CLOSING SESSION OF THE LABOR COUNCIL

Resolution Favoring a Bill to Tax Factories Employing Women and Children is Killed in Assembly.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 20.—Samuel Gompers was today re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor by a practically unanimous vote at the closing session of the eighteenth annual convention of that organization. The convention, which had been in session for eight days, adjourned at 6 o'clock, Detroit, Mich., was elected upon as the next place of meeting.

There were no other nominees and Henry Lloyd of Massachusetts moved that the vote of the convention be cast for Mr. Gompers. This was done amid great cheering. Isaac Cowan, the socialist of Cleveland, objected and his vote was recorded against Mr. Gompers. Mr. Gompers declined to make any remarks upon his re-election.

Remainder of the ticket follows: First vice president, P. J. McGuire, Philadelphia; second vice president, James Duncan, Baltimore; third vice president, James O'Connell, Chicago; fourth vice president, John F. Mitchell, Indianapolis; fifth vice president, Max Morris, Denver; sixth vice president, Thomas I. Kidd, Chicago; secretary, Frank Morrison, Chicago; treasurer, John B. Lennon, Bloomington, Ill.; fraternal delegates to the union congress of Great Britain, Thomas F. Tracy of New York of the Cigar Makers' union, and James O'Connell, Chicago, of the Machinists' union; to the trades and labor congress of Canada, John F. O'Sullivan of Boston, of the Massachusetts state branch.

The convention spent most of the day in amending its constitution and providing means for widening the scope of its work. The federation increased the per capita tax upon members of trades union organizations from three-fourths of 1 per cent to 5 cents per month, the money to be used to support the federation.

Law Not Efficacious. George E. McNeill said he had some doubts as to the efficacy of such a law. "And further," said he, "it will simply license the employment of children. We will be put in the light of recognizing what we know to be true."
