The old second place, there broke his leg. Tod Sloan was uninjured and walked back to the weighing room, escorted by policemen. Flying Fox, with a stable boy on his back and led by his trainer, Mouton, was walked about the paddock before the race, followed by a large crowd of admirers. He was quiet and his quarters were a mass of muscle. His cost gleaned in the sunshine like bronze. An enthusiast cried: "That horse must fall to be beaten." This opinion was re-echoed by the crowd of spectators. Holocauste made but few friends, being light of muscle and having a dull, listless look which bore testimony to the amount of work and traveling the colt has gone through during the last few weeks. All the lockeys were very nervous as they were waiting to enter the course. Cannon on the favorite, Flying Fox, was paler than usual and his lips twitched. Sloan, on Holocauste, sat blinking his eyes, and S. Loates, on Damocles, was persistently stroking his chin.

Pandora, so runs the myth, let all the ills of life out of her box to prey upon mankind, but shut the cover soon enough to prevent the escape of hope. remains to every sufferer but it is only an ignis-fatuus unless it takes on some tangible form. The hope of recovery is treasured by every one who suffers from weak or bleeding lungs, obstinate and lingering cough, bronchitis or similar ailments, which, if neglected, or unskil-fully treated lead on to consumption, That hope becomes a practical and tan-gible thing when it is based on the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Such a hope is reasonable because thousands of men and women emaciated and weakened by disease have been made sound and well by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery.' Sick people are invited to consult Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.V., by letter. All letters are carefully and considerately read and answered. Each letter is held as a sacred confidence and every answer is mailed in a plain envelope without any printing upon it. Write without fear and without fee.
