Any Laws Passed by Legislature Shall Upon Petition Be Submitted to Citizens at the Next General Election.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 24.- (Special Telegram.)-The course of legislation on a bill carrying into effect the provisions of the initiative and referendum has gone so far committee bill will be the one adopted by the session. The only objection whatever which has been made to it, and which amendments were offered upon was the attempt to secure the submission of any law upon which the referendum had been invoked, at a special election early after the and approval. session which passed the law, but the overwhelming sentiment is that such laws shall walt until the following general election.

H. L. Loucks, "the father of populism" in South Dakota, is here and desires to have the special election provisions incorporated in the law, but at the same time admits that the sentiment of the legislature is twenty acres. The railroad committee reagainst it. W. E. Kidd, who as a member two years ago introduced the resolution for the amendment, is also desiring that the special election provision be added to it, but does not believe that he will succeed. The bill only lacked two votes of having the required two-thirds constitutional majority in the house yesterday, and would certainly have passed had it not been for a number of absentees. The few votes which were cast against it were not intended as opposition to the measure, only to the feature of waiting until a general election to submit measures.

Text of the Bill.

The following is the committee bill: Section 1-All measures proposed to the legislature under the initiative shall be presented by petition, which petition shall be signed by not less than 5 per cent of the qualified electors of the state, and each elector shall add to his signature his place of residence, his business and his postoffice The petition shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and upon the convening of the legislature, the secretary of state shall transmit to the senate and house of representatives certified copies of all of said petitions, which may be on file in the office of secretary of state at the convening of said legislature, and whenever a measure is proposed during the session of legislature, it shall be transmitted by the secretary of state forthwith to the senate and house of representatives, and the legislature shall enact and submit all of such proposed measures to a vote of the place. electors of the state at the next general election. 2-If a majority of all the votes cast both for and against the measure so enacted and submitted, be for the measure, it shall then become a law of the state of South Dakota, and shall go into effect and be it force immediately after the result shall have been determined by the officers author-

My baby had a terrible breaking out all over his face and head, extending half way down his back, while his arm became one solid, scaly, bleeding sore. A physician gave me a prescrip-tion which I used, but he kept getting worse, and suffered beyond description. The pain be came so intense that he had to be put under opiates. We could get no rest, night or day. He dwindled down to a mere skeleton. Everybody who saw him said he would surely die. As a last resort a trip to the country was suggested, that the change of air might do him good. As of an Atlanta paper, in which there was an ac count of a wonderful cure CUTICURA REMEDIES had wrought on a two-year-old child. My father started to the nearest drug store, which was five miles, and purchased CUTICURA (ointment), Cu TICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT. W. applied as per directions putting plenty of the CUTICURA on his head, face, arm, and back. The child stept for over two hours that night, improved daily, and in nine weeks from the time he started on the Curicuna Remedies we were ble to discontinue their use, and not a sign is left to tell of his awful sufferings.

Timber Will Be Protected.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Jan. 24 .- (Special.) -C. W. Green, United States timber inspector for the Black Hills, has been in this locality for a few days and has caused considerable surmise as to whether people are to be permitted to cut wood for their own use. He has notified parties who have been hauling wood to this city to sell that they are forbidden that privilege. The old dead timber may be used for domestic purposes, after which timber may be cut by people for their own use, but they must pay for it according to stumpage measurement. This is likely to make quite a change in the use of fuel here and coal will be more largely used than wood

The report of the executive committee was submitted, embracing the reports of the recording secretary and treasurer. Recording Secretary Charles F. Martin in his report kave a review of the work of the year, showing how by the unremitting efforts of the executive officers, aided by the membership and the press, the association was started a year ago without a dollar and a name on its membership rolls and has grown to be a powerful organization, embracing nearly 100 local associations, out of debt and with nearly $1,000 in its treasury. The association, he said, represented 5,000 people, owning 8,000,000 head of stock, valued at $250,-

Mr. Martin made a number of suggestions regarding changes in the bylaws and regulations of the association. These suggestions were adopted by the association. The most important of these are the admission to membership of railroad and telephone companies and a change in the laws and three members of the executive committee to act for the executive committee in minor mattrs. Treasurer G. L. Goulding reported receipts for the year $1,899 and disbursements $966, leaving a balance of $933.

The report of the executive committee went on to state that Denver had been chosen as permanent headquarters of the association, the Denver Union Stock Yards company having offered free offices in its new building and the Denver Chamber of Commerce having agreed to print and distribute the report of this convention as it did that of last year.

Talks on Stock Industry. The remainder of the session was devoted to brief talks on the condition of the stock industry in the various states. All reported the highest prosperity except H. H. Jastro of California, who said the drouth of last year had somewhat crippled the industry in his state, but that the present outlook was bright.

lawmakers who are not afraid to uphold of letters, still unopened, tears came to his their convictions in any place and under any eyes as he said: "Those are from his wife, and it was only yesterday morning that ou he was all broken up about it, and now they have arrived, but he did not see them nor receive a single message from home." He was about to inclose them in the pack age when I asked him if he knew whom they were from, and he said that they from his wife and children-that he knew the writing well. I suggested that in this case a little deception would not be wrong, as it was rather hard for the family to have the letters go back unopened, and for them feel that he had never received any word from them, so we broke the seni and took out the letters and crumpled the paper a bit. In one from his wife there was a faded rose, the petals of which were already commencing to drop, but the frag-rance was still there. Little did that fond wife think that this sweet token of love would be the only floral tribute at her loved one's burial. A mersage from his daughter was wrapped in a small silken flag, the flag which her father had given her life, and inside was a little package, a couple of inches square, daintily tied with red, white and blue ribbons, containing a fourleaf clover, but it had come too late! In another envelops, all by itself, was a little half-sheet of paper on which there printed in pencil, in rough, childish letters "Dere papa hurry up and come home Im lonsom." And that night when the trumpe-ter sounded "taps." It had a double meaning—a short sleep for the living and a long sleep for the dead.

Electricity, as applied through the agency of my Electric Belt, is the greatest brain and nerve tonic and blood purifier known to science-it will repair the body and strengthen and refresh the entire system. How many-who thought they possessed a AFTER-EFFECTS OF LA GRIPPE. powerful body-strong and steady nervesnow shudder at the feeling of exhaustion, lassitude and general depression that depresses them! Hundreds and thousands of men and women are drifting into an early grave because they neglected to heed the warning of loss of nerve power and vigorwhich makes the brain tired, the muscles weak, the limbs trembling-that saps life itself and leaves the whole body without strength or ambition.
