Will Air Their Views on the Subject During the Week.

White Will Speak Against the Policy

Senator Lodge Will Follow, Championing the Opposite Idea.

Treaty Will Be Up for Consideration

House Expects to Have a Lively Time with the Army Bill.

Opposition to Increasing Its Size

Doubt About the Future of the Philippines is Expected to Exert an Influence on the Decision of the Question.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The fact that the anti-slavery bill was made the unfinished business of the senate by Saturday's vote does not necessarily insure its immediate consideration.

Several speeches will be made upon the peace treaty and the appropriation bill and that the Indian appropriation bill will be the first measure to receive the attention of the senate during the week.

How much time will be given to the treaty in executive session will depend upon whether the committee on foreign relations considers it in the interest of the treaty to press consideration.

PROTEST AGAINST EXPANSION

Mass Meeting in New York City Denies the Imperialistic Idea.

Dangers of the Policy Pointed Out

Addresses by Former Ambassador Eustis, Samuel Gompers and Bourke Cockran Series of Resolutions Adopted.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A mass meeting of citizens was held in the Academy of Music tonight, under the auspices of the Continental League for the purpose of protesting against the policy of "imperialism."

The meeting was attended by a great crowd, and a list of vice presidents was read, including these names: Wheeler H. Peckham, Abram S. Hewitt, Henry Loomis Nelson, William H. Burdette, Roger A. Pryor, Francis Wayland Glen, John C. Sheehan and Frederic R. Coudert.

Communications were read from ex-President Cleveland, W. J. Bryan and Bishop Henry C. Potter, regretting their inability to attend.

Series of Resolutions.

Resolutions were adopted declaring: That the full discharge of our obligations to the inhabitants of the Philippines requires that we should without delay help them to secure their domestic affairs.

That we are opposed to the abandonment of this republic of the American ideal of national government.

That neither the government nor the people of the United States have incurred any responsibility or obligation as to the result of the recent war with Spain.

That we are opposed, therefore, to the idea that the peace-loving people of the republic who are engaged in the grand task of developing the theory that there should be no taxation without representation.

STONE STANDS UP FOR QUAY

Pennsylvania's Governor Comes to the Defense of the Wily Senator.

Gives Out a Statement in His Behalf

Thinks Quay Will Be Re-Elected if His Supporters Remain Firm—Makes a Plea for Matt's Success.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 22.—Governor Stone gave out the following signed statement this evening on the senatorial situation.

"My opinion has not changed since I expressed the belief, after the action of the caucus making Mr. Quay the nominee of the republican party for United States senator, that he would be re-elected.

"The caucus was regularly called and properly conducted. Stalwart republicans generally throughout the commonwealth have accepted him as the candidate of their party and want to see him elected.

"It is not my purpose or intention to quarrel with any one who is opposed to Senator Quay. That is his right and privilege.

"I do say that I believe that way down in the hearts of nearly one-half of a million republicans of Pennsylvania who voted for me for governor at the last election there is a feeling of sympathy for Senator Quay.

CLEANING UP HAVANA

Physical and Moral Regeneration of the City Progresses Satisfactorily.

General Ludlow is Highly Pleased

Compliments the Cubans on Their Heartly Co-Operation in the Work.

HIS MEASURES ARE CORDIALLY SUPPORTED

Revenues of the City Inad-quate to Meet All the Necessary Demands.

Measure of Defense by the Washington Government to Advance the Money Needed to Effect Sanitation in Havana.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) HAVANA, Jan. 22.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Major General Ludlow, military governor of the city of Havana, gives the following authorized information:

"I desire to make a communication to the Cubans and the inhabitants of Havana in general. Without their faithful and noble aid, the maintenance of complete peace and the rapid inauguration of public improvements and reforms would have been impossible.

"In order to destroy as far as possible any likelihood of trouble during evacuation by the Spanish forces I was forced to order the Cubans to suspend indefinitely a work of much provocation. I had at the very outset to cause them a severe disappointment.

"The same cordial support has been given to the sanitary regulations recently issued and today there is not a street in the city unfit for pedestrians.

"Public health can best be secured by covering this ground by asphalt. Such a pavement is not so soft. It is never so warm here as it is a weak impervious material.

"From all indications the revenues of the city will not meet the cost of the required improvement for many years. Yet the lack of these improvements breeds yellow fever and cholera.

"The organization of a native police force is progressing satisfactorily. It has been carried on according to the recommendations of General Greene, which provide among other things, that the force should be superintended by a United States officer until we could get the proper Cuban for chief of police.

"The Spanish government so stilled Cuban education that out of 200,000 Cuban soldiers only twenty were found who could fulfill these simple requirements. Residents of Havana who know the city and its people are being accepted. The best of the old Spanish policemen will be re-employed. The remainder of the force will be carefully selected from the Cuban army.

"The recent inclusion of Havana suburbs within the peace limits under my authority is a logical necessity for the maintenance of law. These back districts are the natural haunts of the criminal class and by constant watch upon them through my own
