FUNERAL OF COLONEL SEXTON Commander of Grand Army of the Republic Given the Last Rites of the Order. CHICAGO, Feb. 8 .- Without unnecessary ormality or pomp the body of the late Colonel James A. Sexton, commander-inchief of the Grand Army of the Republic was laid at rest today at Rose Hill cemetery Comrades of Columbia post conducted the services at Memorial hall in the Public Library building and at the grave, while other posts of the city attended and assisted

There it lay in state, viewed by hundreds of old soldiers and friends, until 1:30 o'clock, when the ritual service of the Grand Army of the Republic was read by National Chaplain Danfel Lucas of Indianapolis. After the forty posts of Cook county had viewed the remains, the funeral procession formed and the body was borne to Rose Hill, where again the religious ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic was read and three volleys, the military salute to the dead, fired over the grave. The commanders of the forty posts of Cook county acted as honorary pallbearers. Tonight there will be a meeting of the excutive committee of the national council of the Grand Army of the Republic for the purpose of deciding upon a successor to fill the unexpired term of the late commander. The candidates are General John C. Black of sioner Ostrom, one of the members of the Illinois and Senior Vice Commander W. C.

Leaves His Beat to Preach. NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A clash between police duty and orthodoxy has involved Roundsman William Neebitt of the Wakefield station in a serious difficulty. He will have to answer charges of leaving his post while supposed to be on duty, in order to preach a sermon in the Wakefield Methodiat sturch. Roundsman Nesbitt has carried the sobriquet of the "preacher cop." Four Hours. After stabbing desperately at the bottom of the tube for ten days the mercury beat its record for the winter at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the government thermometer registered a temper ature of 17 degrees below zero. This pendent of government inspection were nade to say. The instruments that hang on suburban residences were unanimous in pronouncing the cold more than 20 degrees below zero and registrations of 26 and 28 degrees below were recorded in a number of exposed posttions. It seemed that old Boreas realized that the decreasing barometrical pressure through the west portended disaster and he vented all of his energies in an effort to make his last grip tight enough to make him remembered. Even with stoves and furnaces stoked to their limit people were unable to entirely drive the cold out of their residences and comparatively few Omaha itizens enjoyed the luxury of performing their morning ablutions in an atmosphere that was even moderately comfortable. Brick walls and steam heat also met their natch and most of the blg down-town uildings were unable to keep their tenants thoroughly warm during the forenoon. On the streets the cold was biting and intense and the few pedestrians who were comselled to be abroad hurried to shelter

every few blocks to warm extremities that were threatened with frost bite every five minutes.

The cold was intense all through the upper Missouri valley. At Sioux City it was 26 degrees below zero, at Huron 32, and at Bismarck, N. D., and Morehead, Minn., 36 legrees. At Williston, N. D., near the site of old Fort Beaufort, the government thernometers registered the unprecedented figure of 40 degrees below. No reports were reeived from the British possessions further orth, but there is every reason to believe hat 50 degrees was approximated at various oints north of the United States line. It vas a little warmer at North Platte, where he comparatively moderate cold of 8 degrees below was recorded, but at Valentine it iropped to 24, or 7 degrees colder than at Smaha. When the western boundary of Nebraska s passed the reports are indicative of hanged conditions. At Cheyenne it was 14 legrees above zero, a rise of 26 degrees in the last twenty-four hours. At Denver the temperature rose 18, at Pueblo 22, and in orthern Texas 20 degrees. These reports, ogether with the decreasing pressure, inicate that the backbone of the cold wave has been broken, and in another twentyfour hours it will give way to a more mod erate season. The influence of the present conditions will keep the atmosphere deidedly too frosty for comfort through the light, but Thursday is almost certain to bring warmer weather. Cold Along Railway Lines.

The Burlington's weather report from ninety-two points along its lines in Kansas. Nebraska, Wyoming, South Dakota and Montana shows continuing cold weather, but the average is slightly warmer than the re port of Tuesday. The Elkborn and Union Pacific both re ported Omaha to be the coldest point on their Nebraska lines. General Passenger Agent Buchanan of the Elkhorn contented himself with the thought that the weather is balmy at Hot Springs, which is reached by his road. Union Pacific officials report that the loss of cattle on the western ranges has not been so heavy as one might suppose from the residence on La Salle avenue at 9 o'clock severity of the weather, but unless there is a change in the temperature within a short time the losses will be enormous. cattle have stood the ordeal in good shape. but they have about reached the end of with additional snow, will have a disastrou effect. The report from the local weather that the cold snap has probably reached its crisis was received with con-fold Weather Increases the Numbe of the Applicants. The recent cold snap has increased the number of families assisted by the county from 741 to 810. This is many more than were aided last winter. County Commis-

charity committee, said:

"Last winter we had about 500 families o help. The big increase is doubtless due to the fact that last year there was more work for the people because of the preparaions for the exposition. Then, the exposition brought many people to the city during the summer who have come upon our hands." The winter began with only about 500

families and it was then thought the num-

SPECULATE ON NEW MINISTER

Spanish Representative to Mexico Likely to Come to United States-Woodford's Successor Uncertain.

NEW YORK, Pab. 8 - A special from Weshington says: Private information has been received in Washington that Duke de Arcos, formerly minister to Mexico, is likely to be designated by the Madrid government as its minister to Washington to exchange the ratifications of the treaty of

Duke de Arcos will be thoroughly acceptable to the administration, not alone because of his personal ability, but on account of his alliance with an American family, the Lowerys of Connecticut. Duchess de Arcos, who is a daughter of Archibald Lowry of Connecticut, was a society belle in Washington before her marriage. It is realled that immediately after the departure of De Lome. Duke de Arcos and his wife were visiting Washington, and the duke was afraid that he would be designated as minister, a post he did not care to accept scause of the impending war. His friends here say that he would now be willing to return. He was secretary of the Spanish egation here before being transferred to Iontevideo several years ago. A high official says that the president has not considered the question of the appointment of a successor to General Woodford as minister to Spain, but he desires to send a representative to Madrid the moment the ratifications are exchanged. The Spanish Cortes several months ago urged the queen regent to cede sovereignty over Cuba. Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippines, and the treaty did not necessarily have to be presented to that body, but Sagasta has determined to convoke the body, apparently to secure a vote of confidence in the governnent rather than for any other reason. It hoped that the Madrid government will promptly settle the matter. Until the Spaniards act the Filinines will remain subjects of Spain, and while this government will not be much embarrassed by the distinction, it cannot make reprecentations to China, Great Britain and France which would prevent the shipment of arms and ammunition from the Asiatic ontinent. All that can be done is to appeal to the good will of these nations and rely upon the vigilance of the American men of war. 1:37

NEEDS OF THE STATE MILITIA Military Convention Called by the Governor of Florida Meets at Tampa.

TAMPA, Fla., Feb. 8.-Delegates to the military convention are arriving on all inoming trains and the indications are that he congress called by the governor of Florida for the betterment of the state militia will be well attended. The convention will organize in the Casino tonight. Colonel Anderson of Governor Bloxham's staff will read the governor's call. Delegates will then be welcomed to the state by Governor Bloxham and Mayor Bowyer. The congress will continue for three days, with two and three sessions each day. Many interesting papers will be read on the subjects touched pon in the governor's call relative to the lacing of state troops on the most effective ooting. There will be no night session on Thursday, as that has been set apart for the dinner, reception and ball given by Henry

Plant in the Tampa Bay hotel in honor of the delegates. Prominent among the members of the conention row here are Governor Bloxham and Governor Houston, Colonel Phillips and Colonel Prowskey of Florida; Colonel Dyer, chief of staff of the governor of Rhode Island: General Anderson and Colonel Stern of Virginia; General Vega of Mexico; Colonel Holt and Colonel Higron of Alabama; Captain Scales of Mississippi: Captain Andrews epresenting Governor Roosevelt of Nev York; Chancellor McCracken of the New York university; General Garret, Colonel Duprey, Colonel McFarland and Colonel Hooper of Louisiana; Captain Hutchinson of fowa; Lieutenant Sutherland, representing Favorably by Citizens. CHICAGO, Feb. 8 .- Business men of this ity are not disposed to grow enthusiastio over the offers made by the Chicago Telephone company in asking for an extension of the franchise of that company. The telephone company offers to pay the city as compensation the fixed sum of $50,000 yearly instead of the 3 per cent on its gross receipts exacted by its present charter. The average annual payment for the eleven years of the present franchise has been 33,000. But as the gross receipts of the telephone company last year amounted to $2,000,000, the city received $60,000, and by getting the compensation fixed at a lump short time ago applications had increased to sum of $50,000 a year, the company would save $10,000 next year at least. The offer of the company in the way of reduced rates to small consumers has not met with much commendation either. The company offers to put in a telephone for $40 a year, but the number of calls allowed is only 400 calls a year or a little over one a day, and if a person uses his telephone two or three times a day he has to pay
