State Rests Its Case.

The attorneys engaged in the prosecution decided to rest their case yesterday morning and the evidence for the defense was begun. So far this has consisted largely of depositions designed to establish the existence of insanity as a hereditary disease in the Kerr family. The introduction of this evidence was stubbornly opposed by General Cowin, who assumed charge of the prosecution at this point, and the rule of an hour of argument to five minutes of evidence was consistently main-

John Cunningham of the County of Ayr, Scotland, deposed that he was a justice of the peace, and there a neighbor of the Kerr family. He had known John Kerr, the defendant, for four years, and his father, Robert Kerr, thirty years. At this point the reading was interrupted by an objection from the state, in which the limitations to expressions of opinion by non-expert witnesses on the question of insanity up for discussion. This ended the depositions for the time, and W. H. Koenig was called as the first witness for the defense. He jestified that saw them both at Twenty-sixth and Leavenworth streets June 28. They were fighting in a buggy when he first saw them. Then they both jumped out of the buggy and had it out. Reld knocked Kerr down twice and beat him in the face and kicked him. Kerr was lying on the ground when Reid kicked him several times in the head.

D. W. Comstock was another eye witness of the fight, and he testified that Reid started the trouble by knocking Kerr down. He knocked him down three times, Kerr acting as though he were dazed. He did not see any kicking. The witness took Kerr to his shop a block away and washed the blood from his face.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and iked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all its injurious properties, Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about one-fourth as much as coffee. Ibc and 25c.

CORNISH PRESENTS FIGURES

Member of the Park Board Talks to the North Omnha Improvement Club.

At the regular meeting of the North Omaha Improvement club last evening Comnissioner Cornish of the Park board, who had been invited to explain the policy of the board with reference to the north side parks, presented a mass of statistics to support his claim that the north end of the city had been fairly treated in the matter of the distribution of park funds. Taking the total amount of money expended upon the park system of the city he showed that Fontanelle, Miller and Kountze parks had received twice as much money for original purchase, maintenance and improvements as had Riverview park, the only park in the south end. Florence boulevard had received voted during the time the pells were open. practically all the money expended on oulevards by the Park board. After Mr. Cornish's explanation the question of trees for planting along the streets of the north side was taken up. Mr. Cornish informed the members that the board had donated them 200 trees and arrangements were made to have them brought in from Elmwood park at once.

There will be no meeting of the club next Monday night, as the members decided to call upon the Fire and Police commission that evening and see if it would be possible to secure a better fire alarm system on the north end.
