MONEY MARKET IS AGAIN SAFE

Disturbances of Speculation and Trust—Funding Quietly Down.

INDUSTRIES MAINTAIN STEADY TONE

Woolen Mills Are Buying Goods More Freely and the Demand Seems to Be Improving—Mercentile Lines and Cereals.

NEW YORK, April 14.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: There is still an increase in all legitimate business, and the productive power of great industries increases even though some of the stocks decline.

The disturbance of business caused by the formation of great combinations has in large measure ceased. The money market is safer and more wholesome.

It is not owing to speculation alone that payments through the clearing houses have been 80 per cent larger than in the same week of 1898 and 102.3 per cent larger than last year.
