NO RECOURSE IN BRIGGS CASE

Presiding Bishop Says His Ordination Ends the Controversy Regarding Him.

NEW YORK, May 16.—A special to the Tribune from Providence, R. I., says: His Rev. Thomas M. Clark, the venerable presiding bishop of the American house of bishops, has been much annoyed by the controversy over the Briggs matter, which he considers most unfortunate.

The bishop said that he did not see what action he could take if he was desirous of taking any. The ordination of a priest was entirely a matter of local control.

The bishop said that he did not see what action he could take if he was desirous of taking any.
