Recent Appointment by the Governor Creates a Great Uproar.

OBJECTION TO MEMBER OF DENTAL BOARD

Dr. Wente of Lincoln a Graduate of a Dental College that Has Been Driven Out of Missouri.

LINCOLN, April 24.-(Special.)-One appointment made by the governor, and which creating an uproar all over the state among state. the members of the dental profession. This seems that Wente is a graduate of a Kansas tinual speaking at eastern dinners. City dental college which is in such disrepute among the profession that it has been driven out of Missouri and its graduates ar no longer recognized in that state. Moving over into Kansas the school has met with the same opposition there, and in the recent session a bill was introduced to prevent its graduates from practicing in that state.

A few days ago Dr. Wente was asked what he would do in case a graduate of this objectionable college applied for permission to practice in this state. He replied that part relating to the filing and releasing of under the existing circumstances he would farm and city mortgages is as follows: refuse the permission, and it is understood that within the last week one applicant to open up practice in the state was turned down for that reason. Of course this peculiar situation has created a stir among the graduates of reputable schools and it is probable that the governor will be petitioned to reconsider the appointment.

With the individual work of Dr. Wente there is said to be no objection, and his right to practice in the state cannot be questioned for the reason that he came here before the school was blacklisted. The appointment was purely political, however, as Wente was a candidate for the legislature in Lancaster county last fall and made such a strong fight that he is supposed to have aided the state ficket materially. It is said that he contemplates locating in Texas some time during the summer and that the appointment is made simply to give him prestige in his new location and without any idea of retaining him permanently on the board in this state.

Grief for Stotsenberg.

There was great anxiety felt in Lincoln today over the meager news from the Philippines and the state house was besieged by the friends and relatives of the boys in the First Nebraska, all desiring to see the list of casualties. A large number of inquiries came in from outside towns, but in each case the governor and the adjutant general were compelled to tell the inquirers that no list had been received. During the afternoon the delay became so oppressive that the governor wired the War department asking that the list be forwarded as soon as it reached Washington. This afternoon the governor wired the father of Colonel Stotsenberg as follows:

Judge Stotsenberg, New Albany, Ind.: In this hour of your bereavement we extend to you our heartfelt sympathy. Your son has added honors to Nebraska and died like a hero. W. A. POYNTER, Governor.

Flags were at half mast on the state build ings during the day in memory of Colonel Stotsenberg, and special services were held at the university chapel. During these exercises Chancellor MacLean made a talk in which he deplored the hasty action which

Miles' allegations, he said, were nothing more than the complaints of officers and men in the late war. It was, he said, the general's duty to present the facts concerning those who had suffered from a "new departure, an untried experiment." The overwhelming evidence of over 90 per cent of officers and 85 per cent of the men showed beyond a reasonable doubt that the so-called "canned roast beef" was all that it should not have been.

He neither denied nor alleged that this unfit ration was furnished by design; only that someone had blundered and that the soldier was the sufferer. The subsistence department, without adequate test, purchased this ration by millions of pounds. It was rejected by the soldiers and enough abandoned cans were left by the troops to erect a monument to the memory of the packing houses. Not a dollar for these discarded cans had been returned to the government. Concerning the refrigerated beef Major Lee said that with it was undertaken an other experiment, new and novel in the extreme, of attempting to supply it to an army in the field in a campaign. He said that the seventy-two hour clause in the contracts was impossible of satisfactory fulfillment, and therefore a preservation pro-

case without argument." He contended that the canned roast beef had been adopted as a ration without adequate or proper test, the sole test being a single case sent to Tampa and cooked with vegetables and condiments. "This experiment," he said "was at the instance of a distinguished officer of the subsistence department. The error was an honest one of judgment, caused, perhaps, in some measure by the pressure of his duties, but the adoption of this canned beef as a material component of the meat ration in place of fresh beef was a responsibility belonging to higher authority. Major Lee declared that some of the inspections were so perfunctory that canned meats were accepted "on the reputation of the packing firms." "Since when," he asked, "have gigantic corporations and trusts become exempt from that close scrutiny that would be applied to a dealer of moderate means?" Time Limit Excessive.

He then took up the question of refrigerated beef and said: "Here, again, as in the case of the so-called canned roast beef, was undertaken another experiment, novel in the extreme, of attempting to supply an army in the field in a campaign with re-Kinley was unable to see callers today and frigerated beef. Major Lee said:

Pardon me for saying it, but much, if not all, of such testimony is like much of the roast beef complained of-somewhat overcooked.

Where the Blame Falls.

In summing up his case, Major Lee made the following claims: It was perfectly practicable to have had at all times herds of fat cattle at every camp in the United States to meet any and At the afternoon session Major Lee, who all exigencies of service, as they might

At no time during the war was there beef cattle with the armies in both Porto Rico and Cuba There was no necessity for departure from he army travel ration which has been ound perfectly satisfactory. Instead supplying the troops during this war, as ther armies have been supplied, with wholesome food (of which there was an inexhaustible supply in the country), there was gathered up all of the canned food possible, much of which had been stored for years in the warehouses of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and in foreign storehouses and faisely labeled "prime roast beef" where there was not an ounce of roast beef, and, we believe, not an ounce of prime beef contained in the cans. The sending of troops, chained to refrigerators and cold storage and ice houses, into a campaign against a hostile enemy is so unprecedented and unmilitary that it would be a waste of words to discuss it: yet this was done, and there was full knowledge that the commissary department required from the contractors furnishing refrigerated beef that it must keen for seventy-two hours outside of the refrigerators. To fulfill these contracts, the evidence shows the contractors would be compelled to resort to artificial preservatives. That they possessed and intended to use chemical appliances is evidenced beyond question. The serious and injurious effect upon the troops that were compelled to receive and use these two classes of food or to suffer in consequence of not having wholesome food is as apparent as any well established fact, but the extent of such injury upon the health and lives of the troops cannot well be measured.

While our troops were thus deprived of wholesome food, many parties were ready | St. to supply them at all times and in all camps in this country and on foreign stations with any number of cattle.

We believe these facts have been estabished beyond question and we believe that government and a great crime committed on the soldiers; and as to the party or par ties who have committed this offense, and whether the evidence should be referred to the judicial officers of the government, in order that justice shall be done, are matters that we leave to the consideration of your honorable court.

CITY LAYS CLAIM TO THE ISLAND. American Who Has a Lease Arrested as a Trespasser

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 24.-A great ensation was caused this morning by the arrest of Theodore Ludgate, the representative of Messrs. Stewart and Wells of Chicago, and his workmen, whom he took out to Dead Man's island to build a sawmill there. Messrs. Stewart and Wells, the representatives of a Chicago syndicate, obtained a lease of the island from the department of militia at Ottawa, but the city claims the island. Mayor Garden warned Ludgate that he would not be allowed to proceed with the work. Ludgate publicly announced that he would start the work of clearing the Island at o'clock this morning. The mayor ordered the police force out, and when the Chicago party arrived they were warned off. They persisted in landing and were arrested as trespassers. Mr. Ludgate, in his public announcement that work would be begun today, said: "If the policemen arrest the men it will be a sorry day for Vancouver, as I am instructed by Attorney General Martin of British Coumbia that the island is mine by lease, and if the policemen try to stop me they are trespassers, not I, and a huge mass meeting will be called of citizens, who will request Mayor Garden and the council to resign as misrepresenting the city's interests."

their earthly happiness, have found it a blight to the body, a martyrdom to the mind. The irreg-ular and painful periods of maidenhood were looked upon as a part of the common lot of woman, and so, neglected. Wife-hood brought with it debilitating drains, and the trial of motherhood left an inflamed and ulcerated condition of the womanly organs. Then followed the slow decay of body and mind; the one tormented with pain; the other irritable, or despondent. Science which cannot forbid the banns of marriage, can undo these sad consequences. It is the hand of science which offers afflicted women that marvelous medicine Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It por itively cures irregularities, female weakness
