WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 .- The following cablegrams were received at the War department today:

MANILA, Feb. 12.-Adjutant General, Washington: It is reported here that the insurgent representative at Washington telegraphed Aguinaldo to drive out the Americans before the arrival of reinforcements. A dispatch was received at Hong Kong and mailed to Malalos, which decided that an attack should be made about February 7 The eagerness of insurgent troops for the engagement precipitated a battle.

It is very quiet today on the lines from Caloocan on the north to Panay on the south. Yesterday a small reconnoitering party, twelve miles south of the city, was fired on and two men were slightly wounded, Two insurgents with arms were captured. The Attack is a Success.

The affair of February 10, engaging Mc Arthur's division, was very successful. The enemy's loss was considerable. We have collected seventy dead bodies and there are more not yet discovered. The insurgents are reported to be gathering in force twelve miles north on the railway, but they are in confusion.

THOUSANDS KILLED AND HURT

Filipino Deaths Number 2,500, the Wounded and Captured Largely Exceeding that Number.

MANILA, Feb. 12.-4:50 p. m.-All is quiet along the entire line, nothing having happened up to this hour to disturb the peace of Sunday. In Manila the inhabitants have generally recovered from the alarm occasioned by the fear of a native uprising and are resuming their ordinary business. The shipping is naturally suffering since there have been no clearances for Philippine ports for a week, but on the other hand foreign shipping has increased, especially for Hong Kong, every steamer bound thither being crowded with timid refugees.

asking whether the problem is still not far from solution. A week ago those who took an optimistic view predicted that the terrible lesson just administered to the rebels would settle the question of Filipino independence. But this prediction has not been fulfilled. As a matter of fact the rebels are now scattered through the country, bushwhacking, except at Malabon, where they are gathering in force. Even there their methods savor more of guerrilla than of civilized warfare, every bush, clump of trees and tree furnishing a cover for charpshooters. Unfortunately, around the land is studded with bamboo jungle and open spaces are few and far between. This affords the natives, who fight better under cover, a distinct advantage. Under such conditions it is remarkable that the American casualties should be so few, while the number of dead natives found in the brush after every skirmish testifies to the precision of our fire. Last week there was not a single day without fighting. but the Americans steadily advanced, carry ing everything before them. It is now known that the Filipino loss is fully 2,500 killed, with wounded vastly in excess of that number and thousands are held prisoners. All this has been achieved at the cost of sixty-five Americans killed and 276 wounded. There were twenty-five Americans missing and unaccounted for. No fewer than ten of the native villages have surrendered or been captured. Several have been destroyed because their houses harbored men, frequently disguised in female attire, who shot from windows and roofs at the Americans.

Many rifles and a ton of ammunition have been seized. As might be expected, there is looting in the outskirts, but it has not been general and has been done in direct violation of orders.

The only incident that has broken the quiet of the day followed the arrival of the German first class cruiser Kaiserin Augusta When it saluted Admiral Dewey this after noon a report spread rapidly that the American war ships were bombarding Malabon.

Today crowds have visited the scenes of last week's fighting. All the roads from the city were througed with vehicles, but beyond burned villages and new mounds in the fields there was little to be seen. In spection showed that most of the enemy's dead had remained at their posts to the last as the bodies were usually surrounded by empty cartridges, while in the trenches, wherever there were no dead, there was little and often no ammunition.

Among the distinguished prisoners captured in Manila since the outbreak of hostilities are Captain A. G. Escamillo, Aguinaldo's private secretary; Captain E. P. Varagua and Senor Tomas Del Rosarto, a nember of the so-called Pilipino congress in session at Malolos. Other Filipino officers are also in custody.

PLEA FOR THE BROWN MAN

Parody on Rudyard Kipling's Now Famous Poem "Take Up the White Man's Burden."

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Feb. 12 .- (New World Cablegarm-Special Telegram.)-The verses in Labouchere's Truth, parodying Kipling's "The White Man's Burden," are as follows:

Pile on the brown man's burden To gratify your greed;
Go clear away the "niggers,"
Who progress would impede;
Be very stern, for truly,
"Tis useless to be mild
With new-caught, sullen peoples,
Haif devil and half child.

Pile on the brown man's burden, And if, ye rouse his hate,
And if, ye rouse his hate,
Meet his old-fashioned reasons
With Maxime up-to-date;
With-shells and dum-dum bullets
A hundred times make plain,
The brown man's loss must ever
Imply the white man's gain,

Pile on the brown man's burden, Compel him to be free! Let all your manifestos Reek with philanthropy; And if with heathen folly He dares your will dispute, Then in the name of freedom, Don't hesitate to shoot. Don't hesitate to shoot

Pile on the brown man's burden, Pie on the brown man's burden,
And if his cry be sore.
That surely need not irk you,
Ye've driven slaves before,
Selze on his ports and pastures,
The fields his people tread;
Go make from them your living
And mark them with his dead,

Pile on the brown man's burden, Nor do not deem it hard

I you should earn the rancour
Of those ye yearn to guard.

The screaming of your Eagle
Will drown the victim's soblo on through fire and slaughter,
There's dollars in the job.

Pile on the brown man's burden.
And through the world proclaim
That ye are freedom's agents—
There's no more paying game.
And should your own past history
Straight in your teeth be thrown.
Retort that independence
Is good for whites alone.

Pile on the brown man's burden, With equity have done, Weak, antiquated scruples Their squeamish course have run, And though 'tis friedom's banner You're waving in the van, Reserve for home consumption The sacred rights of man.

And if by chance ye falter Or lag along the course. If, as the blood flows freely, Ye feel some slight rimorse. Hie ye to Rudyard Kipling, Imperialism, prop. Imperialism prop.

Two streams of water were thrown on the building, but did little good. With the thermometer standing at 23 degrees below zero, it was a heartrending sight to witness those escaping coming down the narrow flight of stairs in their night clothing and bare feet into the bitter cold and had it not been for the nearness of shelter the suffering and probable loss of life from freezing would have been terrible

The building was three stories high with an attic, and two entrances, one east and the second and third floors which led into the main halls to these entrances, thus giving but one egress for those on the second and third floors and attle.

Lose All Their Effects. Fifty-two persons were in the burning building, forty patients and twelve female attendants. The attendants escaped, as did the others who were saved, with none of their personal effects, many losing all that they possessed

The loss of this building places the institution practically where it was prior to the erection of the new cottage just completed, intended for accommodation of patients as they are compelled to occupy it at once, they are now short accommodation for one ward and minus laundry.

A coroner's inquest being held at the asylum is not yet completed, which may develop the exact cause of the fire. It is not thought blame will be attached to any one

Portions of charred remains can be seen in the debris at the bottom of the basement. which appear to be nearly in a pile near the northeast wall. The work of removing the remains and debris will begin in the morning. The four wails of huge stone still stand, black and grim, and will make the work of removal dangerous, as a total collapse is liable to occur without a moment's warn-
