CATARRH OF THE STOMACH. A Pleasant, Simple but Safe and Effective Cure for It. Catarrh of the stomach is a disease which is considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases causing a pressure on the heart and lungs, and difficult breathing; headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general palpitant, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be reached, it would show a slimy, inflamed condition. The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surface of the stomach. To secure prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aspic, Lecithin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite will follow their regular use after each meal.

Mr. N. J. Boeber of 3710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribe for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but to-day I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals. Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing P. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

RESULTS OF THE RUNNING TRACKS. Neponset and Freylinghuysen Have Sensational Finish at Aqueduct. NEW YORK, May 2.—There was plenty of excitement at Aqueduct today in the annual stakes which was the fourth race on the card. Neponset was an odds-on favorite and Advance Guard and Freylinghuysen were equally second choice. The start was poor, with Neponset in the front. The race was a close one, with Neponset leading by a few lengths in front at the head of the stretch he bolted to the outside and Freylinghuysen won on the front end. Neponset all the way down the stretch. He was fined $200 and suspended for the rest of the meeting for impudence at the finish.

Better than Fifty Libraries

Have you "a thirst for knowledge?" Of course you have. Not to want to know things, not to desire to be wise, is to live one's life under too heavy a handicap.

Size, weight, appearance, tact. These we can inherit—or buy. But knowledge doesn't come that way. It must be patiently dug from the books of your mental superiors. Book after book—hour after hour—that's one way, and a good way it is.

There is another way, though—a shorter way—our way. Get the book which is the epitome of all books—get the 9,000 pages, with 8,000 illustrations—the essence of things worth learning—The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia.

The Omaha Bee has paved the way for every knowledge seeker in Omaha and the west, to own this great work. Only a rich man can buy a library, but the most modest purse will suffice to purchase The Century, through The Bee's co-operative Century Club.

The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia is not a cheap and unreliable work. It is a new work from beginning to end, and cost over one million dollars to complete. Five hundred of the world's best scholars made it, it was printed by De Vinne, the paper was made specially to show the beautiful illustrations, the binding is the best imported morocco, the embossing and gilding are done with consummate skill. The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia is the most perfect work in the world from the standpoint of scholarship, as well as from a mechanical standpoint. Everyone will have to buy it some day, and now is the chance for a few OmahaBee readers to get it at a saving of many dollars.

The Greatest Book Offer Ever Made. The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia at Lowest Wholesale Price and on Easy Payments.

By an arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to supply a number of our readers with sets of The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia through a co-operative club, at the same price as the work is sold in the largest wholesale lots. Each purchaser may pay monthly if he chooses. The complete work is delivered on receipt of the first payment, and every club member is entitled to more than a year in which to pay the balance. This is possible only through the power of co-operation, as arranged by The Bee.

Do not be too late in applying to us. Sets are in great demand, and the number is very limited. If you are interested in this offer, call at room 604 Bee Building, where the volumes may be examined, or cut out and mail the adjoining inquiry blank. We will send you sample pages of the work and full information about the club.

NOTABLE MEN EAT AND TALK

The only question was whether the benefits of American civil and religious liberty should not be given the people whom Providence had placed under our control.

Senator Dewey of New York, an expansionist but not an imperialist in the commonly accepted sense of that word. As to the Philippine campaign he declared that the Philippines were not to be tyrannized over by the United States but were to have some one like General Sherman to tell them, "Home, stop raising h—l and go to raising crops." The senator concluded with the loudly applauded sentiment that the spirit of true Americanism would carry the nation through the perils of expansion.

General Brockington paid tribute to the navy by saying that the greatest brunt of the war fell, not on the army, but on the navy. He said: "It does not seem to me that any body of men ever performed so perfect a duty as the navy has done in the American navy in the late war."

After photographing the scene by the flashlight process the banqueters adjourned.

Some of the results of neglected dyspeptic conditions, which have been heaped upon summation, heart disease and epilepsy. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure prevents all of this by effecting a quick cure in all cases of dyspepsia.

Ill. Beck has secured permits to erect four one-story frame cottages in the vicinity of Twelfth and Bancroft streets to cost $500 each. A permit for a $500 cottage to be located near Twenty-fifth and Hurt streets was issued to Neils Cleve. The Brossler Building company has taken out a permit to expend $3,500 in repairing the Patterson block, which was recently damaged by fire.

A complaint was filed yesterday afternoon against J. B. Kitchen and William Malar, who are charged with the malicious destruction of property. The complaint alleges that they tore up and destroyed four feet of street which stood on the corner of Fourteenth and Farnam streets for the benefit of the weary pedestrian. The settee was the property of the Sunshine Publishing company.

General Joe Wheeler talked along similar lines. He reviewed the circumstances of the mobilization of the army during the war and today their memory is revered by every careful reader of history; and so, too, will all those now slanders stand forth in the clear light of events, judged by the grand results they have accomplished and not by the fulminations of partisan malevolence and misrepresentation.

"Act together now and if needs must be you can talk afterward. The government must and shall be sustained and the watchword of the hour to every true American should be: 'My country, may she always be right, but right or wrong, my country!'"
