tween him and a horse she once owned called Phil Sheridan. Her husband was a strong Demine man and stood to lose a lot, but she persuaded him to hedge on Henry. Welt, the race was Domino ahead at the half and Henry at the three-quarters and an easy winner. Domine coming down hill from the water tower, was eased up by Tarai in the SIX STRAIGHT WINNERS CHALKED OFF last furlong. That flat toe of his could not stand the incline. The most curious thing she ever did was, I think, in 1892; anyway, it was at Sheepshead and on a June 27, Early that morning she woke her husband and asked him what time it was. He grunted sleepily, looking at his watch, 'Five ninutes past 2. Go to sleep.' She said: Remember, I have something to tell you at breakfast,' In the morning, remembering her dream, she told him it was about a horse with yellow and black stripes rushing down the track away shead of everything and she wanted him to play a horse carrying seaded girl, and how they won, sounds yellow and black stripes in the race about headed girl, and how they won, sounds forced, but it is no stranger than what happened to a well known man the day the Webster affair came off at Guttenburg. He went to the track with his card marked by a young woman who did not know one horse to the colors of the col a young woman who did not know one horse from another, yet she marked him six straight winners, and at the fifth he was over $5,000 to the good. Then he decided you are striped blazer on, that settled it. 'There you are' she said. 'Play the yellow and you are,' she said. 'Play the yellow and he could not stand Torchlight, the Daly black stripes if they are there, body and cast-off, at 40 to 1 in the sixth race, and sleeves if not. Lawless was quoted at 8-5, of the number of one of them and backed cause it was his name and, getting 100 to 1 the jockey whose number corresponded. He, she cashed a $5 ticket. So far as I know the too, had five straight wins, and finally lost house never won before or after that race. by switching to the favorite, when everyone Then she played Sullivan at 40-1 the same way because it was her servant's name and the servant being a negro it was bound to be lucky. Then she quit going to the Speaking of Cinches.

she is a good all-round judge of a sound sel. I was at the Gut on May 7, 1891, and placed a bet with Ike Thompson on Meridooked him over in the paddock one day and ian. I was playing a system which called old her husband never to back him running for a bet of $60. The horse was a 3-5, and down hill. She went into the paddock the day Henry of Navarre, Domino and Clifford bills and called $60 to $100. Then I was pushed away from the block. Well, I went to see the race, which was just finishing. and I saw a white jockey sweep past and thought my cash was gone, but not knowing the colors, I asked a man and learned t was Dwyer's new rig. I went in to cash my ticket, and seeing the bookle went to him and said: 'You made a mistake on my CHICAGO, ROCK ISL- ticket.' "Pretty reg'lar for nigh onto a year." was the reply; "an' everybody seems to be able to step everything with injunctions, so I thought I'd have to git one." "But I don't believe I deal in the kind you want," returned the lawyer. "What kind do I want?" asked the caller. "You want a double-barreled injunction loaded with bird shot or salt," replied the lawyer. "You ought to be able to get it at any gun store."

"By gum! I guess you're right," turned the old man, as his face lighted up. "I've heard tell that these here injunctions were mighty effective weapons in the hands of men who knew how to handle them, but didn't quite get onto what they were
