HOW TO GET A HOME in one of the most fertile spots and under the bost irrigation system in the west. Take the next excursion to Wheatland Wyoming, March 21st. There is plenty of free range, free timber, and a good market. One resurvoir completed and another to be constructed this year at a cost of some $100.000.00, that will complete the water system. Canals all constructed; twenty thousand acres of the land owned and farmed by settlers. The new reservoir is to be built by the pecole now on the land and those buying this year at good wages. Land sold on t n years time at 6 per cent with a perpetual water right thrown in. The railroad runs through these lands, The town of Wheatland situated on the land has schools, stores and churches. A photograph of the town and land can be seen at this office. Prices, terms, railroad fare and all other information can be obtained here, L. L. Johnson, 1624 Capitol Avenue, Omaha, Neb.
