BUILDING AND REAL ESTATE

Supply of Dwelling Homes Not Equal to the Demand.

NUMEROUS COTTAGES ARE BEING BUILT

Quite a Number of Business Structures Are Being Erected—Plenty of Work for Mechanics and Laborers—Height Outlook.

Council Bluffs this spring is enjoying unusual activity in the real estate market and at the same time quite a building boom.

The Rock Island railway has started on its new passenger depot and has now decided to build a brick addition, two stories high, to its freight house.

The Minneapolis Thresher Manufacturing company is erecting a brick warehouse on South Main street, and Kimball Brothers are building a two-story brick addition to their elevator factory on South Ninth street.

Assistant County Attorney C. E. Kimball is building a two-story frame cottage on his property on Sixth avenue, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, as a home for himself, which will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000.

A. N. Rich is building a two-story frame cottage at the corner of Grace and Voorhis streets as a home. Others who are building cottages in different parts of the city are A. L. Payne, C. W. Higgins, Thomas O'Leary, John Smith, U. Andrews and S. S. Shepard.

Several permits have been taken out this year also for the erection of barns and additions and improvements to buildings.

The present year promises to be a banner one in the history of Council Bluffs and also in the history of the city as a whole.

The Terminal railway has let the contract for its freight depot to be built near Ninth street and Union avenue and before long it is expected that the Fort Dodge & Omaha road will have its passenger and freight depot near the corner of the city.

It now looks as if City Engineer Enry's scheme to divert the waters of Indian creek into Big lake will be carried to a successful completion.

Roads which have thus far benefited their willingness are the Fort Dodge & Omaha, the Omaha & St. Louis and the Rock Island.

It is well known that the city has the reputation of being one of the most progressive and enterprising cities in the west.

Wanted, girl for second work. Inquire Woman's Christian Association hospital, corner of Ninth street and Sixth avenue.

Del. G. Morgan, the drug man, 142 Broadway, will continue to handle the well and favorably known brand of DeVo's mixed paint.

Chairman Test of the commercial committee has received a letter from General Manager Brown of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway in which he says he will either be in attendance or be represented at the meeting to be held on the evening of May 27 for the purpose of talking over the matter of a union depot at this city.

There is no doubt about it: Williamson having the finest line of clothing in the city.
