At the annual meeting of the Grand Coun-

state held a special meeting which was attended by about thirty members. The time was spent largely in a social way, relating reminiscences, eating lunch and smoking cigars.

The Omaha council also held a meeting at which several candidates were taken through the degrees. The grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Nebraska concluded its annual meeting and adjourned Thursday afternoon, Decem ber 15. The session was comparatively short and not specially well attended. There was no business to transact of particular interest, aside from the election of officers for the ensuing year. These were as follows John J. Mercer of Omaha, grand high priest; James Dinsmore of Hebron, grand deputy ness the doors were thrown open for the entertainment of all. The program of toasts was as follows: "Our Team," W. M. Thomas; "Our Early Days of Camp Work," William MacDiarmid; "Walnut Camp, and What We Inherthere are no evening services; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

The toastmaster of the evening was W. F. Chapin. In connection with the toast "Our Team" W. M. Thomas presented the camp with a picture of the team. It showed the boys in groups and individually, and also contained the pictures of the officers of the camp. This was a complete surprise to the camp, but was none the less appreciated. The team is one of the features of the organization and is the pride of every member. It captured the first prize at the exposition on Modern Woodman day from a field of eleven competitors. J. C. Page is captain of the team. Those in charge of the entertainment and to whom the credit is largely due for the success of the celebration were: H. P. Leavitt, C. L. Hopper, John S. King, R. C. Hemphill, W. F. Chapin, L. B. McCown, H. Cook, A. A. Smith, A. H. Vosburgh, C. H. Long, F. Whitmarsh, J. L. Pierce, J. C. Page, C. H. Hollenbeck, J. E. Himoe and J.

Imperial Mystle Legion. Windsor Castle will hold its last regular meeting for the year in Royal Arcanum hall Monday night, December 19. At this time officers will be elected, several candidates initiated and there will be a social with a short program and light refreshments. An enjoyable time is expected and it is hoped that every member will attend.

During the past week Supreme Regent Akin and Supreme Secretary Packard assisted in the organization of a large castle at Dell Rapids, S. D. These officers, with Supreme Counsellor Carr, were in Sioux Falls upon business and attended a special meeting of the Sioux Falls castle. The new work was exemplified, a program of much merit was given and the members and invited guests to the number of nearly 100 sat down to the banquet. Interesting remarks were made by Supreme Regent Akin, Supreme Counsellor Carr, Supreme Secretary Packard, State Regent Duggan, Mystic Mc-Donald of Pipestone, Minn.; Secretary-Treasurer Mundt of Hartford, S. D., and Mystic Kerr, the newly inducted candidate. About eight months ago publicity was against the Imperial Mystic Legion by two former deputies. One of these cases was on trial in Sioux Falls last week before a the written arguments of the attorneys filed. After one case had been gone through with the other was settled at about the actual cost of going through with the case. The testimony being practically the same in both cases, the inference as to the prospects of being successful in the latter case is plain.

A curious incident in the organization of castles of the I. M. L. is that Del Rio, Tex., will probably contain the castle numbered next after the one organized at Dell Rapids, S. D.

A castle will be instituted during the week at Atlantic, Ia., by Superintendent of Field Work F. M. Riegel. It has not been determined to name it Pacific Castle, although it is conceded that it would be appropriate. A. O. U. W.
