

FARMERS NOT TRAVELING

Few Coming of Going on the Home-seekers' Excursion.

SPRING WORK KEEPS PEOPLE AT HOME

Railroad Men of the Opinion that There Will Not Be a Rush Until the Crop is Put In.

While Tuesday was another day for home-seekers' excursions, there was nothing in the travel from this city to indicate the fact. Travel was just normal in its proportions, and it is not known that anyone left the city because of the home-seekers' rates. Today's trains should give an indication of the movement from eastern states, but it is not believed by local railroad men there will be any more conspicuous increase in travel than there was yesterday.

OFFICERS OF A NEW OMAHA ROAD

Belief that Interests of Other Lines Are Involved. In the list of incorporators of the proposed Kansas City, St. Joseph & Omaha railroad, which has for its object the building of a new line connecting these three cities, there appears the names of three men, who are in every way known to be connected with other railroads. While this is not a sufficient number to give color to the belief that there is some big line backing the enterprise, still one may read between the lines and fancy that Port Arthur, the Great Western and others are involved. This belief is accentuated by the fact there has been more or less gossip during the last year connecting these two roads in different enterprises. The following are the incorporators of the new company:

J. H. Pickering, Kansas City, railroad builder, for ten years associate of President A. E. Stillwell of the Gulf line; E. R. Sweeney, Kansas City, cashier First National bank; Charles H. Keith, Kansas City, secretary and treasurer of the Central Coal and Coke company; Joseph O. Branchaugh, Kansas City, vice president of the Crescent Grain company; C. N. Atkinson, Kansas City, car service agent of the Port Arthur system; C. M. Morris, Kansas City, lawyer; George Moore, Kansas City, capitalist; Milton Toole, Jr., St. Joseph, banker; C. R. Berry, St. Joseph, assistant general freight agent of the Chicago, Great Western railway; C. D. Zook, Oregon, Mo., banker; W. C. Fleming, Oregon, Mo., stockman; S. H. Prather, Tarkio, Mo., stockman; W. F. Rankin, Tarkio, Mo., stockman and banker; David Rankin, Tarkio, Mo., capitalist and banker.

ANOTHER RATE MEETING IS CALLED

Meeting in Chicago to Fix Up Fares to the Northwest. S. A. Hutchison and A. B. Smith, assistant general passenger agents respectively of the Union Pacific and Great Western, will attend the special meeting of the Western Passenger association to be held at Chicago today, when another attempt will be made to fix up the one-way rates to the northwest. At a meeting two weeks ago an agreement was made providing for a rebate at destination on tickets to the northwest over the Missouri river lines. This was done to protect the business to intermediate points. Some of the interested roads were not present at that meeting, but it was given out that they would probably approve the agreement. Most of these roads were western lines which had the final haul of this business, and under the agreement they were to pay the rebate. In other words they would have to pay out $7.50 on every one of these tickets presented, and wait upon the circumlocution of traffic adjustment for the return of their money. These roads promptly decided they were not in the banking business and refused to accept the agreement. At the meeting today another scheme will be attempted which will enable the interested roads to sell a ticket for 1,500 miles at a less rate than they charge for 1,000 miles, that there may be no disarrangement of the latter traffic.

REORGANIZATION OF CENTRAL PACIFIC

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—General Thomas H. Hubbard, vice president of the Southern Pacific, has arrived here from the east, accompanied by Edward P. Searles, whose interests he represents. He stated that the reorganization scheme of the Central Pacific had been nearly completed. The so-called Santa Fe consolidation bill passed by the California legislature, he said, would facilitate the reorganization of the Central Pacific, but was not necessary to it. Nothing, so far as he knew, had been said by the directors in reference to consolidating the other leased lines of the Southern Pacific company. He said that T. S. Sullivan, his former law partner, was no longer interested in the affairs of the company, but he could not confirm reports that either Prince Poniastowski or Horace G. Platt would succeed Sullivan as controller.

PLANS FOR GULF REORGANIZATION

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.—W. C. Green of the firm of Alexander & Green, the New York attorneys for the reorganization committee of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railroad, arrived in the city today and conferred with Frank Hagerman, local representative of the committee. Plans are alleged to be making to remove the three officials of the road appointed as receivers on Saturday night last. Mr. Green refused to make a statement at present for publication. He said, however, that he did not think any action would be taken today.

EPISCOPAL DIOCESAN NOTES

Some Interesting Items Culled from the Latest Mission Month-

Forty-four congregations in the diocese contributed last year to domestic and foreign missions.

Omaha has eleven parishes and missions served by ten clergymen. The city clergy, however, in most instances minister to outside points such as Elkhorn, Papillion and Florence.

Two former deans of Trinity cathedral, Omaha, have been elevated to the episcopate by the archbishop. The new archbishop, Charles Garrett, to the see of Dallas, Tex., and the earnest and faithful Frank Roseberry Millaquist to the see of Kansas.

Trinity cathedral, Omaha, is the largest parish in the diocese. It reports 505 communicants. All Saints comes next with a membership of 300. Holy Trinity, Lincoln, with 240 communicants, stands third, and St. Barnabas, Omaha, ranks fourth with a communicant list of 225.

Nebraska has 14 "Aburn, loveliest village in the plains," in its situation, in the northern part of the diocese. This is the seat of an organized mission under the care of Rev. Edward Murphy, a man of scholarly attainments and of an earnest, painstaking spirit. The Assumption is the name of the mission at this point. It reports twenty-two communicants.

Nebraska, with only seven self-supporting parishes and more than fifty vest self-supporting parishes and missions receiving aid, is practically and decidedly a missionary diocese. Despite this fact, it is gratifying to note that last year, aside from the offerings of the Woman's auxiliary, Nebraska contributed to domestic and foreign missions the sum of $1,090.75.

The Omaha diocese is perhaps unique in the proportion of the clergy of Irish descent which it contains. Here is the list: Rev. William A. Mulligan, Rev. Edward Murphy, Rev. T. J. Mackay, Rev. John Edward Reilly, D.D.; Very Rev. Campbell Farr, D.D., and Rev. John Williams. The rector of St. Philip's has also been accused of being an Irishman, but as there is some doubt about this, he is left out of the list.

JAMES PYLES BOUND OVER

His Excuse for Shooting Joseph Mason is Deemed Insufficient by Judge Gordon.

The trial of James Pyles, accused of shooting Joseph Mason with intent to kill on April 1, ended Tuesday afternoon in the defendant being bound over to the district court. The trouble occurred at 2818 Fairfax street in a saloon. Pyles wanted a drink which Mason, the bartender, declined to give him. Pyles said he would telephone to the proprietor to see if it was right that he should have what he wanted. When he stepped around behind the counter to use the telephone Mason threw him out thereupon Pyles drew his revolver and fired, the bullet entering Mason's left shoulder.

Pyles insisted at the trial that he was so stunned by the blow which Mason struck him that he did not know what he was doing when he drew his revolver and fired. He and Mason had always been good friends and he said he knew of no reason why he should injure him. Judge Gordon did not think this a sufficient excuse for trying to take a man's life and held him for a jury trial.

ARTILLERY FOR PHILIPPINES

J., to San Francisco, will arrive in Omaha from the Northwestern and sometime Wednesday afternoon and will be taken west over the Union Pacific. These trains are required in which to carry the men, horses, battery wagons, caissons, guns, forges, etc. Two companies of the Twenty-fourth infantry, the colored San Juan heroes, leave Fort Russell today over the Union Pacific for San Francisco.

THURSTON RIFLES' MEMORIAL TABLETS

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Thurston Rifles at the office of the Putnam company Monday evening a committee, consisting of Charles Baxter, H. C. Stafford and W. T. Bartlett, was appointed to secure and erect suitable memorial tablets in the armory to the memory of those members of the Rifles who were killed in battle or died of wounds contracted in line of duty at Manila.

The annual monthly reports were considered. The army committee reported that the hall would be ready for occupancy not later than April 20, and that it was expected that all the engagements of the committee would be fulfilled. The dancing floor will be completely refitted.

BROUGHT WHISKY WITH HER

Although She Was Drunk, Mrs. Ellen Flynn Did Not Buy a Drink in Omaha.

A unique character faced Judge Gordon yesterday when Mrs. Ellen Flynn surged against the bar to answer to the charge of being drunk. She confessed that she was from Moore county, Minnesota, and that she landed in Omaha Monday afternoon.

"Well, what has you to say to the charge of being drunk?" queried his honor. "Yes, I was."

"Where did you get it?" "I did not buy a drop in Omaha. I brought it with me."

"Oh, you had it when you disembarked?" "Yes, sir."

This colloquy was carried on in a quizzical manner that would have forced a smile from a Puritan. Mrs. Flynn was philosophical and did not appear to be the least bit embarrassed. She repeated her charge in good part, remarking that she was glad she had made a good impression, as she might be in court again some day on the same complaint. When the court officer asked her if she had anything when arrested she said she thought she demanded a drink, but she might have been so oblivious to her wearing apparel as to have left it on the train. When he had given her an order she turned and picked up one of her shoes, which she had left on the bench, and departed. Downstairs she found that the officers had taken nothing from her but a few hairpins, which were returned to her by Patsy Havesy, the Beau Brummel of the establishment. She was directed to the Childs' Saving Institute, where she said she hoped she would find work, as she professed to be a famous cook.
