DURING THE YEAR 1899.

out three years ago today, showing up to the public why some doctors insist on you taking your prescriptions to certain druggists to have them filled. That their sole object in doing this is to reciprocate to the 2x4 pets who pay their office rent and give them a commission on all prescriptions they send them. Nor, will we deviate from our strict rule and speak about other druggists in a detrimental way in our store-we leave that to several "swelled heads." If you will follow our ads you w : see that "me and doe" won't take in the Greater American Exposition and travel on the midway at the same time.

Heres another one that our suggestion for a General Director will meet the approval of all concerned. Here's one to "Jim"-he's all right if you only " get on" to his way. Here's an extra one to Max-as a "clam baker" he's a success.

That Elmer can "take stock" quicker than all the 2x4 pets combined. That the next time Al. attends a Clam Bake he won't fast more than two weeks. That the "Smart Aleck" bathe his swelled head with our Egyptian Lotus Cream. 'That the wholesalers will "jine" in with the exposition and help push it along. That by the reorganization of the Harle,
