CLUB of six gentlemen can have pleasant rooms with board in private family near park. 1302 South 29th st. S-175 29*

MME. GYLMER, THE CELEBRATED palmist, is entering upon her third year in Omaha. She can positively tell the past, present and future. As has been said before, she does not pose as a gypsy nor does she have to jump from one city to another or change her name at every change of the moon because of a "fake" practice. She is a thorough palmist and guarantees sacisfaction. What more could you ask? Mme. Gylmer can be consulted between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.; Sundays from 10 to 4. "WHAT has caused the late activity in Ne-braska lands and sudden rising of values, unprecedented since the days of the home-steader?" we were asked last week by an investor who had just invested more thousands in a tract of rich Nebraska loam than he had phalanges in his hands and feet. There are three obvious causes, we replied. First, the objection of farm-ers, living within a radius of 30 miles of Chicago, that Nebraska was too far from market has been completely overcome by the establishment of the Omaha market, the equal of any other market in the mid-dle West, or the world, for the farmer, Second, among the five great corn states, all of which are mighty producers or corn, Nebraska for two years has been the ag-ricultural giant at the head of the col-Nebraska for two years has been the agricultural giant at the head of the column. Enjoying the first place as a producer of the great wealth-making cereal—corn—Nebraska has flopped over into the bread pan of the world to centend for first place with Minnesota and Kansas, having produced £2.00,000 bushels of wheat in 1808. Pre-eminence attracts attention from abroad and the non-resident investor is in Nebraska with his cash. Third, there is a plethora of money in Nebraska banks, produced by Nebraska farms, and Nebraska farmers themselves are blessed with the cash with which to buy Nebraska with the cash with which to buy Nebraska Nebraska farmers themselves are blessed with the cash with which to buy Nebraska land. This fact, too, attracts the shrewd man with cash from abread, who sees the quick result of this condition.

As certain as water seeks its level, land in the corn states must equalize in selling value and farms in Nebraska east of Holdrege and Kearney must touch par with the $100 lands immediately to the cast of this section, over which no section of the corn beit can boast of better markets.

Here is the best bargain west of the Missouri river
500 ACICES LEVEL, RICH LOAM.
Located 4 miles north of Sutton, in Clay county, two houses, two barns, two wells and winomilis, corneribs for 10,000 bushels of corn, orchard and vineyard; three barrels of luxurious wine were made from this vineyard last fall. It is a beautiful tract of land in a beautiful country, not outchased in fertility by the alluvial bottoms of the Mississippi river nor the timerenowned valley of the Egyptian Nile. To sell this land at the price we are authorized to sell it is equivalent to placing several thousand dollars cash money to your credit in a national bank.

The price will be given to the man of bushness. Call and see us or write us Monday morning.
