Measles is daily becoming more and more prevalent in Council Bluffs, having even invaded the city jail, where it is now decimated with one of the large yellow cards issued by the local Board of Health as a warning to the public. The party afflicted with the malady is a tramp, B. H. Edwards, who applied for and was given lodging at the city jail last Saturday night. Yesterday he developed a certain, but mild case of measles and was promptly quarantined in one of the rooms on the upper floor. Owing to the existing difference of caring for transient paupers and sick persons, Dr. Lacey did not feel that he was authorized in sending the man to one of the hospitals and decided to keep him at the jail. DEED TO LIGHTING PLANT

Property Passes Into Possession of Council Bluffs Gas and Electric Company.

NEW CORPORATION IS NOW ORGANIZED

Incorporators Are All New York Capitalists, Who Will Have a Local Manager to Look After the Affairs.

The deed whereby Frank T. True conveyed to the reorganized company the property of the Council Bluffs Gas and Electric Light company, bought by him as agent at the foreclosure sale last December in the federal court, was filed for record Tuesday. Mr. True will, however, retain possession of the property until the new company shall have formally received for it, which transaction will be completed in the course of a few days. The new company will be known as the Council Bluffs Gas and Electric company, and is such was recently organized under the laws of New Jersey. The incorporators of the new company are: Hunter Wykes, Victor Cumberston, Thomas J. Kennedy, William B. Hord and Arthur E. Waldrat, all of whom are of New York City. A temporary organization has been formed by the election of the following officers: President, William B. Hord; secretary, Victor Cumberston. The permanent organization will not be perfected until some preliminary matters in connection with the reorganization are disposed of. It is understood that George F. Wright of this city will, as heretofore, continue to direct the affairs of the company and that for the present at least there will be no change in the local management of the plant. The deed filed yesterday bore revenue stamps to the amount of $24, which make $1,048 in all that the sale of the plant and reorganization of the company has contributed under Uncle Sam's war revenue tax. Davis sells drugs. JUDGE DUNCOMBE AT THE COUNCIL. Says Fort Dodge Will Be Built If Fought at Every Step. Judge Duncome, president of the Fort Dodge & Omaha Railway company, appeared before the adjourned meeting of the city council as a committee of the whole last night and presented his side of the case why the two ordinances submitted by his company granting it a right of way through the city and providing for the vacation by the city of certain streets, avenues and alleys should be passed. In opening his statement President Duncome gave an outline of the history of the Illinois Central in Iowa and explained that the parties who owned it and the Chicago & St. Louis city railroad were at the financial end of the Fort Dodge & Omaha road. He said that the road, when constructed, would be second to none in the state and that eighty-five pound steel rails had been bought for the entire line between Council Bluffs and Fort Dodge. He referred to the opposition his company was meeting from the Northwestern, but admitted that probably if he owned the Northwestern he would not like to see the Illinois Central paralleling its tracks. The Chicago & St. Louis Central into Council Bluffs, he insisted, would be of immense benefit to the city and its citizens and for that reason no stumbling blocks should be put in its way, but, on the other hand, every encouragement given it. As to the right of way through the city, he said that his company asked the city if they would secure them at a fair price and if not they would proceed at once to acquire them by condemnation as provided by law. Owing to the clouded title of some of the lots they had not been able to purchase them, but would have to resort to condemnation proceedings. He called the attention of the councilmen to the city ordinance which showed that the city had vacated a number of streets, avenues and other roads and he expected that the city would be as liberal when dealing with his company. With reference to the right of way through Lake View park he believed that the city council was the proper body to take action on the matter and that the title to the parks was invested in the city and not the park commissioners. The road, he said, would substantially be completed by the beginning of next year and that his company was determined to build it even if it had to be fought. President Duncome addressed the council for upwards of an hour and asked that it take action on the ordinance as soon as possible as his company wished to know "where it was at." In answer to a question of Alderman Christensen, Judge Duncome stated that he could not at this time say whether the road would establish shops at Council Bluffs or not. This would be a matter, he said, to be decided after the road was built. He called attention to the fact that his company had expended over $100,000 in the purchase of property in Council Bluffs and its immediate vicinity and that contracts had been entered into for the purchase of some $75,000 worth more. The committee adjourned without taking any action and will meet today at 12 o'clock and go over the ground where it is sought to secure a right of way and vacation of streets.

Among the cases stricken from the docket yesterday were the following divorce suits: Mary Whitmore against Charles Whitmore; Fred Ebert against Rosa May Ebert; Liddle Cady against T. Cady and Fulvia Keegan against Pat Keegan.

DES MOINES, Jan. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The Iowa State Veterinary Medical association opened its annual convention here today. A resolution was passed asking congress to provide in the new military bill that army veterinary surgeons rank as second lieutenants instead of as privates.

General Wood appeared to be in excellent health. There were on board the transport ten army officers belonging to various regiments, fifty-five discharged and convalescent soldiers and forty-four civilians, among this number being fourteen nurses. Four bodies were brought home on board the Mississippi. One of these bodies was that of Miss Helen Towers, a nurse, who died recently at St. Louis. The other bodies were those of a member of the Mississippi, who was the commander of the transport, suffering from pneumonia. He was taken sick on December 24, while at Ponce, and on reaching Santiago it was deemed prudent to send him ashore to the military hospital rather than risk his life on getting into cold weather aboard the transport. Chief Officer Hopkins was then placed in command of the vessel.

LAHIV PUTS UP A GOOD FIGHT

St. Louis Tailor Has a Desperate Encounter with a Highwayman in the Heart of the City. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—With the police within a block of the scene, John J. Lahiv, the fabled desperado, fought a street battle with a highwayman, and when his assailant had finished with him he had received two wounds, one of which will prove fatal. Lahiv was walking west on Lucas avenue, near Ninth street, when he was ordered by a man who was following him to throw up his hands. The tailor had a large sum of money on his person and wore a diamond stud. Instead of surrendering he reached for his pistol. Before he could draw it the robber seized him and fired a bullet into his chest. The highwayman returned the fire, the bullet taking effect in the groin. After a severe struggle Lahiv succeeded in knocking down the robber. The highwayman, however, was too strong for Lahiv, and he was taken to the hospital. The police are making every effort to find the robber. He is believed to be a member of the "Lahiv" gang. The highwayman was seen to be a man of about thirty years of age, of medium build, with dark hair and a mustache. He was wearing a dark coat and a hat. He was seen to be carrying a large bag or satchel. The police are making every effort to find the robber. He is believed to be a member of the "Lahiv" gang. INTEREST IN TABOR ELOPEMENT.

Gallant Wagon Refused House of His Charming and They Ran Away. TABOR, Ia., Jan. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The one event being discussed in all circles in Tabor today is the elopement last night from the place of Miss Beatie Thornell and J. Martin Adams. A hired driver team took the couple to Bartlett after midnight and it is now thought they are in Kentucky and made one by the aid of the law and a magistrate. Miss Thornell is the eldest daughter of Hon. A. B. Thornell of Sidney, the senior judge on this judicial district, and is a very accomplished young lady. She has been a student in Tabor college this year and was generally liked by all. There are some who are not changed at the turn affairs have taken and many are certain that if the young lady in the case had not missed the early train one morning last week the elopement might have been reported sooner. Not much is known of J. Martin Adams, but reports have it that he was refused admission to Miss Thornell's parental home, but that it was the old story over again of "love laughs at locksmiths." clandestine meetings were held and the elopement was the result. Final developments are awaited with interest.

SUES COUNTY FOR DEPUTY HIRE.

Ex-Sheriff Clark Presents a Bill for $1,050 Against Shelby County. HARLAN, Ia., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Jonas Clark, sheriff of Shelby county from 1896 to 1898, has sued the county for $1,050 for deputy hire, $500 of which he himself paid to W. E. Cooper, now clerk of the county. The remaining $450, Clark says, is due William Nelson, Hiram Yackey and B. U. Kinsey, deputies succeeding Cooper. The issue hinges on the application of a recent law fixing the amount of fees that a sheriff may retain. The voters in Harlan township outside of the city of Harlan recently petitioned the Board of Supervisors to cut their territory of Harlan as a district township. The supervisor consisting of one republican, one democrat and one silver republican, named the new division Bryan township. The fee displayed by some of the leading republicans of the territory was very amusing, many offering their farms for sale. There is talk of the packing company being named. The township is republican. Two Shelby county young men belonging to the Fifty-first Iowa, Privates Curtis and Baker, are reported convalescent at Honolulu, where they were left.

CUDAHY'S PLANT BRANCHES OUT.

Property Purchased for Co-Operative Northwest Packing Company. SIOUX CITY, Jan. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The employees of the Sioux City plant of the Cudahy Packing company have purchased four blocks of property a short distance from the packing house. They will build up what they will call Cudahytown. The already existing plant is located on high and dry, and will make an ideal place for a co-operative townsite. Immediate steps will be taken to improve the property and in the spring many cottages will be built. No one not an employee of the packing company will be allowed to buy lots. There will be a similarity in the style of architecture of the houses and the officers of the company feel sure that in a year or so the town will have street lights and paving.

FIGHT OVER SECRETARSHIP.

Papers and Discussions Before State Agricultural Society. DES MOINES, Jan. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—The State Agricultural society listened to a number of interesting papers and discussions today, the second day of the session, but nothing of startling public interest transpired. Tomorrow six directors will be elected and then the new directory will elect a new secretary. There are three factions engaged in the fight for the secretarship. Sheep Breeders' Convention. AMES, Ia., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The Iowa State Sheep Breeders' association has decided to hold its next meeting in this city on the week of April 3, 1899. The local committee is preparing to give the association a treat in the way of a sheep shearing festival and slaughtering contest, to be held April 6, 7 and 8. This will probably prove of unusual interest. There will be about twenty classes and liberal prizes will be given to each class. Information will be furnished by Superintendent J. J. Edgerton of the college upon application.

FIRE RECORD.

Grain and Barn Burn. PENDER, Neb., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The barn and outbuilding on the farm of Joe Kelso, about two miles west of this place, were burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. The farm is occupied by a tenant by the name of Wheat, who lost about 400 bushels of wheat and some oats and other valuable property. There was some insurance.

SANTIAGO NOW PROSPERING

Customs Receipts Exceed the Record and Suffice to Meet All Expenditures.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The United States transport Mississippi, which sailed from Santiago on the evening of January 4, arrived today. On board the transport were General Wood, military governor of Santiago, and Lieutenant Hanna, aide-de-camp; Dr. Castillo, a brother of the Cuban general, and Colonel Gibson, who superintended the disinfection of provisions for the starving Cubans. General Wood was accompanied at Quaranite, regarding the protest of the people of Santiago over the disposal of the funds of that province, said he did not care to talk on that matter before he visited Washington. There were some dissatisfactions, but nothing to amount to anything. When he left Santiago everything was in splendid shape, schools were being organized and ready to receive scholars and nearly 1,000 miles of roads had been constructed. The customs receipts were the largest ever collected and exceeded the amount collected and turned into the Spanish treasury. Funds were available for meeting the expenses of the administration of the province, and the only expense to the United States would be the cost of loading the transport. The feeling of feeling prevailed and the general condition of things was all that could be desired. General Wood appeared to be in excellent health. There were on board the transport ten army officers belonging to various regiments, fifty-five discharged and convalescent soldiers and forty-four civilians, among this number being fourteen nurses. Four bodies were brought home on board the Mississippi. One of these bodies was that of Miss Helen Towers, a nurse, who died recently at St. Louis. DEATH IN GLASS OF WHISKY

Chief Witness in a Robbery Case is Pat Out of the Way.

AFRAID THAT JOE MINARD WOULD SPEAK Knew of Robbery of a Store at Dodgeville, Ia., and Interested Parties Thought to Have Poisoned Him. BURLINGTON, Jan. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—There seems little doubt that Jud Minard, who died after taking a drink of whisky yesterday, was done to death by some one interested in getting rid of his testimony in a criminal case now pending in court here. The party against whom the case is brought is a man named Robinson, who assisted in robbing a store at Dodgeville recently. Today Bob Johnson, Minard's half brother, informed the police that Minard had confided to him his fear of Robinson. "It is all because I know something about their infernal business," Minard said to him. "I was walking out to Dodgeville from Burlington one evening," he said, "and as I came into Dodgeville I met Robinson and another man. I said, 'Hello Robinson, what are you doing here this time of night?' Then Robinson came up close to me and said: 'If it hadn't been you, Minard, you would have been a dead man. But we know you and we don't think you will give the thing away. We've been up and robbed Beckman's store, and if you ever breathe a word of this we'll kill you as if you were a rat.' The police will take up the case and push it relentlessly. Prizes given with Diamond "C" Soap. Ask your grocer, or send your name on a postal card to Cudahy, South Omaha, and they will mail you a cake of this famous soap. Prizes include books, music toys, games, etc., and are adapted for old and young.
