OVATION FOR PRESIDENT AT THE COURSE

Loubet and His Party Acknowledge the Cheers and Ignore the Menaces of the Crowd in the Paddock.

PARIS, June 11.—President Loubet has had a gratification in return for last Sunday's outrage at Auteuil. When he drove to Longchamps today to attend the Grand Prix he was the hero of a grand demonstration expressing itself in one form or another along the whole route from the Elysee palace to the race course.

He remained only a quarter of an hour, just long enough to witness the race, and having congratulated the owner of the winner returned to the Elysee, where he arrived at 4 o'clock without special incident.

Comment of Press.

The Sole, by such headlines as "A Grand Prix of Anarchists and Police Agents" and "A Very Expensive President," seeks to make out that the whole demonstration in favor of M. Loubet was "manufactured by the police with the assistance of the anarchist."

Longchamps resembled a military camp. Battalions of infantry, squadrons of dragoons and mounted police were stationed every dozen yards along the whole route.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The War Department today received a report from Major General Otis, of the military movement yesterday to the south of Manila for the purpose of clearing out the rebels in that section. It shows that the movement was a great success and that the enemy's loss was considerably greater than stated in the press dispatches.

and Later Bears the Injured to Sioux City—Other Towns Are Damaged.

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 11.—(Special Telegram.)—A tornado struck one-half mile southeast of the town of Salix, sixteen miles from Sioux City, at 5:30 this evening, leaving death, suffering and destruction in its path.

THE DEAD ARE:

JOHN MALLOY, farmer. HARRY MALLOY, his wife. KATE MALLOY, 15-year-old son. The injured are: Miss Beattie Malloy, 19 years old, skull fractured; will die. Thomas Malloy, 18 years old, leg mangled injured internally. Fred Malloy, 26 years old, back injured seriously. Pat Malloy, 14 years old, collar bone broken, back wrenched; will recover. Jack Malloy, 24 years old, arm cut and body bruised. His injuries are considered slight. All day it had been hot and the air was stifling.

WRECK OF MALLOY HOME.

John Malloy, after having been in the cellar of his house for about five minutes, concluded it was only a waterspout, and the family went upstairs again.

At the moment the funnel shaped cloud struck the house, utterly demolishing it and dealing death and destruction to the human beings inside.

Pat Malloy, who was brought in to Sioux City on a special train, tells a graphic story of the storm. He says houses, barns, live stock and human beings were sucked up by the swirling cloud, the air appearing to be filled with wrecked buildings and debris to the height of a half mile.

The Malloy family consisted of the father, mother and seven boys and one girl. They have lived for many years on the farm and were well-to-do. Others in the vicinity have lost nearly everything, with the exception of Patrick O'Neill, whose house was only damaged.

The Bernard house was demolished, but the family was in the cellar and came out of it unhurt. The same was true of the Berger home. After striking here the clouds seemed to rise and disappear.

A freight train was moving along toward Salix when the conductor, J. N. Pollock, saw the cloud. He had his train stopped at once and it was untouched. He then ran to the town of Salix and side tracked. There he uncoupled his waycar, and taking the engine, took the dead and injured to Sioux City. The injured were taken to the hospitals, where everything possible is being done for them.

At Sergeant Bluff some loss was sustained and considerable damage was done by the straight wind after the tornado.

From Homer, Neb., comes the statement that a revival tent was blown over and one unknown woman was fatally injured.

At the town of Leeds, just north of Sioux City, a cloudburst left two feet of water in the main streets. No loss of life is reported, but there was considerable damage to property.

Six tornadoes have struck in this vicinity already this year. The people in Sioux City could see the storm today and many went to their cellars. Nearly every cellar in Salix, Sloan and Sergeant Bluff was filled with people who knew that a bad storm was in the air.
