CODY LETTERS READ IN COURT

Facts Bearing on Alleged Early Marriage of Jay Gould Are Presented to Jury.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 8.—The fifth day of the Cody blackmail trial opened with the defendant still on the stand. Her counsel, Mr. Dugan, finished his direct examination with a few questions concerning the letters which had passed between her and Mrs. J. P. Pierce, Jay Gould's alleged child, and her husband.

District Attorney Dyer cross-examined, reading a number of letters written by Mrs. Cody to Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Pierce's aunt, to Mrs. Boebe, who furnished her with funds with which to urge the claim of Mrs. Pierce, to Mrs. Angell and to others. In the letter to Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Cody said that Jay Gould had told Sarah Ann Brown (Mrs. Streeb) that her marriage to him was illegal since it had been performed by a Presbyterian clergyman while she was a Catholic. Mrs. Pierce had told her this, said Mrs. Cody.

After counsel for Mrs. Cody, to save time, had admitted the authenticity of the documents, Mrs. Cody was then examined, but immediately recalled to the chair to answer the question of one of the jurymen.

"Why did you not contradict Judge Brown?" he asked, "when he first told you that Mrs. Streeb was Jay Gould's wife in Mrs. Angell's presence?"

"Because I was so surprised," she answered, "and he did not give me time. I had to leave the room at once, as he wished some private conversation with Mrs. Angell." She said that she afterwards did contradict Judge Brown's statement, but not with Mrs. Angell as a witness.

Attorney Stearns, who drew up the power of attorney between Mrs. Cody and Mrs. Angell, took the stand for the second time and told what he knew concerning a number of legal papers.

Mrs. Angell was then put on the stand. She gave her name as Mary Angell. Asked to repeat her conversation with Mrs. Cody at House's Point, she said:

"She asked me if I had ever been married to Mr. Gould. I told her that I had never been. She gave me the name of my first husband and described him, and asked me if I was married to the man and I said that I was."

"The Frenchman?" "Yes, sir." "Did you ever see Jay Gould?" "No, sir." "What did Judge Brown say to Mrs. Cody?"

"He said, 'Where there are no facts, what are you going to build the case on?'" "Cross-examination by Mr. Dugan followed. "You say you never met Jay Gould. When you were a girl of 14, at home, did not a man come to your house for water one day? Now, don't you know who he was?"

"No, sir." "The witness admitted that a man had come for water and that she knew that he was employed on one of the railroads then being built. Her mind, she said, was not exactly clear concerning what had taken place when she was so young. After a few more questions, however, the witness recalled the appearance of the man. He was about 17 years old, short and dark.

Continuing her statement, she said that she had married the old Frenchman, De Roussa, and had a child by him who was bound out to a Canadian weaver. Two years after his birth she had gone west, leaving her husband, who died shortly afterwards. She was De Roussa's lawful wife, she said, having been married to him by the Presbyterian clergyman Leighton, whose name she had learned since then.

COURSE OF UNITED STATES

Attitude on Chinese Question Causes Speculation by Russia—Identity of Interests Urged.

NEW YORK, March 8.—A special from Washington says: The Russian ambassador, Count Cassini, who was for many years czar's representative at Peking, and who obtained from China the first important concessions regarding the Siberian railroad, speaking of the Chinese situation, says: "Russia's attitude is not changed by Italy's action in China. We have never opposed the open door, and consequently we can take no other attitude than that which has been officially announced from our foreign office many times."

"Let us be wondering what our great neighbor to the west, the United States, will do in this emergency. It would seem now that the United States would be forced by the necessities of the case to take part in the deliberations of the nations concerning the commercial existence, as in Russia, there are in the United States tremendous interests at stake, a world in itself, where the wealth of a large part of the country seeks an outlet."

"Let us speak only for Russia, but there seems a similarity of interests to guard and to promote. For this reason Russia would welcome the United States as a factor in the council of the nations that must necessarily govern the east."

CURES WITHOUT PAIN.

The Pyramid Pile Cure cures all forms of piles without one particle of pain. This desirable point is not obtained by the use of injurious ointments which simply deaden and paralyze the nerves of the parts and make matters worse in the long run. But it is done solely by its remarkable healing and soothing effect.

And while it thus gives immediate relief, at the same time the disease is not merely checked, but a radical cure is rapidly accomplished.

And the point we want to make clear is that all this is done without a particle of pain.

This fact is one great reason for the popularity of the Pyramid Pile Cure and constitutes one very great difference between it and almost any other kind of treatment for piles.

Every kind of surgical operation for piles is excruciatingly painful, besides endangering the life of the patient, and in most cases is not to be compared with the Pyramid Pile Cure, neither in making successful cures without pain nor in cheapness and safety.

The Pyramid Pile Cure has been before the public so long, and its merits recognized by so many people, to allow it to be classed with the many false, unproven, pills, etc., and you run no risk in trying it, as is often the case with untried preparations.

If you are ever troubled with any form of piles or rectal disease do not forget the Pyramid Pile Cure, prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists at 50 cents per package.

Warner's Safe Cure the Victor Among Modern Medicines.

It was once believed that a finger ring made from a coffin-nail would cure epilepsy. The tooth of a soldier who had been killed in battle was regarded as a remedy for toothaches. Imagine such ghastly nonsense as this passing as medical science! Yet the human mind, like the human body, must creep before it can walk. In time men learned to reason and medicine was put upon a rational basis. Back in the old days some childish or disgusting mess had been used to relieve indigestion. Mark the progress illustrated in this letter from J. E. Stockwell of Lincoln, Neb.

"I have been badly affected with trouble of the stomach and have used nearly all kinds of medicines and doctored with local physicians to no avail. After being almost completely discouraged, I was advised to use Warner's Safe Cure, which I did, and I am glad to be able to say that it is the only remedy that has done me any good. I have used three bottles and am feeling like a new man all over. I am thankful to the Warner's Safe Cure Co. for their medicine, and can recommend it cheerfully to those suffering as I have suffered."

Another instance of the victory of rational medicine is afforded by Jacob Cramp of Birdsboro, Berks County, Pa., who wrote, May 10th, 1898: "I have taken five bottles of Warner's Safe Cure. It relieved me of the pain over my kidneys. When I got down I could hardly get up again. I did not know what was wrong with me. I could hardly do my work. I heard of Safe Cure and thought I would try it. After taking one bottle I felt better. I am very grateful for Warner's Safe Cure and would advise people to try it."

Just one case more. Averett Perry of Louisville, N. C., says: "I have taken only one bottle of Warner's Safe Cure and it has done me more good than anything else I ever took. I had an aching feeling in the pit of my stomach. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I can recommend Safe Cure as the best medicine in the world."

Does the clear and energetic language of these men leave any doubt of their sincerity? The stomach derangement spoken of is commonly associated with the approach of Bright's disease. No painted Indian ever crept to a settler's cabin more stealthily than Bright's disease invades the body. A dull white skin, tendency to perspire, indigestion and short breath give warning of the enemy.

Loss no time nor courage. Take Warner's Safe Cure regularly, and bear in mind that it has a record of twenty glorious years. It cures all ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder, including even the terrible disease named for Dr. Bright. The road to health is open, if only you read the sign board right.
