MEET DEATH IN A DIRT BANK

Two Men, Black and Kroner, Are Buried apply for a write of habens corpus.

The above is Smith's version of the affair Beneath Tons of Dirt.

O. P. READ SUSTAINS SERIOUS INJURIES

Jury Called in by the Coroner Returns a Verdict Finding No Person Was to Blame for the Accident.

At Council Bluffs at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon two men were instantly killed and another seriously injured at the dirt bank of Wickham Brothers, on the Roher property at the north end of Eighth street.

The dead men are: J. B. BLACK, Council Bluffs. FRANK KRONER, Kansas. Injured:

C. P. Read, leg broken and badly bruleed possibly internally injured. Without warning several tons of dirt which had become loosened by the action of the frost, came tumbling down from a height of about twenty-five feet. Black, Read and Kroner were working directly underneath from where the mass of earth fell and had not time to get out of the way before it crashed down on them. The bodies of Black and Kroner were crushed and mangled in shape. Read, who was standing rible a little distance from the other two Mrs. J. M. Waltermeyer, 1724 High street, lied Monday evening. The funeral was held falling mass and escaped with a broken teg and severe bruises. Several of the other men were struck by pieces of the frozen mass that rebounded after it struck the slipped and broke his leg on the key sidewalk mass that rebounded after it struck the on Pearl street in front of the Woodbury ground, but only received slight bruises A panic seized the other men for time and it was several minutes before any of them started to extricate their comrades who had been buried in the avalanche

When this was done both Black and in the city yesterday on his way home from Kroner were found to be dead, and from the crushed and mangled condition of their bodies it was evident that they never knew what struck them. Their heads were badly crushed, and the blood from their wounds all small fruits in his state this year are crushed, and the blood from their wounds excellent. ESTATE CASE HAS RIGHT OF WAY. Trial of Causes on Criminal Docket

Postponed. The taking up of the criminal docket in the district court was postponed yesterday until today in order to permit of the hearing of the matter of the claim of Captain H. L. Henry against the estate of the late George Metcalf. Captain Henry holds a note for $550, signed by the late George Metcalf, and his right to file the same against the estate is contested by F. J. Day, the administrator, on the ground that Henry has waived his right by not filing it within the time prescribed by law, which would have been two years ago. It is also alleged that the note has become outlawed, as it was dated in 1887. Henry, on the ohter hand, says that the note was given in 1888 and that he presented the note to Day for filing at the time he was appointed idministrator, but that the latter told him denry alleges he has discovered that the

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE BEE'S GREAT PLAN

It's So Simple and Easy that Every Council Bluffs Boy or Girl and Older People, Too, Will Hustle in the Contests.

Every boy and girl will want to ride a sheel this spring and The Bee is going to give you a chance to get one in a very simple way. What is more, it is going to let you pick out any make wheel you want, for it knows you all want a certain make, which is the only make on earth." Now let us tell you how The Bee is going o give the wheels away. We want a lot of new subscribers to The Bee in Council Bluffs. As soon as the first 300 orders have been handed into our office, the first contest closes and we will award the wheel to the one bringing the most orders out of this 300. Then Contest No. 1 closes and Contest No. 2 opens on the next 300 orders. Just see how easy this is. Say only thirty girls and boys start out on March 1 to get subscribers. They only have to average ten apiece to make the total, so the winner will not have to get very many orders, you see. You want to start in early and hand in your orders as soon as possible.

Now about the orders. Each order must be for an actual new Council Bluffs subscriber. Each subscriber must take The Bee for at least three weeks and pay for it in he estate was worth nothing. Since then order to be counted. It is better, but no necessary, to pay in advance, only no order will be counted until the subscription is paid for. If the subscription is paid for in advance it will count one on your score for out noon and given to the jury. After each three weeks for which it is prepaid. For example: If a subscriber pays in advance for six weeks, it counts two; if he pays for twelve weeks, it will count four; pworth Gaslight company and George W. if he pays for one year, it will count seventeen. On orders which are not paid in advance it will count only one on your score no matter how long he centinues to take it.
