His Motion is Based on Thirty-Six Allegations.

CLAIM OF NEW EVIDENCE IS SET FORTH

Exception Taken to a Dramatic Declaration of General Cowin and Misconduct of a Juror is Alleged.

Through his attorneys John Kerr, convicted of murder in the second degree for killing his father-in-law, John Reld, with a shotgun at Valley last July, has asked that the verdict be set aside and a new trial The motion is based on thirtysix allegations, including the usual statu- have found the arrangement beneficial. The tory grounds, and also referring to several plan is to route immigrants over the roads circumstances of the trial that are declared to have been prejudicial to the interests of for which favor the roads route passengers the defendant. Three of these consist of in the other direction over certain steamship alleged improprieties on the part of the lines. The Union Pacific road is the only because Deputy County Attorney Dunn ex-plained to the jury in his argument that the road has employed an agent of its own to work as a kitchen servant.

The motion also alleges that new evidence has been discovered that was not available during the previous trial and declares that the court erred in each of its instructions to the jury. The last contention is that Kerr did not have a fair trial because one of the jurors declared that he shall be considered immigrant business, subknew Kerr was guilty after he had been ject to the control of the western immigrant passed for cause. This claim of evidence of clearing house. A number of lines, sup-unfairness was called to the attention of the ported by the officials of the clearing house. court as soon as it was ascertained by the maintained the position that all steerage defense, but the juror was permitted to business must be included in immigrant serve through the case. The Union Pacific, supported by the call witnesses whose names had not been Alton and a number of other roads, adhered endorsed on the information previous to the to the view that there is a considerable day of the trial.

Tom Murray Wants an Injunction. Judge Dickinson is hearing the argument on the application of Tom Murray for an injunction to prevent the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance company from taking possession of the Murray hotel under foreclosure proceedings. When the decree of foreclosure was granted there was an agreement that if Murray could dispose of the property for an amount that would permit him to liquidate the judgment before May 1 the judgment would remain as a mortgage and the insurance company would not take possession of the premises. Murray represents that he has paid the creditors about $9,000 on this account and that he is therefore entitled to the benefit of the stipulation.

Ernest Rae Convicted. The trial of Brnest Rae for shooting with intent to kill resulted in his conviction. The shooting occurred as the result of a row in an N street saloon in South Omaha last February. Rae is said to have fired a shot at Rudie Baier, but he insiste that he only fired his revolver into the sidewalk. No one was injured and there has been an apparent reluctancy on the part of some of the prosecuting witnesses to appear. The case was scheduled last term, but Baier did not respond to a summons and was finally brought up for contempt. He escaped by the showing that the deputy sheriff had inadvertently handed him the wrong sum-

Minor Matters in Court. In the case of Peter Griess against A. B. McContrie Judge Shiras of the United States court has overruled a motion to remand to ounty, where the action was originally brought. James Ryan charge of burglary in criminal court yester-day afternoon and was sentenced to one and one-half years in the penitentiary. Ryan broke into a saloon and got away with a small amount of liquor and cigars.

In Judge Munger's court the jury has returned a verdict for the defendant in the case of the Western Assurance company against C. S. Polk. The case came from Cass county. The plaintiff sued the defendant, alleging malpractice in the matter of settling an insurance claim.

James Yellowback, Henry Hardin and David Blackhawk, Omaha Indians charged with selling liquor upon the reservation, have been brought in by Deputy Marshal Allen. If unable to furnish bonds, they will lie in the county fail until next month, when their cases will be called for trial.

The criminal court is now hearing the evidence against Albert Smith, who is charged with farceny as bailee. Smith borrowed a horse from Thomas Casey while both men were patronizing a saloon and he neglected to return the property. It is charged that he took the rig to South Omaha and sold it for $12. Mary A. Nichols has been appointed guardian of Madeline A. Nichols in order to permit of a settlement of a damage suit against Tom Murray that is now pending. It was asserted that one of Murray's wagons ran over the little girl and her father sued Murray for damages. The case will now be setted for $100. The case of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. against the village of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. against the village of Bancroft is on trial before a jury in Judge Munger's court. Plaintiffs seek to recover the sum of $3,000, alleging that this sum is due on a contract for the putting in of a water system in the town. The defendant charges that the system was not put in in accordance with the contract and the service guaranteed is not furnished. and the service guaranteed is not furnished

The Enoch Morgan Sons' company of New York have brought suit in United States court against John J. Gibson of this city, asking for an injunction to prevent him from manufacturing a cleaning and washing preparation which, it is alleged, is an in-fringement. The plaintiff alleges that Gib-son's preparation is injuring its trade and son's preparation is injuring its trade and that he should be stopped from selling as well as from manufacturinig.

MRS. STARR'S TALE OF WOE

Fears that Her Husband Has Deserted Her and Gone Away with Another Woman.

The most pitiful case the police have recently been called upon to deal with came to their attention Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. John Starr drove up in front of the station and requested protection from her husband who, as she claimed and feared, intended to steal their children from her. The outfit of Mrs. Starr was apparently a remnant of some bone yard. The horses could hardly draw one foot after the other. they were so thin and worn. The covered spring wagon was almost a wreck and one momentarily expected to see it drop to ploces. On the seat beside Mrs. Starr sat two chubby, bright looking little children, the elder being 3 years of age. In the back part a boy 3 months old was sleeping peace-

Mrs. Starr said she and her husband had driven in from Westcott, Custer county, where her husband worked all last winter. They crossed into Iowa and spent a few days near Chariton. When near Council Bluffs on their return to Nebraska he left her and took a train for Omaha to get his mail. He told her he might meet her here | Chamberlain's Pain Balm or by dampening a but she was not sure. He gave her the handsome sum of 25 cents, while he took their last dollar and came to Omaha. She drove the intervening thirty miles and arrived here this morning. She learned that he had gogtten some letters from the postoffice, and as she could find no trace of him she supposed he had deserted her for another woman with whom he has been corresponding. She said she did not care for Gentry's Dog and Pony Show. H. B. Gentry, the famous professor of imal learning assisted by his large and well trained company of dogs, ponics and monkeys, is advertised to appear under a large waterproof tent at Eighteenth and Douglas streets all of next week. Performances will be given each night at 8:15 and matinees Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 2:30 p. m. The professor has always been a great favorite in Omaha, not only with the little ones, who especially delight in performances of this character, but with adults of mature years, who can visit the Gentry exhibit with both pleasure and profit. Since last seen here the show has been greatly enlarged and now the company consists of seventy-eight dogs, forty-five ponies, twelve monkeys, also a small baby elephant only forty-two inches high.

It has also been improved in every particular, the acts are all new and up to date, the old feats have carefully been eliminated and the programme this season is all bright and fresh.

One of the new feats is a small Skye terdog called "Rags" climbing a small is an exhibition of courage seldom found in a dumb brute and one that is always ap-

Announcements.

Those who witness the act of Clifford and Huth at the Orpheum this week are struck by the amusing difference in the size and weight of the gifted comedians. Clifford is a little, graceful and blonde young man, whereas Mrs. Billy Clifford, while blond, teo, and not ungraceful, weighs in the neighborhood of 210 pounds. It is only of late that they have recovered from tandem bleycle ride in Boston which ended disastrously because of their physicial dis-parity. Billy was riding behind and his wife was steering. As they shot down a steep hill the helmsman's feet slipped from the pedals and she shouted to Billy to stop the wheel. This Billy tried to do, but the result was that his pedals nearly threw him off at every revolution. The people at the foot of the hill could not see that there were two people on the bicycle until it sud-denly swerved from the path and ran into a stone wall at the side. Then Billy put in his appearance over the shoulders of Mrs. Clifford and struck the stone wall. Both were severely hurt and bore evidences of their rough experience for a long time afterwards. Next season they will star in May rwin's great success "Courted Into Court, The entire bill at the Orpheum this week is so very pleasing as to draw uniformly

Today is the regular matinee day for the Trocadero theater and very elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of ladies and children. It will also be a sort of professional matinee, as all the theatrical people in the city who are not working during the afternoon will be in attendance. Matinees at the Trocadero have always in the past been favorite perform-ances with the ladies and children. This season this will probaby be the same con-dition. The bill is one that should be particularly pleasing to matinee patrons, is composed of acts that appeal to children as well as the adults. Little Mile. Venita, not over five years old, sings and dances beautifully and handsome Master Mowatt, who, though very young, bears the name of being one of the best fancy club swingers in America, are pleasing acts for children. The grotesque knock-about comedians, the Trolley Car Trio, who use a trick street car to exploit their talents as acrobatic comedians, is also an act that will please children. Bring out the little ones if the day is pleasant.

Reception to Admiral Schley. The Commercial club will give Admiral Schley a reception in its rooms next Tuesday between 11 a. m. and noon, to which all club members are invited. GREEN—the color with which nature has decorated so lavishly—has always been a favorite with man. But just the RIGHT KIND of GREEN PAINT is still rather hard to find. In this particular item, as in all others in the paint line, the Sherwing williams Co. have provided most bountifully. Their line comprises "SCREEN GREEN" for wire screens and their frames—in ½ pint cane for 25c, and 1 pint cans for 45c.
"FRENCH CROWN GREEN" (No. 282)—

-in ½ pint cane for 25c, and 1 pint cane for 45c.

"FRENCH CROWN GREEN" (No. 362)—
This is a beautiful, RICH, medium dark green, suitable for shutters, flower boxes, etc., etc. Then there is the BRONZE GREEN (No. 455), and the very dark—almost black green (No. 48b). The last named shade is a beautiful color for sash, doors, store fronts, etc. It makes a heavy, glossy coat, which cannot be equalled by other paints. Then there is the beautiful "EM-EHALD GREEN"—in enamel paint—a very delicate shade, suitable for bedsteads, chairs, etc. Green paint for wagons and implements at 50c per quart. "STERLING" and "BRILLIANT" Green for bleycles, in small 25c cans, then there is the "light" and "dark" Green Buggy Paint in 25c and 45c cans, and the "Brouze Green" Creosote Paint (a cheap sridele) for fences and out door work—and the "APPLE GREEN" and M-dium Green Family Paint, in ½ pint and 1 pint and 1 quart cans.

Altogether, about 49 kinds of GREEN PAINT, suited to nearly as many uses, Call for color cards.
