FIGURE TO SAVE THE ASSETS

Depositors of Defunct German Savings Bank Hear Attorney's Report.

EXPENSES ARE EATING UP THE PROPERTY

Resolutions Adopted Asking that Everything Remaining Be Sold and Suit Commenced Against Stockholders for Balance.

Depositors of the defunct German Savings bank met Thursday night to talk over measures which they deem advisable to pursue in settling up the affairs of the institution. Attorney Strickler made a report which showed that the income from the assets is being eaten up by the expenses.

Dividends Less Than Expenses.

At the time the bank closed, its indebtedness is said to have been $208,000, and it is estimated that interest amounting to $40,000 has accumulated since.
