One of the Little Ones is Dend and the Mother May Not Recover-Details of the Affair.

By throwing kerosene oil into a kitchen stove to make the fire burn quicker, Mrs. Mary Camero, an Italian woman, started a conflagration in her living apartments last evening that burned herself and three children so severely that one of the little ones is now dead. The life of the mother hangs in the balance, the attending physician being unable to tell whether she will live or die. Mrs. Camero, with the two little girls, was taken for treatment to Clarkson hospital.

The younger of the two will recover. . Many Nebraska and Iowa shippers to this market do not understand the expression used in market reports referring to "so many loads of cattle billed direct to packers." In answer to inquiries General Manager Kenyon of the Union Stock Yards company said: "I means several things. Primarily, it means that local packers bought so many cattle at Kansas City, Sloux City, St. Joseph o some other point and that the cattle were simply sent here to be slaughtered. This raises the question. Why do our local packers buy cattle at other points? The answer is simple. They cannot get enough cattle here to suit them and they can buy some grades of catile a great deal cheaper at Kansas City than they can here. There are practically no Texas or southern cattle reelved in Omaha. These cattle are very desirable for some purposes and packers are forced to go elsewhere to get them.

Then, too, medium grade native cattle sell much higher here than at Kausas City, for the very reason that here they are not brought into competition with the southwestern grass and meal fed cattle. Stockers and feeders are high and prospective feeders prefer selling their corn to taking chances on feeding it to high priced cattle. There are now undoubtedly 25 to 40 per cent more stock cattle in Nebraska than last year and with anything like a good corn crop this year the close of 1899 will again see the feed lots of the state as full as ever. Local packers will be glad to buy Texas cattle shipped direct to this market. Arrangements have been made by which the shipper can go on to Chicago at the balance of the through rate in the event that he does not

What is known as the winter campaign of hogs ended on the last day of February. The winter pack commences on November and ends on March 1, and the number of hogs slaughtered and packed at the different hog centers is watched with interest by provision dealers and speculators all over the country. Last year the winter pack at South Omaha was 550,000, as compared with 795,000 during the winter of 1898-99. This is an increase of 245,000 hogs over the pack of last winter. While Omaha shows an increase in the pack of mearly 250,000 hogs, Kansas City shows a decrease of 65,000 hogs. Milwaukee a decrease of 63,000 and Cleveland a decrease of 36,000.

The South Omaha market compares favorably with any of the markets of the country and shows that the business of packing hogs at this point is constantly on the increase, During the winter campaign of 1897-98 the & Texas railroad men stopping at the Her stock yards received 583,943 hogs, while Grand hotel. 50,000 were packed here. The recent campaign shows receipts of 799,224 hogs received here, with 795,000 packed here. In brief, all but 4,000 hogs shipped to this market during the winter of 1898-99 were sold and packed here. This is a remarkable showing and one which the buyers and ship pers at this market are justly proud of. J. Evans, jr., of Emerson, Ia., was at the stock yards yesterday making arrangements for his sale of fancy stock to be held on March 9 and 10. Mr. Evans will sell 125 head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle to the high est bidder. Foreman Henderson of the horse and mule barn has removed a number of stalls in the big stable in order to make room for this sale. Seats for at least 200 people will be erected and the floor space will accommodate nearly as many more. The

Where other medicines make a surface show of health by cleansing the skin, Ayer's Sarsaparilla lays the foundation of health by cleansing the blood. It is conceded that of all diseases the larger portion have their origin in impure blood. Cleanse the blood and you cleanse the skin. Foul blood cannot make a fair body. The shortest way to a sound body, a clear complexion, and a vigorous life is to purify the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"I can truly say that Ayer's Sarsaparilla saved my life after doctoring for years for blood poisoning. At the foot of the incline Ryeburg, a companion named August Mundst, horses, wagon and coal were piled in a heap, but when they were untangled the principal damage was found to have been done to the wagon, which was nearly demolished. Mundst picked himself up and walked away; the horses were driven off by Rycburg's son and Rycburg himself was carried to a neighboring house to wait the arrival of a physician.

Ryeburg was sent by his employer shortly after dark to deliver a ton of coal at an address on Hickory street. Mistaking Pine street for that thoroughfare, he did not discover the error until he came to the bank. The wagon, having fallen across one of his legs, had to be raised before the driver could be released.
