ROBBED A COUNTRY STORE

Thieves Hunt Away $1,000 Worth of Goods—Bloodhounds Trace Them to Omaha.

Thieves broke into the store of S. J. S. Brothers at Prague and robbed it of goods valued at $1,000. They took their time in making selections which they evidently believed they could dispose of easily and the following articles are reported to have been hauled away in a wagon: Two hundred pairs of shoes; 100 suits of men's clothing and twenty-five pieces of suiting.

The thieves were traced from Prague to Omaha with the assistance of bloodhounds secured in Lincoln. They evidently arrived in Omaha yesterday about 3 a. m., as they were seen in the north part of the city about that hour.

Card of Thanks.

To the many kind friends and neighbors: to the employees of the Omaha Street railway, Beacon Lodge, I. O. O. F., Maple camp 945, M. W. A., and to Pansy camp No. 10, N. E. of A., we wish to return our sincere thanks for their sympathy to us in the loss of our little son, Ray.

Would We Take It?

OMAHA, April 20th, '99. MR. CHAS. H. SCHAEFER: Dear Sir: For the past year I have been reading your "Travels on Foot" receiving a commission and the Pets who pay it. My opinion of you is that you can't get in the ring with the rest of the druggists, and if you were a Doc you would be one of the first to demand a commission—and you'd be a big fish if you refused to accept a commission and your office was free. Honor bright, Schaefer, isn't this a fact?

Replying to the above—No, Doc, you are mistaken. We can get into the ring any time by simply raising the commission. If we claimed to be a doctor and couldn't make enough to pay our office rent unless we acted as a stock peddler on a 24 Tru, and had to denounce every other druggist who happened to fill one of our prescriptions, except the Pet who pays us, we'd pull down our shingle and go to driving a hack.
