Joined with the republicans, who were in favor of a continued session. The motion was lost by a vote of 55 to 70.

On the fourth ballot when Milbourn's name was reached he arose to his feet and said he hoped to solve the vexed problem and would now cast his vote for Senator Allen.

For a time pandemonium reigned in the crowded hall. The fusion people thought a break had come, for the favorite, Milbourn, was quiet and said that for fear there might be a misunderstanding he would explain that the man he voted for was Senator Allen.

After the result of the fourth ballot had been announced, Milbourn, Currie, Burns and Lancaster together moved that the session adjourn. The motion prevailed.

At 8 o'clock, the time for calling the caucus, eight of the Hayward men met at the regular place. House, the caucus secretary, called the meeting to order and an adjournment was taken until after the joint session.

When the crowd returned from the state house the members went to the caucus room. When fifty-eight had gathered into the room an adjournment was taken tomorrow evening. Those who remained away were mostly the former Thompson supporters.

Monument to Wyoming Soldiers. CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 6.—(Special.)—The Ladies Volunteer Aid society of Wyoming held a special meeting here this afternoon.

"Happy is He That Chastens Himself." Self chastening at one time meant that the body was to be disregarded, despised and even injured. Today it means that it is to be cared for and protected, made beautiful, entire and clean. To do this, the messenger that visits every part of the body must be able to furnish good material to the organs under his care and supervision.

This messenger is blood, that wonderful life-giver. If you want to protect yourself and want your blood to be quick and active, cleanse it of impurities. Hood's Sarsaparilla does that to perfection, and it is unailing. Nature seems to have set this remedy apart to make the blood pure.

Dyspepsia.—"My husband doctored a long time for dyspepsia with only temporary relief. The first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla helped and the second cured him. It cured my sick headaches." Mrs. MARY A. CLARK, Wilmington, Vt.

Pneumonia.—"After an attack of pneumonia my husband did not gain strength until he took Hood's Sarsaparilla. He was a new man from it. Mother had the grip and Hood's restored her strength." Mrs. HENRY O. TAYLOR, New Canaan, Conn.

Rosy Cheeks.—"I have good health and rosy cheeks, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It builds me up in the spring and saves doctor's bills." MARY A. BURKE, 604 East Clair Street, Indianapolis, Ind.

Run Down.—"As a great medicine to restore strength I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I take it spring and fall and whenever I feel tired and run down. It removed my pimples." ANNETTE MESSELER, 1340 Atlantic St., St. Paul, Minn.

Blindness.—"About four years ago my boy lost his sight, after whooping cough. They were bloody and watery for months. As a last resort I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla. Four bottles brought back his sight and nine cured him completely." Mrs. P. RESNER, 79 Walnut St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints. Hood's Pills cure liver bile, the constipating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

House Puts in Good Share of the Appropriation Bill and Dismisses the Salary Appropriation Bill and Fusionists Talk for Extravagance.

LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special.)—In the house this morning the salary bill came up for discussion in committee of the whole and as the various items were reached the fusion members voted solidly for increase in salaries of fusion officials. Every recommendation to reduce the salary was opposed by the minority members. The debate on the bill lasted nearly all the afternoon, and mingling with the people in the lobby, gallery and on the floor of the house were twenty-eight of the state house deputies and officials, who were interested in keeping their salaries up to a high figure and who were much interested in the arguments that there was work in the departments to keep all the deputies busy all the time.

On the 27th of January Beverly of Douglas introduced by request of an outside party a bill which was numbered H. R. 373 and which provided as follows: "That hereafter all life insurance companies doing business in Nebraska shall deposit with the state auditor of public accounts security to the amount of 40 per cent of the amount of their policies issued."

A strong protest came in from the fraternal companies and Beverly examined the bill and found that it did not meet his own approval and on his request the bill has been killed by the standing committee.

Surety Bonds Required. Senator Van Dusen's bill, S. F. 231, amending the laws governing South Omaha and cities of that class, has been recommended to pass. The important amendments are made. Surety bonds for officers are required and more power is vested in certain sanitary regulations.

Under the present law the mayor of the cities of this class is not required to furnish a bond. Under the bill the following provision is made: "Before entering upon the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the city in the sum of $2,000 to be furnished by one or more sureties responsible to the city and established responsibility which shall be conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office of mayor, and shall be further conditioned that the said mayor shall approve any expenditure or appropriation of money in excess of the amount allowed by law, or if he shall approve any contract or resolution which involves the appropriation of money in excess of the amount allowed by law, that such mayor and the surety company or companies shall be jointly and severally liable to the city for any damages resulting therefrom. Said bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the city and shall be approved by the outgoing mayor."

The city treasurers are also required to give surety bonds, as well as all other elective officers, that part of the bill being as follows: "To require all officers or servants, elective or appointive, whose bond is not herein otherwise provided for, to give bonds to the city for the faithful performance of the duties of their offices, and that the amount of said bonds so given shall be signed by one or more security companies of recognized responsibility, shall be approved by the mayor and filed with the city clerk. No officer shall become security upon any bond given to the city nor upon any undertaking required by the police court."

Stronger powers are given to regulate sanitary affairs, that part of the bill being: "To prevent any person from bringing, depositing, having or leaving upon the premises, or elsewhere within the city, any dead carcass, putrid beef, pork, fish, hides or skins of any kind, or any other unwholesome substance, or refuse of any kind, or any other matter, or any ordnance or article within the city are in an unwholesome condition from garbage, refuse or any other cause, or any other matter, or any ordnance for the removal of the same and to assess the reasonable costs thereof against the property from which the same are removed, and such tax shall be assessed and enforced as other special taxes, and shall be a lien on the property."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE. Considerable Time Spent on the Salary Appropriation Bill. LINCOLN, March 6.—(Special.)—Standing committee reported to the house this morning the following bills: H. R. 112, repealing the statute requiring assessors and county officers to compile industrial statistics; H. R. 409, to give the secretary of the State Banking board a salary of $2,000; H. R. 527, providing for the payment of bonds; H. R. 528, to require the disbursement of funds held by county treasurers under the free high school law of 1895, and 458, providing that a majority of the resident freeholders in an irrigation district may, by petition, call a special election.

The bills indefinitely postponed were: H. R. 47, creating an employment bureau in connection with the state labor bureau; H. R. 461, an irrigation bill identical with 458; H. R. 529, requiring the contractors of canals and ditches to keep suitable bridges in repair; H. R. 525, providing that the election in an irrigation district a majority of the number of acres must be represented on the petition.

After the reports of the standing committee the house went into the committee of the whole, with Prince in the chair, to consider bills on general file. S. F. 23, by Talbot, a curative bill, was recommended to pass. S. F. 23, by Talbot, another curative bill, was indefinitely postponed.

H. R. 306, by Fisher of Daves, an act to amend section 7 of chapter xxvi of the Compiled statutes of 1897, was recommended for indefinite postponement. The bill changed the elections of the county officials, making the term four years instead of two.

In the afternoon the house went into committee of the whole, with Prince of Hall in the chair, to consider the salary appropriation bill. When the part of the bill relating to the attorney general's office was reached Flynn of Douglas moved that the salary of $1,500 per year be made for an additional assistant for the attorney general. This was concurred in by a majority of the house and the bill was amended to that effect.

The chairman of the committee on finance explained that the attorney general, in his testimony before the committee, had said that the business of the next two years would be substantially the same as in the past and had further admitted that he maintained a private law office.

The motion to create the new office was defeated by a vote of 41 to 42, every fusionist present voting for the increase. A committee amendment to dispense with the sale contract clerk in the commissioner's office was defeated by a vote of 43 to 41, Burns of Lancaster voting with the solid fusion force against the proposed decrease.

A motion from the fusion side to increase the salary of the deputy and commissioner from $1,500 to $1,600 was defeated, Cunningham being the only fusionist to vote with the republicans against the increase in salary.

About one-half of the bill having been considered, Pollard of Cass moved that the bill be recommended for passage as so far amended. This motion was defeated. A motion to reduce the amount allowed the judges of the supreme court for stenographic assistants was defeated. A motion to increase the salary allowed the bill of the supreme court to $1,000 each, the same rate as allowed two years ago, was adopted, and a motion to reduce the salary of the supreme court stenographer to $600 was defeated.

A motion to strike out the salaries of the supreme court commissioners, as well as many other motions relating to the supreme court and state library, was defeated. The bill as prepared by the committee provided for a salary for one secretary of the State Board of Transportation. Fisher of Daves moved to amend and allow salaries for three secretaries. This left another bond of oratory, Cunningham (fusionist) opposing the amendment. He said the places were secure jobs; the stenographers in the office did all the work and had three-fourths of the time for play. The board had done no good and ought to be abolished.

Burns and Clark also opposed the motion to increase the salary. Eastman and Wheeler talked for a salary for three secretaries, and were cheered on by the solid fusion side, with the exception of Cunningham, who clung to his opinion that the secretaries were useless.

Weaver of Richardson made the speech of the afternoon in which he denounced the Board of Transportation as the worst fraud ever perpetrated on the state. He said the secretaries had done no work and the board was a mere pretense to employ the fusionists. The only persons in favor of the secretaries were the corporations, who had found them willing servants. The Fisher amendment was defeated and the section providing salary for but one secretary was left unchanged. The committee arose without finishing the bill and the house adjourned.

R. 137, the Pollard revenue bill, was given its first reading. S. F. 312, 311, 309, 307 and 306 were recommended to pass. They are the bills giving it a misdemeanor to wear the badge or insignia of certain orders if not a member. S. F. 68, 138, 169 were passed. S. F. 68 repeals section 1 of chapter xviii, 1897 statutes.

Court Thereupon Assumes that Burden and Separate Trials Are Ordered—Difficulty is Expected in Securing a Jury.

BLOOMINGTON, Neb., March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Jury. Beall opened district court today and the session was devoted mostly to minor cases. Tooman and Cole, charged with murdering J. P. Kriebbaum, were brought into court and both made affidavits that they were too poor to hire lawyers to defend them. The court named A. H. Byrum of Bloomington and A. F. Moore of McCook to defend Cole and George W. Prather to defend Tooman, allowing him to pick his assistant, he naming Ed Dayley of Minden.

The county attorney, in behalf of the state, made a motion that Tooman and Cole both be tried at the same time which the court granted. The defense objected to this, however, and both will have separate trials. It will be at least Wednesday before the cases will commence and the finding of a jury will probably be very difficult.

Arrested Charged with Theft. TEKAMAH, Neb., March 6.—(Special.)—Sheriff Langford made an arrest here today in the person of George Smith, a passenger on train No. 2, going south. The sheriff was wired from Cozburn by the authorities there to watch for the man Smith, and as the train pulled into the depot at this place Langford was on hand and arrested Smith, who was charged with stealing a watch, which was found on the prisoner by Langford.

EMPLOYEES ASK CONCESSIONS. Formulation of the Cotton Belt System Formulate Grievances to the Officials of the Company. PINE BLUFF, Ark., March 6.—The Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are endeavoring to obtain a modification of their contract with the Cotton Belt road.

The men claim that the contract under which they are now working is unsatisfactory and they want concessions from the company. A big union meeting of members of the organizations was held here tonight at which the general contract committee, representing the organizations on the system, were present. The committee has been earnestly at work endeavoring to obtain the revision and the object of the meeting was to obtain a general expression of feeling from interested members. The committee was given to understand that it would have every support, financial and otherwise, of all conductors and trainmen on the system. There is much speculation as to the outcome should a revised and acceptable contract not be forthcoming from the company. The meeting tonight represents the Cotton Belt's entire corps of conductors and trainmen from Cairo, Ill., to Gatesville, Tex., and tributary lines.

REPUBLICANS OPPOSE CONVENTION. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 6.—The proposed constitution of the body of the Alabama legislature is being vigorously opposed by the republicans of the state. PEACE PROMOTERS' MEETING

Address by Dr. Edward Everett Hale on Benefits Arising from Disarmament of Nations.

BOSTON, March 6.—A meeting to advocate arbitration of disputes between nations was held in Tremont temple today. Dr. Edward Everett Hale was the principal speaker. He said: "We have come to forget the things that are behind and think of the things that are before. My text is the receipt of the czar, which I hope every one will ponder over."

"This conference proposed by the czar will meet just as surely as the war goes round. For the first time in the nineteenth century a body of twenty-six men will come together to consider questions of perpetual peace."

Dr. Hale showed the possibility of universal peace between nations by referring to the experience of the United States, where forty-five independent states refer all their disputes to one permanent tribunal, which decides all disputes that may arise. What is possible for the states of the union is possible for the states of Europe.
