SAVING THE SOULS OF MEN

Rev. Steels Contends that the Ministry is Peer of Professions.

MASTERS SERMONS BEING PREACHED DAILY

Lack of Preparation Upon the Part of Clergymen Responsible for Failure in Influencing Audiences.

Rev. Samuel W. Steele of Lake City, Ia., occupied the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

At the morning service he chose a portion of the second verse in the fourth chapter of Hebrews for his text: "The word preached doth not profit them, but is mixed with faith in them that hear it."

"Thousands of people are listening to the preaching of the ministers of the gospel each week and yet sometimes I wonder with others why the effect of those sermons is not greater."
