"A mob of negro soldiers ran riot in Tampa and assaulted women in broad daylight. Another gang of drunken vagabonds in Macon defled and tried to fire on the police. For months another regiment of these lawless vagabonds, wearing the uniform of the United States soldier, terrorized Chickamauga and the town of Lytle in north Georgia, to say nothing of the Griffin episodo and other similar occurrences. They had to be escorted through every southern city through which they passed after they were discharged by a battation of police to prevent their looting the stores and terror-

"The Leesburg outrage, the Palmetto burning and many other similar crimes committed in Georgia by negroes during the last few months are due to the baneful influence and example of these lawless rowdies, who disgraced the uniforms they wore. This is the primary cause of all these troubles. Still this does not justify the bloody and barbarous retaliation of Leesburg and Palmetto.

"The white men who participated in these sanguinary dramas are as unjustifiable for their conduct as the negroes they lynched. Both are a disgrace to our civilization and a reproach to our state and all the power of the state shall be used to prevent a recurrence of such crimes and to punish the perpetrators."
