

PAY THE LAST HONOR

Associates Give Final Tribute of Respect to Late Nelson Dingley.

FUNERAL OF MAJESTIC IMPRESSIVENESS

Held in the Hall Where Deceased Earned His Fame.

CHAMBER IS APPROPRIATELY DECORATED

Friends Come from a Distance to Take a Part in the Services.

CIVIL AND MILITARY LIFE REPRESENTED

Distinguished Men of the Nation, Headed by President McKinley and His Cabinet, Join in the Obsequies.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—A state funeral, almost majestic in its impressiveness, was given the late Representative Nelson Dingley at noon today in the house of representatives here.

The president, his cabinet, distinguished members of the diplomatic corps, members of the supreme court, senate and distinguished men in civil and military life were ranged about his bier on the floor of the hall, while the galleries, to which admission could be obtained only by card, were occupied by the families of those who sat upon the floor and prominent persons invited to be present.

The remains were taken from the Hotel Hamilton to the capitol this morning at 10 o'clock and were borne into the hall of representatives by a squad of capitol police under the direction of Sergeant-at-Arms Russell. The casket was placed on a bier in the area in front of the marble rostrum of the speaker and for an hour the public, which would have no opportunity to witness the official ceremonies later, was allowed to view the remains as they lay in state.

The house pages and other employes of the house entered the line and took a last view of the revered statesman. Mr. Dingley was well loved by the employes of the house and there were tears in many eyes.

The decorations of the hall were simple but strikingly beautiful. Palms relieved the rigid corners and palm leaves arranged in the form of a trefoil planted in wreaths of smilax leaves and with long clusters of purple adorned the marble cluster of roses and palm leaves was arranged on each section of the brass railing about the rear of the hall.

Many Floral Offerings. Immediately in front of the white marble rostrum the casket lay, banked on either side with rare and exquisite flowers which completely concealed the marble. These included a few of the most beautiful and most appropriate floral offerings which have been sent to the family, a great wreath of white roses from the Sons and Daughters of Maine, a beautiful piece from the wives of members of the committee and a magnificent mass of American Beauty roses from the Canadian high commission.

The casket was a cluster of orchids, the gift of Mrs. Dingley. At the head of the casket, like a halo above the calm brow of the great man, was a magnificent wreath of orchids and lilies of the valley, tied with purple ribbon, which had been sent by the president. Out in the body of the house, while the body lay in state, a single dead rose was wrapped in black and covered with roses and lilies.

During the interval before 12 almost every member of the house who is in the city came in and stood for a moment by the casket. Mr. Dingley had been a member. The members of the corps were mourning attire. At the head of the diplomatic corps was the venerable dean, the British ambassador, Sir Julian Poyntecote. Following came the Russian ambassador, Count Cassini; French chargé d'affaires, M. Thebaud; Baron Spec von Sternberg of the German embassy; Minister Yang Yu of China, in his rich oriental robes; Baron Reide, the Austrian chargé; the ministers of Japan, Venezuela, Costa Rica and many other countries and many attaches. The Anglo-American commissioners included Lord Herschel, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Louis Davis and Messrs. T. Jefferson Coolidge and John A. Kasson. These followed the chief justice and associate justices of the supreme court in their robes, and they in turn were followed by the president with his cabinet—Secretaries Hay, Gage, Alger, Attorney General Griggs, Secretaries Long, Bliss and Wilson—who took places immediately to the right of the casket. From the lobby in the rear the honorary pall bearers, with white sashes across their breasts, filed in on the left. They were Senators Hale, Aldrich, Burrows, Fairbanks, Pritchard, Berry, Faulkner, Rawlins, McLaughlin and Representatives Boutelle (of Maine), Payne, Dooliver, Tawney, Evans, Hilborn, Clarke (of New Hampshire), Bailey, Dockery, Bell and McClellan.

Directly in front of them and across the aisle from the presidential party and in front of the casket sat the large family of the deceased, representing three generations. It included the two sons, Edwin and Arthur, with the wife and two children of Edwin N. Dingley. One of the children, a bright faced

BEGIN CLEANING UP HAVANA

General Ludlow Starts to Americanize His Seat of Government.

MANY OF THE OLD TIMERS ARE OBJECTING

One Hundred Physicians and One Thousand Laborers Are Now Employed in the Task.

HAVANA, Jan. 16.—The colossal task of putting into proper sanitary condition every dwelling in Havana began today. Surgeon General Ludlow has begun the task of Americanizing his seat of government.

"At Havana orders have been given for the preparation of the Spanish military hospital Alfonso XIII, which has a capacity of 2,000 beds; also for another hospital at Vedado and for another hospital for infectious diseases.

"At Matanzas the military hospital and barracks, which are substantial stone buildings, well adapted to the climate, are being dismantled and prepared for our troops. In the meantime a suburban villa, admirably adapted to the purpose, is being prepared for use as a hospital. The troops in the vicinity of Matanzas are encamped on high ground overlooking the bay, in a location which I consider favorable from a sanitary point of view."

"Yellow fever is epidemic at Havana, Matanzas, Cardenas, Cienfuegos, Trinidad and various other seaport cities. It occasionally prevails in Puerto Principe, Holguin, Pinar Del Rio, Remedios and several other interior towns."

WOOD WILL RECEIVE A RECEPTION. His Work is Highly Pleased to Inhabitants of Santiago.

SANTIAGO, Jan. 16.—Mayor Baccardi has received a cable dispatch from Dr. Castillo, the representative of the business men of this city, who accompanied General Wood to Washington, announcing that complete autonomy will be granted this province. The day, therefore, is practically being observed as a holiday.

Subscriptions are pouring in, so that there will be no lack of money to make the affair a success.

Representatives of a Norwegian wrecking company examined the wrecks of the Spanish war ships yesterday in order to see if it is possible to raise them.

OTIS SENDS FAVORABLE NEWS

War Department Officials Convinced He Has Control of the Situation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—General Otis was heard from again today from Manila and the contents of his cablegram were so reassuring as to the situation there and at Hilo that the officials have come to accept without question the correctness of his statement that the critical stage is past and that he has control of the situation.

COMMISSION TO FILIPINOS

President McKinley Will Appoint One Which It is Believed Will Bring Fourth Good Results.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—President Schurman of Cornell university was at the White House today and had a talk with the president. On leaving he said that he had accepted a position on a commission of five which had been appointed to study the commercial and social problems of the Philippines. It is now understood that the other members of the commission will be Admiral Dewey, General Wood, Colonel Charles Denby and Prof. Worcester of an Arbor university.

The work of the commission, it is understood, will be of a purely economic and not of a political nature. It will study the habits and manners of the Filipinos, the material resources of the country and its commercial possibilities, but it will not attempt to deal with the problem of government for the islands.

The president has been anxious for some time past to have a commission of this sort upon whose information he could rely. The personnel of the commission is considered excellent from the standpoint of expert knowledge of the Orient and general Otis himself is considered familiar with many of the practical details of the Philippine problem. Colonel Denby was for many years minister to China and is thoroughly familiar with the people and many of the problems of the Orient. General Wood has lived for years in the Philippines, hunted with the wildest of the Moro's and Sulus, attended their tribal rites and studied the political economy of the islands at close range. He has written a book on the Philippines, which is highly regarded. His experience work and recently contributed an interesting series of articles on the Philippines to the Century Magazine. President Schurman said the commission expected to sail for Manila about February 1.

So far as can be gathered the president has not completed the list of the commissioners. Supposing that he includes General Otis and Admiral Dewey he would add the names of President Schurman of Cornell university, which is a standard reference work on the Philippines, and General Wood. He has under consideration the names of Charles Denby as the last member, but as Mr. Denby is engaged with the War Investigation commission at present, with an indefinite program before him, he will not be able to go.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 16.—It was announced tonight that the Board of Trustees of Cornell university will appoint T. F. Crane, present dean of the faculty of arts and sciences, to perform the duties of President of Cornell during the absence of President Schurman's leave of absence will extend to January 1, 1900.

TROOPS TO SAIL WEDNESDAY

Major General Lawton Will Be Given a Round Trip Fare to the Transport Leaves.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The United States transport Grant, formerly the Mohawk, having on board the Fourth Infantry, and a battalion of the Seventeenth Infantry, will sail from New York Wednesday for the Philippines, via the Suez canal. It will reach Manila some time between thirty and thirty-two days from the time of sailing.

General Lawton, who will be assigned to the Philippines, will take passage with his staff aboard the Grant. The secretary of war has given instructions to the commander of the forts in the harbor of New York to fire a major general's salute in General Lawton's honor as the Grant passes each fort.

General Lawton has selected the following members of his staff: Aldes, Captain Robert Sewall, a son of Robert Sewall; Lieutenant E. T. King and Lieutenant W. Brooks, a son of the late General Clarence E. Edwards, adjutant general; Major J. A. Starr, inspector general, and Colonel J. D. Miley, formerly of General Shafter's staff.

The departure of General Lawton will be made a notable occasion for Secretary Alger, Adjutant General Corbin, several of the bureau chiefs of the War department and the members of the military committees of the senate and house will go to New York to see the expedition off. A special train will carry them to New York tomorrow night, the main purpose being to give General Lawton a proper farewell, but Secretary Alger being also desirous of making a thorough inspection of the Grant, which is believed to be the most perfect troop transport in any military service.

LINE UP IN PENNSYLVANIA

Senator Quay Will Have Battle Royal for His Re-Election.

DAVE MARTIN CREATES A SENSATION

Resigns as Secretary of the Commonwealth that He May Enter the Fight Against His Old Enemy.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 16.—The battle for United States senator will open tomorrow with the taking of the first ballot in the senate and house. The fight is between Senator Quay, backed by the 109 senators and members who took part in the republican caucus, and the 109 democrats, who are the candidate of the democratic caucus, and a half dozen "favorite sons" nominated by the anti-Quay republican legislators.

With the democrats and anti-Quayites voting for their candidates the indications are that there will be a deadlock. It is an open question with the republican and democratic leaders how long this condition of affairs will continue.

Senator Quay's managers are confident that there will be only one result, and that is a deadlock. They are confident that they will be able to beat their candidate and are leaving the republicans to fight it out among themselves.

Clark Gains Two Votes. HELENA, Mont., Jan. 16.—The second week of the exciting senatorial contest opened with an expressed confidence on the part of both the leading candidates. Many believe that Clark or Conrad will be elected this week. Following is the result of the vote today: Conrad, 36; Clark, 25, a gain of two for Clark and a loss of one for the Daily man. Goddard received the republican vote; scattering, 16.

Vote for Senator Today. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 16.—The Missouri legislature will ballot for United States senator today. The republican candidate is Francis Pickens, who was elected in November to the senate from the Eighth Philadelphia district and expected to qualify tomorrow after the change in the state administration. He changed his mind this evening and sent his resignation to Governor Hearnes, who accepted it on the condition that the resignation was accepted and Martin will qualify in the morning.

Heads Off the New Governor. The senator-elect is one of the anti-Quay leaders and rumor had it today that Governor-elect Stone, who is in sympathy with the Quay movement, would not send his cabinet appointments to the senate tomorrow, but would withhold them until the senatorial fight is over. This would have kept Senator Martin in the commonwealth and prevented his qualifying. Mr. Martin resigned and thus retired a day in advance of the other members of Governor Hearnes' cabinet.

There were present at the anti-Quay conference forty-seven of the fifty-two members and senators pledged not to vote for Senator Quay while he is under indictment in the Philadelphia courts. The absentees were accounted for to the satisfaction of their associates.

Congressman John Daisell of Pittsburg, Congressman Charles W. Stone of Warren and J. F. Dawning of Erie, who are also being indicted in the Philadelphia courts, are people, are on the ground looking over the situation.

Senator Quay reached Harrisburg at midnight from Washington, and is staying at the residence of County Chairman Wells. The senator expects to remain here through the early stages of the fight. He shares the confidence of his managers.

Ex-Senator Durham issued a statement late tonight claiming that only thirty-four republicans had attended the anti-Quay caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Through Saturday, Northerly Winds.

Temperature at Omaha yesterday: Hour. Deg. Hour. Deg. 5 a. m. 31 1 p. m. 39 6 29 2 40 7 a. m. 31 3 p. m. 36 8 29 4 34 9 a. m. 29 5 p. m. 32 10 27 6 p. m. 31 11 a. m. 32 7 p. m. 28 12 m. 30 8 p. m. 25 9 p. m. 25

DELAWARE REPUBLICANS DIVIDE

Addicks and Dupont Factions Continue the Old Fight.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 16.—The republican members of the legislature, who number thirty-one of the total membership of fifty-two, are tonight in a deadlock for United States senator to succeed Hon. George Gray. The only republicans who met were the union, or Addicks, republicans, and fifteen of this faction gathered in the house of representatives.

The democratic members held a minority caucus this evening and after several of that party had withdrawn, owing to their settlements on the silver question, the remainder voted unanimously for George Gray.

Clark Gains Two Votes. HELENA, Mont., Jan. 16.—The second week of the exciting senatorial contest opened with an expressed confidence on the part of both the leading candidates. Many believe that Clark or Conrad will be elected this week. Following is the result of the vote today: Conrad, 36; Clark, 25, a gain of two for Clark and a loss of one for the Daily man. Goddard received the republican vote; scattering, 16.

Vote for Senator Today. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 16.—The Missouri legislature will ballot for United States senator today. The republican candidate is Francis Pickens, who was elected in November to the senate from the Eighth Philadelphia district and expected to qualify tomorrow after the change in the state administration. He changed his mind this evening and sent his resignation to Governor Hearnes, who accepted it on the condition that the resignation was accepted and Martin will qualify in the morning.

Heads Off the New Governor. The senator-elect is one of the anti-Quay leaders and rumor had it today that Governor-elect Stone, who is in sympathy with the Quay movement, would not send his cabinet appointments to the senate tomorrow, but would withhold them until the senatorial fight is over. This would have kept Senator Martin in the commonwealth and prevented his qualifying. Mr. Martin resigned and thus retired a day in advance of the other members of Governor Hearnes' cabinet.

There were present at the anti-Quay conference forty-seven of the fifty-two members and senators pledged not to vote for Senator Quay while he is under indictment in the Philadelphia courts. The absentees were accounted for to the satisfaction of their associates.

Congressman John Daisell of Pittsburg, Congressman Charles W. Stone of Warren and J. F. Dawning of Erie, who are also being indicted in the Philadelphia courts, are people, are on the ground looking over the situation.

Senator Quay reached Harrisburg at midnight from Washington, and is staying at the residence of County Chairman Wells. The senator expects to remain here through the early stages of the fight. He shares the confidence of his managers.

Ex-Senator Durham issued a statement late tonight claiming that only thirty-four republicans had attended the anti-Quay caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

OTIS SENDS FAVORABLE NEWS

War Department Officials Convinced He Has Control of the Situation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—General Otis was heard from again today from Manila and the contents of his cablegram were so reassuring as to the situation there and at Hilo that the officials have come to accept without question the correctness of his statement that the critical stage is past and that he has control of the situation.

COMMISSION TO FILIPINOS

President McKinley Will Appoint One Which It is Believed Will Bring Fourth Good Results.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—President Schurman of Cornell university was at the White House today and had a talk with the president. On leaving he said that he had accepted a position on a commission of five which had been appointed to study the commercial and social problems of the Philippines. It is now understood that the other members of the commission will be Admiral Dewey, General Wood, Colonel Charles Denby and Prof. Worcester of an Arbor university.

The work of the commission, it is understood, will be of a purely economic and not of a political nature. It will study the habits and manners of the Filipinos, the material resources of the country and its commercial possibilities, but it will not attempt to deal with the problem of government for the islands.

The president has been anxious for some time past to have a commission of this sort upon whose information he could rely. The personnel of the commission is considered excellent from the standpoint of expert knowledge of the Orient and general Otis himself is considered familiar with many of the practical details of the Philippine problem. Colonel Denby was for many years minister to China and is thoroughly familiar with the people and many of the problems of the Orient. General Wood has lived for years in the Philippines, hunted with the wildest of the Moro's and Sulus, attended their tribal rites and studied the political economy of the islands at close range. He has written a book on the Philippines, which is highly regarded. His experience work and recently contributed an interesting series of articles on the Philippines to the Century Magazine. President Schurman said the commission expected to sail for Manila about February 1.

So far as can be gathered the president has not completed the list of the commissioners. Supposing that he includes General Otis and Admiral Dewey he would add the names of President Schurman of Cornell university, which is a standard reference work on the Philippines, and General Wood. He has under consideration the names of Charles Denby as the last member, but as Mr. Denby is engaged with the War Investigation commission at present, with an indefinite program before him, he will not be able to go.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 16.—It was announced tonight that the Board of Trustees of Cornell university will appoint T. F. Crane, present dean of the faculty of arts and sciences, to perform the duties of President of Cornell during the absence of President Schurman's leave of absence will extend to January 1, 1900.

TROOPS TO SAIL WEDNESDAY

Major General Lawton Will Be Given a Round Trip Fare to the Transport Leaves.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The United States transport Grant, formerly the Mohawk, having on board the Fourth Infantry, and a battalion of the Seventeenth Infantry, will sail from New York Wednesday for the Philippines, via the Suez canal. It will reach Manila some time between thirty and thirty-two days from the time of sailing.

General Lawton, who will be assigned to the Philippines, will take passage with his staff aboard the Grant. The secretary of war has given instructions to the commander of the forts in the harbor of New York to fire a major general's salute in General Lawton's honor as the Grant passes each fort.

General Lawton has selected the following members of his staff: Aldes, Captain Robert Sewall, a son of Robert Sewall; Lieutenant E. T. King and Lieutenant W. Brooks, a son of the late General Clarence E. Edwards, adjutant general; Major J. A. Starr, inspector general, and Colonel J. D. Miley, formerly of General Shafter's staff.

The departure of General Lawton will be made a notable occasion for Secretary Alger, Adjutant General Corbin, several of the bureau chiefs of the War department and the members of the military committees of the senate and house will go to New York to see the expedition off. A special train will carry them to New York tomorrow night, the main purpose being to give General Lawton a proper farewell, but Secretary Alger being also desirous of making a thorough inspection of the Grant, which is believed to be the most perfect troop transport in any military service.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Through Saturday, Northerly Winds.

Temperature at Omaha yesterday: Hour. Deg. Hour. Deg. 5 a. m. 31 1 p. m. 39 6 29 2 40 7 a. m. 31 3 p. m. 36 8 29 4 34 9 a. m. 29 5 p. m. 32 10 27 6 p. m. 31 11 a. m. 32 7 p. m. 28 12 m. 30 8 p. m. 25 9 p. m. 25

DELAWARE REPUBLICANS DIVIDE

Addicks and Dupont Factions Continue the Old Fight.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 16.—The republican members of the legislature, who number thirty-one of the total membership of fifty-two, are tonight in a deadlock for United States senator to succeed Hon. George Gray. The only republicans who met were the union, or Addicks, republicans, and fifteen of this faction gathered in the house of representatives.

The democratic members held a minority caucus this evening and after several of that party had withdrawn, owing to their settlements on the silver question, the remainder voted unanimously for George Gray.

Clark Gains Two Votes. HELENA, Mont., Jan. 16.—The second week of the exciting senatorial contest opened with an expressed confidence on the part of both the leading candidates. Many believe that Clark or Conrad will be elected this week. Following is the result of the vote today: Conrad, 36; Clark, 25, a gain of two for Clark and a loss of one for the Daily man. Goddard received the republican vote; scattering, 16.

Vote for Senator Today. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 16.—The Missouri legislature will ballot for United States senator today. The republican candidate is Francis Pickens, who was elected in November to the senate from the Eighth Philadelphia district and expected to qualify tomorrow after the change in the state administration. He changed his mind this evening and sent his resignation to Governor Hearnes, who accepted it on the condition that the resignation was accepted and Martin will qualify in the morning.

Heads Off the New Governor. The senator-elect is one of the anti-Quay leaders and rumor had it today that Governor-elect Stone, who is in sympathy with the Quay movement, would not send his cabinet appointments to the senate tomorrow, but would withhold them until the senatorial fight is over. This would have kept Senator Martin in the commonwealth and prevented his qualifying. Mr. Martin resigned and thus retired a day in advance of the other members of Governor Hearnes' cabinet.

There were present at the anti-Quay conference forty-seven of the fifty-two members and senators pledged not to vote for Senator Quay while he is under indictment in the Philadelphia courts. The absentees were accounted for to the satisfaction of their associates.

Congressman John Daisell of Pittsburg, Congressman Charles W. Stone of Warren and J. F. Dawning of Erie, who are also being indicted in the Philadelphia courts, are people, are on the ground looking over the situation.

Senator Quay reached Harrisburg at midnight from Washington, and is staying at the residence of County Chairman Wells. The senator expects to remain here through the early stages of the fight. He shares the confidence of his managers.

Ex-Senator Durham issued a statement late tonight claiming that only thirty-four republicans had attended the anti-Quay caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent his election. He declared his absolute certainty of Senator Quay's re-election.

Senator Quay is expected to attend the caucus, and this number, even if all should vote against him, would be insufficient to prevent