VETOES THE COUNCIL'S ACT

At First Step Promoters of Municipal Ownership in Detroit Strike

Fresh Obstacles. DETROIT, April 4 .- Mayor Maybury to night vetoed the resolution of the common council appointing Governor Pingree and two other citizens commissioners to purchase and operate the street railroads of Detroit for the city. The mayor insisted that he favors municipal ownership, but he alleyes that the act empowering the council to appoint this commission is void.

The McLeod act delegates the power of appointment of the original commissioners to the council, but authorizes that subscquent appointments be made by the mayor and confirmed by the council. Maybury, however, contends that the law confers power to contract obligations under it upon the council, but that any such action of the council requires sanction by the mayor in all cases and is subject to his veto.

No action to test the constitutionality of the McLeod law has been begun by opponents of the municipal ownership plan, sending action on the mayor's veto. There will probably be a legal battle.

In the moving of P. H. Philbin, the ticket broker, from the Paxton hotel block this week an interesting story of man's combative qualities is released. Something over a year ago J. B. Kitchen bad an opportunity Theodore L. Ringwalt. to lease the two corner rooms of his hotel block to the Northwestern railway for a long time at a good figure. The Northwestern occupied one of the rooms and Mr. Philbin the other. The latter had a lease on his Lincoln yesterday to quarters, which extended over a year into the future. At that time also there was no outward display of affection between the officials of railroads and ticket brokers. As winter approached and there was no sign of Mr. Philbin moving out, the radiator in his room was taken away and a game of freeze-out started. There was no flue to which a stove might be connected, and the outlook was cold for the occupants of the disputed room. But Mr. Philbin had enough Irish ingenuity to overcome this, and he put up a stove and extended the pipe out through the transom over the doors opening on Farnam street. The draft was not first-class in this improvised chimney, and the stove frequently smoked. In nailing up the back door the transom was overlooked, and on smoky consideration is stated as $300,000. days Mr. Philbin generously opened the front door and the back transom, while the fumes from smoldering soft coal softly floated into the Paxton hotel corridors, After a few experiences of this kind this transom

Several colored newspapers of the ransmissouri territory have recently pubished articles highly derogatory to the good name and fame of Captain John L. Waller of the United States Volunteers. The president occupies the position in reference to the Philippines that Russia occupies in regard to Poland and a position kindred to the position Austria occupied to Hungary in 1848, when Kossuth was carry ing on a contest in behalf of self-government, in which all America sympathized.

All Powers of a Despot. What sort of government is the president setting up in the Philippine islands?" The answer must be this: A military govrnment set up over a people who have been ubdued or are to be subdued by military The president asserts a purpose to use all the powers ever claimed by any despot. In this, there is no middle ground in principle between republicanism in the declaration of American independence and he broadest claims that were ever put forth by the czar of Russin.

It is the purpose of the president to seize and hold the Philippines by the strong hand of conquest—to subjugate or exterminate the natives—and there are indications that the two events may coincide in respect to time. The Filipinos might plead for the opportunity to exercise the right of self-govern-ment and nothing more. If the presiden would accept the teaching of the declara ion of independence we should be at peace The seizure of the Phillippines by English policy. In accepting England's policy in the east, we accept its sovereignty Resolutions condemning the policy of the administration were adopted.
