Three Days' Peace Jubilee Opens Auspiciously in National Capital.

MPOSING PARADE FEATURE OF THE DAY

Line of Parade Along Historic Penns sylvania Avenue Past the White House-Offy Guily Decorated for the Occasion.

WASHINGTON, May 23 .- Beginning with on imposing parade of military and other niformed organizations and closing with display of fireworks at night, the national capital today inaugurated a three-days' peace jublice. The main thoroughfares of he city and all the public buildings are decorated with bonting and the attractive program of parades and festivities tias frawn a large number of visitors. With the exception of a shower which was not of sufficient duration to mar the occasion, the weather was ideal and Washington has to day worn its inauguration aspect. parade, which was the feature of the first day, moved down Pennsylvania avenue between dicering throngs, through the handsome court of honor in front of the White House, and passed in review before the president and a distinguished party of pub-lie officials. The day opened with the boom of big guns from the Dolphin, which, anchored off the navy yard, fired the national salute t sunrise, and church chimes and hun ireds of steam whistles joined in the noisy horus. At noon the departments closed and oured their thousands out to join the rowds on the streets, and a salute of forty-five guns was fired.

Details of the Parade.

The first day's festivities were marked by a parade comprising all the regular army session today of the twenty-sixth national and naval organizations stationed in and Conference of Charities and Corrections around Washington, together with the Disthe report of the committee on the care of trict of Columbia volunteers, the Delaware the feeble-minded and epileptics was made National Guard, the Naval Reserve of Phila- as far off as ever, by Dr. Mary J. The route was that followed by the inauguration parades, down Pennsylvania avenue, around House grounds, where a large reviewing stand gracefully decorated with bunting had been erected.

The three squares extending from the tate, War and Navy to the Treasury building, had been transformed into a court of honor. On each side classic columns were reared and broad arches spanned by festo ned flags and bunting marked the entrance and open court. The public benches along the avenue at this point were black with people and the surrounding parks were thronged. The president, members of his cabinet and their wives, ambassadors and foreign ministers with their attaches, General Miles with his staff and many promi-

Probably 75,000 people went to the White of tonight to view the magnificent display f fireworks, which included a realistic prauction of the battle of Manila, portraits of President McKinley, Admiral Dewey and of other notable characters of the war. President and Mrs. McKinley and most of the members of the cabinet with the women and families occupied vantage seats and were interested spectators of the exhibition. There were many special electrical de vices on business houses, while the court of honor, stretching along Pennsylvania avenue in front of the president's house, formed an object of much interest to thousands of spectators. The great centerpieces were handsomely Illuminated and decorated, as was also the grandstand, from which the president and his cabinet viewed the parade in the day.

The ground has not been so thoroughly struck up this stirring air as the reviewing soaked during the first half of May for a number of years as now, and crops of every greeted it started with the diplomats and kind are growing rapidly despite the cold. The wheat ecreage is estimated somewhat below last year, while that of corn is likely to exceed that of last year very considerably if weather permits planting. Many farmers contemplate breaking new ground and sowing it to flax, which is likely to increase the acreage of this crop, which for several years past has been very light. There is demand for flax for seeding.

> Senor Mora, the supreme court fiscal, in an interview, is quoted as saying he agrees that Senor Lanuza, head of the Department of Justice and Public Instruction, was wrong to abolish the incommunicado system before reforming the entire procedure. According to the present method, it is pointed out, a orlsoner cannot arrange to have his friends testify favorably or subsidize a lawyer. The Spanish code punishes perjury severely. but the people here have not the respect for an oath which people have in the United States. This is owing to the corruption of the Spanish officials, who had the idea of profiting from everything done. Therefore, Senor Mora added, the matter "requires careful study, and in the meanwhile I will allow of no change until prepared to complete the reform process."

The collector of customs, Major T. H Bliss, explained at a meeting of Spanish merchants today the advantages of the bonded warehouse and dock plan that he had originated. It appears that $2,000,000 are now spent on the antiquated lighter system, and it is the collector's design to build two docks, slightly longer than the New Hurdah L Johnson, Omaha York piers used by the Transatiantic Steamship companies, with double stories, electric cranes and electric ratiroads. It is estimated that they will save their cost in twenty-seven months.

Spirit of the Press.

La Union Espanola says editorially today: "It is easy to see the near approach of war between Cuba and the United States." La Discuscion, which denounces this sen timent as "absurd and malicious," says: 'Against the statements of such enemies of Cuba are Cuban patriotism and the determination not to delay or to endanger the republic by a single imprudence." The eightieth birthday of Queen Victoria will be celebrated here by a banquet given by the British consul and the principal British residents and British visitors to Havana. Among the guests of American nationality will be Governor General Brooke and Generals Lee, Chaffee, Ludlow and Humphreys and many other Americans of prominence, Senor Perfecto Lacoste, mayor of Hayana, and Senor Federico Mora of the supreme court. All the army funds and the Cuban reve-

Spaniards Forget Their Wives. There are still many deserted wives of Spanish officials on the relief list, with numerous children, and what to do with them is a problem that puzzles the officials. Several arrests have recently been made under the municipal regulation that forbids wearing an undershirt without a shirt or coat. Among those arrested are several American teamsters. The working class of Cubans are fast adopting the practice of both discarding coat and undershirts and wear instead very short outer shirts, leavng several inches of skin showing between the bottom of the shirt and the trouser band. This costume, which is cool and comfortable, though not exactly elegant, complies with the law. A Penny Saved is a Penny Earned. THE BOSTON STORE has brought from Chicago a lady expert in the art

She will show, in methods so simple that a child can use them, how to use dyes without staining the hands or soiling the vessels or utensils used. How to obtain those dainty, popul ar shades and tints of color that enhance color to a faded ribbon; how to make from the commonest cotton goods the dainty, tinted lingerie now so much worn in the east; how to make that 'tacky" pique skirt, a stylish "ca det" or "royal" blue; how to make those colored hose a fast black; how to make that yellowish shirt waist a delicate shell pink or dainty rose; h ow to make those 10-year-old lace curtains look as though fresh from the loo m; how to make those shabby chenille draperies look like the ones purch ased yesterday, completely changing their color if desired; how to clean a ga rment quicker and better than a "Parisian Dye House" can do; how to remo ve those unsightly spots caused by splashes of Omeha's oily mud from that pretty cycle costume, and a thousand and one other things that every woman is interested in and should know.

Remember, nothing to sell and no charge of any kind; simply an instructive entertainment provided gratis by the BOSTON STORE for their lady patrons and friends. Beginning Saturday, May 27th, these demonstrations will be held daily from 3 a. m. to 5 p. m., f or the week ending Saturday, June 2d, in the Millinery Department, immediately in front of the elevator on the second floor, at the Boston Store, 16th and Douglas streets.

No Lady Can Afford to Miss Seeing This Unique and Useful Display of dyeing to instruct the ladies of Omaha in the very latest phases of this most useful acquirement, and light a woman's beauty as an artistic setting displays the diamond. How to make soiled, faded ga rments look like new; how to restore the
