Pugilists Take a Rest.

Everything was practically at a standstill today at the training quarters of both pugilists, both men doing light work. Jeffries punched the bag for a few minutes and after brief bit of practice with the medicine BETTING ON THE BIG CONTEST. ball, skipped the rope a couple hundred times. Quite a large number of visitors called on the Californian and wished him success. During the day Jeffries was the recipient of a number of telegrams from different parts of the United States extending congratulations as well as encouraging the big boller maker with hopes of victory in his bld for championship honors.

George Siler of Chicago, who is to referee the contest, was a visitor at the cottage by the seashore today. Siler was accompanied by his wife, who told Jeffries that she had bet a new bonnet on his chances. When asked with whom she had made the bet she laughed and said, "A very dear friend of mine, who will pay for the bonnet in case Jeffries wins."

Mr. Siler said his visit was simply a social one, but in conversation with Jeffries and Trainer Billy Delaney he said Fitzsimmon had agreed to a clean break. Daly claimed that a clean break means a great deal to Fitzsimmons and shows that Bob is afraid of Jeffrics' driving machinery. Some of the experts of the Lock Arbor cottage claim that Bob will endeavor to make it a long-drawnout battle.

Jeffries, with his trainer, Billy Delaney and his sparring partners, Jim Daly, Tommy Ryan, Jack Jeffries and Martin McCue, will leave Allenhurst, N. J., early tomorrow morning over the Pennsylvania railroad and will go direct to Coney Island. It is understood that a conference will take place be tween Brady, Julian, the two principals, and Referee Siler some time tomorrow afternoon, at which the rules governing the contest will be discussed.

Fitzsimmons still rules a strong favorite over Jeffries. So confident are the lanky Australian's admirers that they offer 2 to 1 freely on the result and in some instances 2% to 1 has been secured. Jim Corbett bet $1,000 to $2,000 on Jeffries last night. Richard Dougherty's offer of $1,000 against $560 on the champion was ac-cepted by a well known banker. Jimmy Carroll has bet $400 against $750 on the Californian. He says he has a commis-sion of $4,000 to back Jeffries at 1 to 2. Sam Austin also has a few thousand to back Jeffries. before retiring. He seemed to be in good spirits, showing no nervousness whatever and conversed with those around him with reference to the possible outcome of the bout. Every one of the Jeffries party, including the big fellow himself, seems confident of the Californian's victory and none of them looks for the battle to last over ter rounds.

Fitzsimmons took a short walk during the forenoon, but took no further exercise. Late in the afternoon he drove to the Coney Island club house, accompanied by Frank Kenney, Jack Everhardt, Dan Hickey, Martin Julian and Kid McCoy. By the time the party reached the club house they were surrounded by a crowd of several hundred persons, none of whom was permitted to follow the champion and his companions into the hig building. As soon as Fitzsimmons reached his dressing room he and Kenney stripped to the buff and donned their fighting togs. They entered the ring and sparred fast rounds, only exchanging light taps. The work of both men was closely watched by a number of experts, the most prominent of whom was Kid McCoy, who has posted a $1,000 forfeit in the hands of George Siler to bind a match with Fitz-

Champion in Proper Trim. The carpenters and other workmen in the building stopped work while the big fellows pummeled each other and when Martin Julian, who held the watch, called time at the end of the third round the champion was generously applauded. He is in perfect condition and showed a wonderful lot of speed. His footwork was remarkably clever and on the whole his performance clearly demonstrated that he was never in better shape for a bout in his entire ring career than he is at present. After the men had retired to their dress ing room McCoy declared that Fitzsimmons was a wonder. But the "Kid" would not say positively what his impressions were as to the outcome of the mill tomorrow night,

As soon as the party left the building it re-entered the wagon, with Fitzsimmons handling the ribbons. As the champion drove along Surf avenue on his way home to Bath Beach he was cheered by the hundreds of promenaders, many of whom shouted that he was bound to win.

The sports are upset by the attitude of the police. "Fake! Fake!" is already the ery and the town is about evenly divided whether the fight will be a flasco or a success. Few persons believe that the police will permit a knockout.

Tonight Chief of Police Devery reiterates his statement that he will not permit slugging. He declares the first knockout blow struck ends the ceremony and the crowd will have to go home whether or not it get its money's worth. Despite all the earnest denials, many of the most prominent sporting men believe that Senator Tim Sullivan is the power behind the police and that he is doing it to remove any other fight manager from the field. James J. Corbett declares that it is not Sullivan, but the Mazet committee, that is responsible for the police. He does not say whether it is fear of the committee on the part of the police or a desire to put the odium of ending the fight on the republicans for political capital that has caused the chief of police to interfere.

Corbett Makes Ugly Charges.

An afternoon paper prints James J. Corbett's direct statement that the purse is to be divided between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons in advance on some basis-the exact proporpelly.

BUFFALO, N. Y. June S.-Teday, the third day of the New York state shoot, was confined to mine events, aggregating a total of 165 targets. The leading race was for a purse of $500, with surplus added, and it was divided into eight moneys, the first portion being cut into six plec's, represent-ing that number of straight scores. Nearly all the famous target shots of the country faced the traps and straight scores were made by William Dade, Cleveland, Charles Young, Springfild, C. A. Powers, Decatur; William Flemming, Pittsburg, R. D. Mc-Cord, Rochester, and Frank D. Kelsey, East Aurora, N. Y. There were 120 entries in this race and some of the experts fell down by one or two birds. Their defeat was excusable be-cause the wind at Audubon park was blow-ing thisty miles an hour. The feature of the day was the good showing made by a smad composed of E. D. Fulford, Utica; Charles S. Burkhart, Buffalo; F. P. O Leary, Buffalo; "Sim" Glover, Roches-ter, and Mr. Tracey of Oswego, a son of B. F. Tracey, exsecretary of the navy. They killed seventy-three out of a total of seventy-five and this was regarded as won-derful, considering the prevailing gale. Western Passenger Association Unable to Reach Any Arrangement. CHICAGO, June 8 .- At the meeting of the Western Passenger association today every attempt to reach a decision upon immigrant bureau matters failed and the passenger agents referred the whole question again to the executive officers. The lines afterward took up the revision agreement for the association, but with immigrant matters unsettled it will be difficult to do anything in the direction of adopting a new association agreement. The resignation of Chairman Caldwell will not tend to help the situation. Under the constitution of the association a unanimous vote of all the members is required to elect a chairman and in the present conditions of affairs it will be impossible to at-
