Bentons West of the Missouri River to Derive Great Benefit from the Influx of Men Who Come to Buy Farms.

Extending the limits of the homeseekers' excursions by the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern roads is not causing any anxiety to the passenger officials of the road centering in Omaha.

By including Pacific coast points within the operation of the homeseekers' excursions the northern roads have really done what the southern lines would have them do.

"Some roads express a fear that the extension of these excursions will increase the field of operation by the scalpers, but that is all in all.

"There isn't a state west of the Missouri river which cannot accommodate thousands of immigrants. It will take several years of active work before even the states adjoining the river can be said to be fully settled.

A larger number of harvest excursionists passed through on the morning train than for some time past. These excursions started Tuesday, and, while some passengers were carried on the afternoon trains of that day, the bulk of them went through yesterday.

ONLY A PARTIAL HOLIDAY Banks and Public Offices Close, but Business Generally Goes On.

Washington's birthday was but little observed by the business world of Omaha.

The banks and public buildings were closed all day, except the postoffice. The morning delivery was made and the carriers were given the rest of the day off.

The city hall was deserted, the entire company of city officials and most of the employes having gone to Kansas City to participate in the opening of the big auditorium there.

POWERS OF BOARD OF HEALTH

Dr. Crummer Discusses the Proposed Sanitary Legislation.

LAW AS IT EXISTS IS A DEAD LETTER

Officials Must Be Clothed with Authority to Place Infections Disease Under Absolute Control.

Dr. B. F. Crummer, secretary of the State Board of Health, in discussing the proposed sanitary legislation explains the use of the board to provide for expenses incurred during the present epidemic of smallpox said:

"During December citizens of Nebraska City appealed to the governor as a member of the State Board of Health to provide for expenses incurred during the present epidemic of smallpox said:

"What we need is that the board have the power to enforce its demands, and provide a penalty for those refusing to obey its orders. It is necessary after our experience at Nebraska City. Many people would not pay any attention to the regulations of the health inspector, and we could not enforce them.

"We need in this state a sufficient appropriation to employ a state inspector who will keep the records of the board, compile statistics, and be always at the call of local officials where unusual epidemics of any kind occur.

"The present condition of Georgia recently decided that the legislature of the state may, in the exercise of its police powers, confer on municipal corporations of the state authority to make and enforce ordinances requiring all persons within their limits to submit to vaccination when an epidemic of smallpox is existing or may be easily apprehended.

"Therefore it would seem that if we are to have any power sufficient to absolutely control a bad epidemic we must have such authority as the health bill now before the house will give."

Washington's birthday yesterday brought out, despite the raging blizzards, the largest number of people that ever attended a Wednesday afternoon performance in the history of the Orpheum. Profound weather would doubtless have retarded the congregation of last Sunday afternoon.

"You Yonson," that unique and delightful comedy-drama by the late Gus Hege, comes to Boyd's theater on Sunday next, matinee and evening, being given with an excellent company, including Ben Hendricks, the great delineator of Swedish character.

VERY EASY.

Things That Can Be Done Without Much Trying.

It is easy to be cheerful when one has all he wants. It is easy, by a careless word, to shatter a reputation, but how hard it is to make proper amends.

It is easy to criticize a work of art, much easier than to produce one. That is one reason why critics are so plentiful.

It is easy to tell a man not to worry when his mind is burdened with a thousand cares. The fellow who makes the suggestion does not have to carry the load.

It is easy to make a list of remedies for the ills that trouble incident to winter, but it is not so easy to select those that are really worth buying.

It is easy to see why Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is so highly prized, and is a standard in the family.

This wonderful preparation has saved the lives of thousands and it may save yours. It is today preserving the health of countless individuals. The Government admits that it is the only medicinal whiskey, because it is the only whiskey which the Government insists upon affixing a revenue stamp to, thus certifying that it is a medicinal whiskey. No other known whiskey is so regarded.
