(Copyright, 1899, by Associated Press.) LONDON, May 13 .- With the beautiful eummerlike weather this week the season seems to be finally in full swing. The hotels, picture exhibitions and other resorts are crowded daily, while enormous parties given by hostesses prominent in the social world fill every night. The polo scason has opened at Hurlingham and Ranelagh and these country clubs are also attracting large numbers of fashionable people. Many Americans are already here and the hotel and shopkeepers are jubilant at the prospect of a large invasion from overseas. The greatest interest centers in the queen's visit to London next week to hold a drawing room and lay the foundation stone of the Albert and Victoria museum at Kensington. Tuesday's drawing room, naturally, w.l. be the most brilliant of the season. There has been a rush of great ladies to attend this particular function, but a great deal of heart burning has been occasioned by the system of ballot which the new tord chamberlain has inaugurated and under which many prominent people are excluded. By this novel mode of selection the names of well-known peeresses and of people unknown to fame are mixed together in a manner that is very distasteful to the former. Sevental to the system of ballot which the new tord is certain to be the occasion of a great patriotic demonstration.

Lieutenant Colonel Alfred E. Bates, formerly military attache of the American em-bassy, who sails for the United States today on board the American line steamer St. Louis, spoke warmly to the correspondent here of the Associated Press regarding the courtesy with which he had been received on all sides since coming to London. Speaking of the Philippines, Colonel Bates said: I can say of my own knowledge that British military men applaud our troops out there, while they regard our splendid naval officers and sallors as the heroes of the war. They have become as well known and highly appreciated here among service men as they are in America.

HARVARD WINS FIELD GAMES

Ynle Defented After Spirited Contest by Thirteen and One-Quarter Points-Weather is Unfavorable.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 13 .- Harvard won a decided victory over Yale this aft-ernoon in the annual dual athletic games, and as a result comes into permanent possession of the long-fought-for trophy cup, having won the games five times to Yale's three. Harvard won today by superior form, Despite the heavy track and the inclement weather conditions the time on the whole was good and the competition throughout was a credit to both teams, as well as to individual contestants.

Yale on the whole was superior in the sprints, but was at a loss for winning men in the field events. The disparity was pronounced and the Yale contestants were not to be classed with their opponents. In the pole vant Harvard thought it wise default to Yale for the reason that the hour was late when it was called and because Harvard's victory was assured, without the possible one or two points which its men might have gained by fighting it out to the end.

There were about 1,000 spectators on the bleachers when the games began with the preliminary heats in the short dashes.

Throughout the game showers made conditions disagreeable, but at no time were the games delayed by the rain. Except in the long drawn-out field events the atmospheric conditions did not apparently hamper the ath etes.

The performance of Boardman, the young and as a result comes into permanent pos-the ath etes.

The performance of Beardman, the young Yale freshman, became remarkable when considered in the light of those conditions. In the 220-yard flat he came down the light twenty-five yards fully four yards behind twenty-five yards fully four yards behind Quinlan, the Harvard crack, but pulled away from the bunch and finished six inches to the fore, winning what seemed to be a sure race for Harvard.

In the 40-yard dash he and Burke fought the entire last lap. The crowd fairly went wild as the two sprinters tore up the track in the finest form and, followed by track in the finest form and, followed by ther men who wou'd have been considered to doing good work under the conditions. Harvard's victory was assured by the atcome of the 220-yard hurdles and the other large.
