Discharged Policemen Are Reinstated by an Order from the Court.

A rather peculiar turn has been taken in the mandamus suits brought by ex-Police Captains H. P. Haze and A. T. Sigwart, Sergeant M. V. Halter and Patrolmen F. Q. Severance, Lawrence Fay and Fred Wolf to compel the fire and police commission to reinstate them in their positions without loss of salary for the time since their discharge last fall.

The matter has been dragging along in the courts for several weeks and yet no answer was filed by the commission. Yesterday Judge Keyser called the cases and inasmuch as the defendant had defaulted as to any showing the court ordered peremptory writs to issue.

The attorney for the commission, Edgar Scott, was present, but he conceded that the commission was in the wrong, legally when it discharged the men without cause. This was equivalent to an admission that the commission would not attempt to fight the cases.

The commission now has no other alternative, except to reinstate the men. It is understood that they will at once resign, as they agreed to do so at the time of their discharge. They got their pay, however, under the peremptory writs, or, at least, a ground for suit against the city to recover.

Ex-Sergeant King's case was not acted upon for some reason. The same action as in the other cases was had in that of the late Thomas Ormsby, notwithstanding his decease, because his case having been brought before his death, it had the same status before the court as the others.

The petitioners were all discharged summarily shortly after the new commission was placed in control by the supreme court's decision, sustaining Judge Scott's action against the old board, and Chief Martin White superseded Gallagher. They were strong supporters of the Gallagher regime.

Their back pay amounts to about $1,750 in the aggregate, their monthly salaries being as follows, from the date of their discharge: Captain Sigwart, $90, from September 24; Captain Haze, $90, from November 24; Sergeant Halter, $85, from October 24; Patrolmen Severance and Wolfe, $70 each, and Ormsby and Fay, $75 each, from October 18.

Who is to Blame? You are if you are troubled with your kidneys or liver—as this testimonial shows you there is a relief if you try Cramer's Kidney and Liver Cure

I had tried any number of so-called kidney and liver cures and I became disgusted with them all. A friend of mine asked me if I would try Cramer's Kidney and Liver Cure if he would get it for me. I finally consented to do so—as he claimed it had cured him—and I want to say to all those afflicted with either of these complaints that it is the greatest remedy made, as it has made a new man of me.

MRS. MOORE WANTS FREEDOM Alleged "Panel Worker" Makes Effort to Employ a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Justice Bookstaver in the supreme court today granted a writ of habeas corpus for the production of Mrs. Fayne Strahan Moore, who is in the Tombs awaiting her second trial for alleged complicity with her husband in "badgering" Martin Mahon. The writ inquires into the refusal, if any, to accept the offer of J. Campbell to go surety. District Attorney Gardner yesterday intimated that he would not accept Campbell's bond and counsel for Mrs. Moore, thinking that the district attorney might refuse to accept the surety, brought the certiorari proceedings. Mrs. Moore was brought into court, but the arguing of the writ was postponed until Monday, and Mrs. Moore was taken back to the Tombs.
