. Another engine was wrecked by the train, with the exception of the mail car, was hauled to Omaha. No progress had been made toward clearing away the wreck up to noon, for the reason that the wrecking crew is at present at Osceola. Traffic on the line was not delayed in any extent, and incoming and outgoing trains used the east track between South Omaha and Gilmore.

WRECK ON THE GENOA BRANCH.

Seven men were injured in the Union Pacific wreck between Genoa and Woodville, Neb., on Tuesday night. This was a mixed train, was thrown off the track by the spreading of the rails. One coach, one baggage car and one box car left the track and rolled down an embankment about twenty feet. Two other box cars left the track, but did not tip over. The seven who were hurt were riding in the coach. Only one of them, James Jackson, was badly hurt. He was brought to this city and given medical attention. The following were slightly injured: Theodore Mayer, Fremont, Neb. C. A. Carlson, Omaha. A. S. Andrews, Syracuse, Neb. William Murr, Grand Island, Neb. E. S. Westerfield, Omaha. E. S. Streeter, Omaha, bruised on leg and head. James Jackson, Munroe, Neb., injured in stomach. He was brought to Omaha.

GETTING CONTROL OF SHORT LINE.

Plans Said to Be Making for Transfer of Stock to Union Pacific. NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Plans are reported to be under way for the exchange in the Union Pacific railroad common stock of the Oregon and Navigation company. This operation, as previously contemplated, would assure to the Union Pacific the perpetual control of the Oregon Short Line and more direct guidance of its affairs. The Oregon Short Line company owns the majority of the Oregon Navigation company's common stock, insuring an outlet for the Union Pacific railroad to the northwest coast. The exchange may be put through in a short time.

Terminal Company Ready to Start.

General Manager Webster of the Omaha Bridge and Terminal company was a very busy man yesterday. Arrangements are being made to take advantage of the city's permission to run a line down Fourteenth street just as soon as it can be done. The present season is unfavorable for the bridge and the company's business advantage will be taken of every open day this winter until the work is complete. He is of the opinion that the extension could be built in sixty days, if open weather prevailed, but at this period of the year it is difficult to see how long a time may be needed to do the work.

Announcements.

The policy to be maintained at the Creighton-Orpheum theater, which is to be held after a high class vaudeville theater in the presentation of acts, is to give a uniformly good show every week and to fulfill every promise made in the program. The people will not be misled in the announcements. The central method employed by theatrical managers is to have the control of a theater, particularly in the vaudeville field, is to open the theater with an exceptional program and to maintain it for a few weeks and then drop to the most commonplace of bills. As will be seen Sunday the standard of excellence to which Creighton-Orpheum theater has set itself will show a fulfillment of the promises made. The majority of theater-goers are familiar with the names of the artists and their favorites and they can readily see in the announcements of the program what they can expect. No names will be announced unless the person named is to appear.

Saturday's matinee will terminate the engagement at the Trocadero of that charming and very popular artist, Miss Beattie Bonehill, and women and children will be especially interested in her part of the program. Her songs and dances will be served or smoking permitted at Thursday and Saturday matinees. The bill this week presents to the Trocadero patrons the famous redneck artist, Miss Rose Albro, contralto and change artist; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Budworth in their tremendous success, "A Royal Visitor"; the Century quartet and many other high class redneck novelties.

Mr. Willis Collier begins a three-night's engagement at the Boyd tonight in "The Man from Mexico," a farcical comedy of continuous and unending mirth, whose success in New York, Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis and St. Paul, has made it a sensation.

At Germania (Turner) hall Sunday evening, December 4, a most interesting entertainment will be given at the church, assisted by the following eminent soloists: "Erlische Arbelt," will be given by a competent local cast and in addition Messrs. Dado, Groff and Mitchell and Miss Eleanor Broadfoot of the late popular International Opera company will be heard in vocal numbers.

Leave Chicago for the South over Pennsylvania Short Lines on 10 a. m. Buffet Parlor Car and Coach train, or on 8:15 train, which has Compartment Sleeping Cars and Coaches to Cincinnati and Louisville where through connection is made for winter resorts in Florida and the South. POULTRY AND GAME CHEAP

Local Market Glutted, Demand Light and Prices on the Down Grade All Around.

Judging from the receipts of poultry the country must be just recovering from the effects of the blizzard, for while there was some shortage at Thanksgiving time there is now an over supply. On Tuesday trains began coming in loaded with game of all kinds, as well as with poultry, and since that time there has been no abatement. One commission man remarked that he did not suppose there were so many chickens in this part of the country and that there are enough on hand at the present time to last for several days if not another pound were received, but unfortunately indications are favorable for continued heavy receipts. Not only is the supply large, but the demand seems to be correspondingly light, as most people had their fill of game and poultry at Thanksgiving and are now apparently taking a rest so as to be in trim again by Christmas. Dealers say the price at which stock is offered seems to make but little difference in the amount consumed, so the disposition of the present supply is quite a problem. It is a difficult matter to give very accurate quotations when the market is in its present condition, but the following wholesale prices on live poultry are as near correct as can be obtained: Hens, 4 1/2 cents; roosters, 3 1/2 cents; spring chickens, 5 to 6 1/2 cents; geese, 5 1/2 to 6 cents; ducks, 4 to 5 1/2 cents, and turkeys, 8 cents. Dressed stock is quoted as follows: Hens, 5 to 6 1/2 cents; spring chickens, 6 1/2 to 7 cents; ducks, 7 to 7 1/2 cents; geese, 7 to 8 cents, and turkeys, 8 to 10 cents. This, it will be seen, is a drop of 1 to 2 cents per pound all around. Game has suffered fully as much with the exception of ducks and prairie chickens, which remain at the same price. Rabbits cannot be quoted over $1 to $1.25, and rabbits will hardly sell for enough to pay for their freight. Jacks are slow sale at $1 to $1.25 and cottontails, 40 to 50 cents.

DISHONEST CLERK OVERTAKEN

John Flett, Who Used Armour's Name on Worthless Checks, is Under Arrest in Wisconsin.

Quick work was done by the police Tuesday night in apprehending John Flett, a bookkeeper and recently in the employ of the Armour Packing company at South Omaha, wanted for forgery and uttering forged paper. Flett left South Omaha Monday. His crime, with a minute description of him, was given Chief White. After an hour's investigation of the police, the name of Flett of Madison, Wis., a description of Flett and by 6:30 received an answer that the man was in custody there.

Flett will be brought back to South Omaha by a special Armour officer sent there Tuesday night. He has the right to requisition papers. Until his disappearance Monday Flett was a clerk in the paymaster's department of the company and had a wide circle of acquaintances. On his friends and others he passed a large number of forged checks, using the Armour signature and forging the name of several prominent men as endorsers. The amount of money so secured, it is thought, will reach several hundred dollars. But $75 worth of the bad paper has turned up so far.

From New Zealand.

REEFOTON, New Zealand. I am very pleased to state that since I left the station of Christchurch, the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of any other. I know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children. J. SCANTLEBURY.

IT'S BETTER FOR A MAN TO DRINK AT HOME

With his wife and family than to sneak off quietly to obtain KRUG CABINET BEER

There's more real enjoyment in sitting down at home and sipping a small glass of it than standing up to a bar with a crowd of "good fellows," where each one thinks it necessary to pay for a "round" before quitting. The effect is bad—consequences worse. It's better to buy a bottle of Krug's good medal kind at home. It's the kind he wants and a little of it will do you good as well. 77 Boys' Ulsters.

Today we want to tell you about a purchase of boys' ulsters, in sizes from 10 to 15, that means real four dollar value for two dollars and a half. That's just what it means. It was an end-of-the-season deal by our eastern buyer and while we didn't need the goods the opportunity was too tempting to let it pass by. This morning we put them on sale. Not many, only 77 garments all told, but there are just 77 mothers in Omaha who will feel happy over the lot. Long, full size, full finished ulsters. Made from heavy black frieze, double breasted, of course, and lined with heavy plaid cassimere in the body, and iron cloth sleeve linings. They will stand wear and tear. They are made for rough knockabout purposes, made to keep out the cold and wet and made to last the roughest boy a whole season through, and with just ordinary usage they ought to last longer than that. Remember we have them only in black color and in sizes only to fit boys 10 to 15 years.

Nebraska Clothing Co.

HAYDEN'S Boy's $3.50 Storm Ulsters at $1.75

Never such a showing of boys' ulsters and overcoats as the Big Store is making now. An eastern manufacturer closed out to us two large lines of storm ulsters at about 50c on the dollar to clear up his stock. They are absolutely the best ulsters made. The first lot will be put on sale at $1.75. They are strongly and warmly made up and are equal in every respect to the regular $3.50 storm ulsters.

The second lot comprises a very handsome assortment in 8 different patterns of warm and durable chinchillas, meltons and freizes, in browns, blacks, oxfords and blues, and were made to sell at $5, you can take your choice while they last at $2.75. These ulsters we have in the sizes to fit boys from 6 to 15 years old, and we guarantee them worth $3.50 and $5 each.
