Claim Made by Administrator of a Dead Man's Estate.

LOOKED UPON AS SCHEME TO GULL UNWARY

Union Pacific Officials Not Aware that Any Large Block of Their Securities Was Ever Owned by the Claimant.

A man claiming to be the administrator of the estate of the late Charles Durkee is reported to be soliciting $10 subscriptions among the working classes in Indiana for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to enable him to colfect a large indebtedness which he says he holds against several railroads. He represents that among the assets of the estate he found $67,000,000 in mortgage bonds of the Union Pacific and other roads, amounting in principal and interest to $200,000,000. He states that he can raise plenty of money from banks and syndicates, but being of a benevolent dispo-sition he is anxious to distribute the money among the middle classes, providing they will supply the sinews of war with which he hopes to collect the claims.

Charles Durkee, whose estate the man says he represents, was a pioneer resident of Kenosha, Wis. He served six years in the United States senate, from 1855 to 1861. He was reputed to be worth something like $100,000 in real estate. In 1865 he was appointed governor of Utah by President Andrew Johnson. After serving three or four years he resigned on account of ill health. He died in Omaha in 1870 while on a trip

Although Durkee was in Salt Lake City during the construction of the Pacific railroads, it is not known that he had anything to do with the financing, the contracts, or was interested in the Credit Mobilier. Inquiry was made in Union Pacific circles concerning the existence of the bonds mentioned by the estate's administrator, but no one appeared to have any knowledge of them. Alex Millar of New York, secretary to President Burt of the Union Pacific, was found. In response to a query regarding the bonds he stated that he does not believe such a sum is held by the estate, as he has never heard the name of Senator Durkee connected with the Union Pacific system. He is satisfied that if such a large block of bonds is held by one person he would

MONTANA MAN GETS THE MAP. Burlington Officials Comply with the Request of a Convict. The passenger department of a great railroad receives thousands of unique letters anqually and the queries propounded often require a man with a fund of knowledge equal to an encyclopedia to answer them. Alt kinds of favors are asked also, but it remained for a Montana convict to send in the most curious plea in the following letter: DEER LODGE, Montana Penitentiary, Jan. Believing in education they will, send the young man the best map they have issued.

THINKS UNION LABEL LEGAL

City Attorney Connell Expresses Opinion that Council Acted with Authority in Printing Matter.

City Attorney Connell is of the opinion that the resolution recently passed by the city council that the union label shall be stamped upon all city job printing is perfeetly legal. Regarding the matter he says: "The charter does not provide that the contract for city printing shall be let to the 'lowest bidder,' but to the 'lowest responsithe interpretation of the term 'lowest re-sponsible bidder,' and I do not believe that the courts will question the judgment of the ble bidder.' The whole matter hinges council in deciding that a responsible bidder is one who, in connection with other qualifications, pays living wages for union hours of labor."

CAPTURE OF A NOTED CRIMINAL

Has a Long Record of Robberies and Successful Jail Breaks to

His Credit. MERIDIAN, Miss., Jan. 12.-The postoffice at Enterprise, Miss., was blown open with dynamite Monday night and the perpetrator escaped after obtaining a considerable sum of stamps, money orders and cash. It is now supposed that the robbery was committed by Thrasher Meade, one of the most desperate criminals in the country. Meade was arrested in Mobile and brought back to Enterprise, but not until after a desperate fight with the officer. A large quantity of postage stamps, blank money orders and $1,138 in cash stolen from the safe at the Enterprise postoffice were recovered. Meade has a criminal record that is hardly second to that of Rube Burrows. For nearly ten years he has infested the railroads of Mississippi and Alabama and is known to have been intimately connected with a band of negro robbers in Chicago. Meade broke into the postoffice at Ackerman, Miss., in the latter part of 1896 and was arrested and taken to the jall at Aberdeen. He sawed his way out in December, 1896 and was next heard of in Chicago. In 1897 he was arrested at Jacksonville, Fla., and taken to Kosciusko, Miss. While there he formed a conspiracy with trusties who were allowed outside of the cage and they overpowered and choked the sheriff and escaped with six others. Meade is known to have been implicated in five train robberies and the Southern Express company has proof that he blew open safes in their offices at Aberdeen and Durango, Miss., during the past year. He has escaped from twentyone jails and once from the Alabama penitentiary since he began his criminal career. The Postoffice department and the express companies offered large rewards for his arrest. Officers who effected his capture will receive several thousand dollars.

Opposes Uniform Text Book Bill. "I hope the uniform school text book bill introduced by Senator Talbot will be knocked out," said County Superintendent Bodwell, "as otherwise it will cost the people of this state many thousands of dollars and we will have the same trouble as they have had in Kansas. It will result in giving some school book company a monopoly and in leaving the whole matter to a commission may have the effect of necessitating a complete change in the text books. Parents and guardians could not stand anything like this if they had to purchase the books, and certainly the state is not in a position to make a wholesale change. We expect to see the Kausas law repealed this winter, as it has not given satisfaction there at all. Some such move in the interests of the school book companies we have been anticipating for some time."

> In addition to the general vaccination orders, the Board of Health has taken other energetic steps to see that the school children in this district are vaccinated. Six physicians were detailed and were at work all day in vaccinating all the children in the Train and Lincoln schools. They used about 1,000 vaccine points purchased by the city for the purpose. This work will not end here, for Health Commissioner Spalding is very seriously considering the plan of sending out physicians to vaccinate every child in the public schools of Omaha. "There are school districts in which the disease has not appeared to be sure," he says, "but a new case may be discovered in any part of the city at any time. It would be much better to have the children of that neighborhood vaccinated before the discovery of the disease than afterward, for then the chances of a child's getting it would be greatly lessened." The health department is sending to each parochial school a copy of the same vaccination order that has been issued in the public schools by Superintendent Pearse, with the request that the notices be sent to the par ents of their children. One day of grace is given under these notices. The child must present a certificate of vaccination on the second day after it has been issued or be debarred from attending school.
