All that is left for the delegates to the sovereign camp to do is to install officers and have the minutes read and approved. It was after 3 o'clock today when the camp concluded the final work on the constitution and by-laws of the order, but after they had concluded with the consideration of the sections separately a motion unanimously prevailed adopting the revised constitution and laws as a whole. This was the real end to the business of the meeting.

The members of the camp feel that this is the most important meeting that has ever been held by the sovereign camp. There were probably over a hundred southern trip. T ... instructions will be a complete exposition of the attitude of this government on the question of disarmament and arbitration. Following the policy which it seems likely that all the nations will adopt, President McKinley will accredit the minister to The gates. Ambassadors White and Tower will probably be the other members of the American delegation. The administration is strongly in favor of arbitration as the means for the settlement of disputes between nations, and while it appreciates that there are a number of controversies that can only be settled by war, it is still believed that many questions which arise and are causes of much friction can be arbitrated. LIFE SENTENCE FOR GILBERT
