Two Brothers Reunited Through a Picture Published in Newspapers. A most remarkable romance in real life, the story of the reunion of two brothers, aged respectively 85 and 98 years, after a separation since 1823, has come to light at Clarinda, Ia. Dr. J. K. Rickey of Clarinda is the younger and John Rickey of Laharpe, Ill., the elder brother. Soon they will be united at Clarinda, through the good offices of a picture of Dr. J. K. Rickey, printed in story which accompanied it, In 1823 the family of father, mother and thirteen children lived in Pittsburg, relates graham, cashier of a bank at Laharpe, 417 John Rickey. The letter said that an old man of that town named John Rickey had read of the anniversary celebration. He went at once to Ingraham and declared that J. K. Rickey of Clarinda was his brother, whom he had not seen since 1823. Mr. Ingraham agreed to write about the matter. He sent a description of the Laharpe a 7:00 pm Rickey, which tallied, as far as it could be expected to tally, with the description of the John Rickey of seventy-five years ago. It was also stated that the Laharpe man was about 98 years old. He told nothing of his separation from his family in 1823, but said that he had been separated from his relatives almost all his life and supposed they were dead. He had been on the Ohio > but had for many years lived in Illinois. His letter convinced the Iowa man that he had found his elder brother. He at once wrote for further information, and in response has received from Banker Ingraham a letter telling him that John Rickey, despite his 98 years, has left Laharpe on foot with the intention of walking to Clarinda, about 350 miles. It was added that the old man is sturdy and in good health and was confident that he would make the trip without difficulty Dr. Rickey, who is in good circumstances, at once wired for any possible information as to his brother's whereabouts and has asked that anybody hearing of the old man will stop him, telegraph the facts and draw on him for money

He is now satisfied that the man is his brother.

Chinese Marks on Tickets Said to Be Descriptions of Customers. "Most people suppose," said an ex-Californian to a New Orleans Times man, "that the vertical row of hieroglyphics on a Chinese laundry check are merely so many numerals. As a matter of fact, they are nothing of the kind, but constitute a brief and spicy description of the individal who left the bundle. If you will take the trouble to notice it, you will see that the laundryman always goes through exactly the same program. He takes the package, gives ably something like this: " 'Fat foreign devil who resembles a pig;

"You can carry around this flattering pen portrait, innocently imagining that it reads 'No. 4-11-44,' and when you call for your wash you will find that the Chinaman who receives the ticket will invariably look you over, making mental comparison before he reaches for the bundle. A Mongolian friend of mine out in 'Frisco put me on to the scheme and I too kthe trouble to ascertain whether he was telling me the truth. I got a laundry slip, copied it with microscopic fidelity and submitted it to several expert
