Charged with Contempt. CITED TO APPEAR BEFORE JUDGE FAWCETT

Controversy Over Forty-Two-Font Strip on North Fourteenth Street Takes a New Turn-Violation of Injunction Alleged.

The controversy between property owners and the Omaha Bridge and Terminal company over the possession of the forty-foot rip on North Fourteenth street has taken a new turn, and John R. Webster, vice president and general manager of the Terminal company, has been cited to appear before Judge Fawcett to show cause why he is not guilty of contempt of court in an alleged violation of the injunction which roads were awarded the business. was issued on the petition of John A. Scott and others early in April.

The Injunction restrained the Terminal company from occupying, entering or using the territory known as the forty-foot strip equipment. for the purpose of constructing railroad Immediately after the writ was to acquire title to the property through conemnation proceedings, and after this had been accomplished it proceeded to grade the right of way and construct its tracks For this purpose it used several hundred loads of the earth that is being excavated from the Lowe property at Sixteenth and Harney streets, now owned by a Philadelphia capitalist, who is also one of the promoters of the terminal enterprise. It then proceeded to lay a track through the strip and this caused the attorneys for the property owners to file an information charging the terminal company with con-The information recites the history of the injunction and follows with a voluminous statement of the proceedings of the terminal company that are alleged to be in violation of the injunction. The hearing in the contempt proceedings has been set for Friday morning.

The attorneys for the terminal company say they have proceeded on the theory that the acquirement of the property by condemnation proceedings does away with the conditions on which the injunction was based. The strip is a part of that portion of North Fourteenth street over which the terminal company was granted a right-ofway by city ordinance. The property owners whom John A. Scott represents conendangered if the company was permitted. to occupy the street with its tracks. This contention was sustained by the decision of the court in Issuing the injunction. The attorneys for the terminal company assert that this easement is the very thing on which the commissioners assessed damages in the subsequent condemnation proceedings and that the occupancy of the property that has thus been acquired is not a violation of the injunction

MRS. RIECK WINS DIVORCE SUIT. Is Allowed Half of Her Husband's Estate, Valued at $100,000. The Rieck divorce case ended yesterday afternoon in a victory for Mrs. Rieck by which she secures her marital liberty and a full half of her husband's estate, valued at $100,000. By the terms of the decision Mrs. Ella Cherry, the Christian Science healer to whom the plaintiff declared her troubles were due, was exonerated from any suspicion of any intentional interference with the domestic relations of the Rieck

In passing upon the application, Judge Fawcett reviewed the case in detail before an audience that packed the court room to the doors. He said that the responsibility of deciding a question between husband and wife is one of those that a court would like to shirk if it was possible, and particularly so in this case, where the testimony showed beyond a doubt that one of the parties had committed willful and deliberate perjury. He recited the fact that the couple came to this country twenty-five years ago without a dollar and had by hard work and condition that found them in a divorce court at the time when they should be able to settle down and enjoy the fruits of their efforts together,

The evidence was dissected at length in support of the conclusion of the court to tions of Mr. Ricck. In the course of his reasoning Judge Fawcett quite sharply criticised the conduct of the defendant toward his wife as it was revealed in the evidence.

In regard to Mrs. Cherry the court stated that while the evidence showed that she cate that this influence was used designedly either to secure control of his property pines.

ENROUTE TO THE ORIENT Soldiers Pass Through Omaha on Their Way to the Philip-

A special train of ten tourist alsopers, loaded with 285 recruits for the army in the Philippines, passed through Omaha yesterday. The train also had one baggage car and one standard sleeper. It came from Chicago over the Milwaukee and went sionals, it will be a nig treat. The rehearsals west over the Union Pacific. The recruits were in charge of Captain F. DeW. The cars were marked with thatk in many places by the men on board with statements that the goldlers are going o the Philippines.

When the contract for hauling the recruits was originally let it went to the Toledo & AT Ohio Central and the Burlington, but for ome reason at the last moment the cou ract was changed. It is said that the Ohio Central and Nickel Plate bid $1 per capita or bauling the men to Chicago and the Burlington made a rate of $5.90 from Chicago to Ogden. The regular rate agreed opon by the railroads for military business was $5.90 from Columbus barracks to Chi ago and $7.45 from Chicago to Ogden. The low rate made caused some vigorous rejects by the other lines, but whether this had anything to do with the change in the ontract is not known. At any rate the Ohio Central was unable to furnish the necessary equipment in time, according to the announcement from Columbus, and other

It is also said that the Ohio Central made mistake in its bid, the carrying out of which meant a loss to the road, and found it convenient to be unable to furnish the acquipment. Be this as it may, the Pennsylvania secured the haul to Chicago, the Milwaukee from that point to Omaha and cades, large and small designs, extra quality convenient to be unable to furnish the Milwaukee from that point to Omaha and granted the Terminal company proceeder the Union Pacific to Ogden, while the Burlington was let out. It requires two long trains to handle the business.

H. R. Dering of Chicago, assistant general passenger agent for the Pennsylvania line, with headquarters at Chicago, passed through Omaha, accompanied by Mrs. Dering, on a trip to California. Mr. Dering will be gone two weeks. Upon his return trip will stop off in this city to visit some f his railroad friends.

The Santa Fe has issued a circular advertising the beauties of a trip over that line to Los Angeles at the time of the National Education association convention in July. The feature of the circular is the statement that competing lines have sought to decry the Santa Fe because its line is through hot and dry desert land for a great portion of the distance. The Santa Fe meets this statement by saying there are only two such bad spots and that both are passed in the night while the nir is cool. It then Ogden gateway lines.

Let us reason together. If readymade clothing is good, stylish, cheap, pertect fit, and durable, where's the sense of paying extravagant prices for custom-made. But you don't know whether so is so. But you can learn. Courteous salesmen stand ready to show you hundreds of suits and to explain quality difference. The retail market knows nothing better than the $7.00 suits here, ready for you today. They're made to mear better, look better and give better satisfaction than any other clothing at the price, anywhere.
