is the source and incarnation of the evils of the system which bears his name. Let him thus make the issue distinct and direct, leaving the final decision to the people. If Mr. Quay fears to submit his candidacy to the people in the face of his reputation by their direct representatives, insists upon claiming a seat in the United States senate through the unlawful act of a sub-servient governor, he will intensify and prolong the contest until he is repudiated by a future legislature and proscribed by the poster and defeat upon the other candidates who bear the stamp of his machine.

DAVIS' NAME IS REMEMBERED

Tribute Paid to "Daughter of Confederacy" and Monument Urged for Rebel President.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 11.—The memorial to Winnie Davis was one of the features of today's session of the Confederate veterans, Colonel Bennet H. Young of Louisville paid a tribute to the memory of the "daughter of the confederacy."

A resolution was unanimously adopted extending the thanks of every veteran to the people of the north who so tenderly administered to Nannie Davis at the time of her illness at Nunnageest Pier.

The Jefferson Davis monument committee submitted the following report: Resolved, That it is the earnest and unanimous wish of the United Confederate Veterans that the committee shall undertake the erection of a monument to the memory of President Jefferson Davis at Richmond, Va., feeling confident, as we do, that under its direction the work will soon be accomplished.

The morning session of the Confederate Veterans' union opened at 11 o'clock with the singing of the Doxology, followed by prayer by Chaplain Smith.

The committee on credentials and resolutions were appointed, one member being selected by each state.

The following letter from General Fitzhugh Lee was read: I am obliged for your kind complimentary letter. I do not know of anything that would give me greater pleasure than to be able to see you in person, but my duties are so pressing that I fear I will not be able to leave, if only for a few days.

General Gordon then introduced General Joe Wheeler. "I need not tell you," said General Gordon, "that here is one of the wildest of confederate wizards. I need not tell you of that day in Santiago when he saw the Spaniards firing before him and when in the wild enthusiasm of the moment he forgot where he was and called upon his men, 'Forward, boys, the Yankees are running.'"
