LAMBASTS HIM FEARFULLY AND WELL

McCoy's Feet More Active Than Sharkey's, But the Latter's Powerful Blows Bring Results in Ten Rounds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10 .- Tom Sharkey, the American sailor, stands as the only heavyweight in line for championship honors and the title now held by Bob Fitzsimmons. He whipped Kid McCoy good and hard in the tenth round of what was to have been a twenty-round battle, and by doing so the Irish-American pugilist forged his way so positively and undeniably to the front rank that Fitzsimmons must now consider the sailor-pugilist's claim without delay.

Sharkey tonight was a revelation to those who saw him a couple of years ago. His ring work and generalship are so vastly superior to his exhibitions when he first came to the east as a fighter that the improvement is almost incredible. Great bunches of muscle, with unlimited confidence and a cool head, are the qualifications which have enabled Sharkey to fight his way to the front rank of heavyweight pugilists, and no one, not even McCoy, who suffered defeat at his hands tonight denies the full measure of praise that is due to the Irishman.

McCoy's marvelous footwork and that long left tab with which he has put so many of his opponents to sleep are two factors in his makeup that must always appeal to lovers of the fistic art. He used every artifice known to the advanced school of pugilism in his contest tonight, and his defeat must not be attributed to any lack of close study on his part of every trick in the boxing game. Many of his friends feel tonight that he ought to have gone up against smaller game than Sharkey.

When McCoy sent Sharkey twice to the floor in the third round tonight no one doubted the Kid's ability to hit hard, and many thought he had Sharkey at his mercy. This idea was soon dispelled when the Irishman began to get to his man.

At 10:23 both men entered the ring. After the preliminary bouts had been decided the betting was 100 to 90 in favor of McCoy. A few minutes later the betting changed to even money.

McCoy's seconds were Doc Payne, Cor Rellly, Frank Erne. Timekeeper, Nate Fenton of Buffalo. Tom's seconds were Tom O'Rourke, Tommy Ryan of Syracuse, George Dixon and Jack Dougherty. Timekeeper, Prof. Jim De Forrest. Sharkey's weight was 172 and McCoy's 158 pounds. McCoy wore white running trunks with a belt of the stars and stripes. Tom wore green trunks with a belt of American colors. They shook hands at 10:40 o'clock.

Details of the Bout. Round One-They fiddled, McCoy tried a left for the wind, but missed, Tom scoring a left over the kidneys, Both were careful. McCoy tried a left hook for the head, land-ing lightly. Tom uppercut with a right on the chest. McCoy made a half circle of the ring and then caught on the stomach. Sharkey did not reply. McCoy sent left to stomach and brought it up to the face. Sharksy hooked a light right to the ribs. Both men were sparring at the gong. Mc-Coy's round.

Guide Rock second, Bonade third. Time: 1:4714. Second race, six and one-half furlongs: Beackon won. Cathedral second, Our Nellie third.Time: 1:1654. Third race, handicap, one and one-quarter miles: Jim Hogg won, Laura May second, Partner third. Time: 2:21142. Fourth race, handicap, seven and one-half furlongs: Branch won, Queen of Song sec-ond, Great Bend third. Time: 1:39. Fifth race, one mile and seventy yards: Blue Dan won, Mariani second, Mitt Boy-kin third. Time: 1:524. Both men were sparring at the gong. Me-Coy's round. Round Two-McCoy side-stepped to the left for a half circle of the ring and led his left, landing lightly on the face. Tom stepped back and McCoy ran close to him. McCoy's reaches for his man were futile, but he caught Tom on the ropes and caught a light left on the nose. Tom came to the center of the ring and tried left and right without effect, and again the Kid sent left lightly to the face. McCoy continually kept side-stepping and evaded Tom's attempts for a left hook on swing cleverly. McCoy put a light left on Tom's face when near the ropes on the west end of the ring and Sharkey sont hard left hook to ribs just as the gong sounded.

SAILOR TOM IS THE WINNER He Puts a Quistus on the Pretensions of One Kid McCoy. McCoy blocked the blows with his elbow dinches followed, in which the referee had to go between them to separate them. Coming together at close quarters, Tom got his left to the wind and McCoy landed his right on the head. clevery on both sides was then the order and McCoy succeeded in landing a left hook on Tom's right eye, raising a mouse over the cheek bons. Both men were fresh when the gong sounded. Round Eight-They rushed to a clinch with nothing doing, McCoy sent a left swing to the head, Tom uppercutting with left to the head. Tom uppercutting with ut any injury to either and then Tom shouted. "Tm tired." The Kid left a beau-tiful left for the head, but Tom twisted away round, bringing his left to ribs. In a rush Tom played for the body, landing his left seemingly low, and McCoy dropped to the floor of the ring, where he wriggled for eight seconds. It looked as If McCoy were down about twelve seconds, but the ref-cree's count was only eight seconds. Mc-Coy came up again seemingly uninjured and finished the round sparring. Bound Nine-McCoy opened with a left on the jaw and Tom repited with left and right on the head. from gailing into his own corner, where he got McCoy with a terrible left on the stomach, sonding a pail of water all over Tim Sullivan, who was sitting in a box, McCoy recuperated quickly, but got another welt in the wind, which foreid him to the ropes. Then Tom forced the fighting and 'anded half a dozen hard lefts on the breast and stomach as McCoy was trying to get away. This was Tom's round by long o'ds. And the Kid Went Down. PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 10 .- (Special Telegram.)-In the house this afternoon Representative Glass of Coddington rose to a question of personal privilege. He read an article from the Sioux Falls Argus-Leader which referred to him as being in the republican caucus as an uninvited guest and that he had been slighted in the committee appointments. He styled the editor of the Argus-Leader as a malicious and infamous liar and proceeded to "roast" him generally. J. H. Sogn resigned his position as sec-

And the Kid Weat Down. Round Ten-The Kid Weat Down. Round Ten-The Kid kept skipping to the right and ran into a clinch, where he held Tom without a blow being struck. Sharkey taking the advice of his chief second. Tom O'Rourke, played for the body, but McCoy effectually guarded himself. Then Tom turned his attention to the body and landed on the ribs with his lett, forcing McCoy. Then Sharkey turned his attention to the upper works, with McCoy sprinting to the right, Sharkey having a decided advantage. The Sailor let fly both left and right, land-ing on the body and forcing McCoy to the east end of the ring, close to the center up-right. McCoy failered and Tom caught him with a left swing on the neck, McCoy fell to the floor of the ring with his head hanging over the lowest of the three ropes, looking imploringly around. The Kid lay there helplessiy while the referee counted ten sconds, after which he struggied to his fect, and Sharkey, not knowing that the a party vote, the minority candidate being M. lessness on the part of railroad employes. Caucus Meetings Both republicans and populists had caucus tonight. The republicans' caucus was a short one, having been called to discuss the question of an investigation committee. The introduction of the Smith resolution in the senate forestalled their action and it was simply decided to let the matter rest where it is, in the hands of the senate judiclary committee.

The populist caucus was a long one and while it took no definite action on any point, it discussed matters generally. It was decided to leave all matters concerning party interests open to be met as they arose. One matter agreed upon was that if the Smith resolution was called from the committee they would insist that it should be a general dragnet investigation, covering nearly every department of state affairs, including the work of the different state boards.

WITNESSES TELL OF THREATS Turning Point is Reached in Garrington Trial at Sioux Falls-Denial of William West. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 10 .- (Special Telegram.)-Today has been the turning point in the trial of James A. Garrington for the murder of Alfred Erickson. As soon as court convened today State's Attorney Bates, for the prosecution, rested his case and D. R. Bailey, for the defense, began the introduction of evidence.

The chief aim of the defense seems to be to fasten the crime on William West, a local character, whose daughter the murdered man had seduced, and thus becloud the case as much as possible.

Several witnesses testified to hearing threats made by West against Erickson, but most of them were some time prior to the murder. It is the belief of some persons who have heard all the testimony thus far that either Garrington or West committed the crime and therefore an unusual stir was created in the court room when West himself was called to the witness stand. Late this afternoon, on rebuttal, he swore positively that he was not within a block of Garrington's shanty when the murder was ommitted; that he did not know of Erickson's return to Sloux Falls until two hours after the murder was discovered, and that he did not know Erickson was killed until about 11 o'clock the next forenoon. West is an Englishman and his prompt and positive manner of answering questions made a decidedly good impression.

The attorney for the defense is an expert at cross-examination, but West was too much for him and did not contradict himself in any particular. Cross-examination of West was not concluded when court ad-leave my lucrative law practice and pleasant home to enter politics. If my candidacy would be necessary to secure the election of a republican then I might consent, but I now see no probability that such a contingency will arise."

AGREE UPON THE HAWAIIAN BILL.

Measure is Essentially that Recommended by the Commission. WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 .- The Hawaiian bill was finally perfected today by the house sub-committee on territories and an agreement reached to favorably present it to the full committee tomorrow, the expectation being that it will be reported to the house tomorrow or within a few days. As agreed on the bill preserves in all essential particulars the bill presented by the government is established with a governor appointed by the president, a delegate elected to congress, a local legislative body. The main changes made by the sub-committee consist in striking out the property qualification of members of the house of representatives and of electors of members he pondered carne) 'the Meat.' and amending the provisions as to the qualification of senators so that $1,000 of property or $600 of income shall suffice. The item of $15,000 for an agricultural inquiry by the secretary of agriculture is also struck out. The provision is retained for the appointment of judges for life and their appointment by the governor. This provision has caused much discussion, as it will be one of the points of a minority report.

ADVISED TO FIGHT THE TREATY.

Andrew Carnegie Objects to Throw ing Away Any Advantage. WASHINGTON, Jan. 10 .- Andrew Carnegie was an interested listener today to Senator Mason's speech. He expressed the opinion that the ratification of the treaty might be defeated and said that it certainly would be if Mr. Morgan would come out in opposition to it. "If he will only advise his followers to fight in the pass and not in the defeat. All that I hear indicates the increase of the opposition ranks and I am quite encouraged to believe the ratification of the treaty can be defeated. According to my opinion this is the opportune time for those who oppose expansion to do their work. Only a one-third vote is required to defeat the treaty, whereas with the treaty ratified, we will have to secure a majority o make our views effective. Hence, I say that this is the time for Mr. Bryan and other anti-expansionists to make their fight. Hereafter we will not enjoy the advantage over our opponents that we now do, having then to meet them in the open field."
