DOMINION DEFENDS THE CUP.

White Bear Challenger, the Yankee, Shows Poor Windward Work. MONTREAL, June 12-Last year's Seawanaka winner, the Dominion ran away from the White Bear Yacht club challenger, the Yankee, in the first of the series of taces to be sailed on Lake St. Louis. The wind blew lightly from the southeast at the start and freshened up as the race progressed and died away to almost nothing before the race ended. The race was witnessed by a large gathering though of course, the interest was not so great when the Dominion successfully defended the Seawanaka cup.

The start was made at 2:27, the Dominion at once taking the lead, never to refinquish it. The Canadian boat showed itself much superior in windward work, most of its gains being made on that leg. It considerally outpointed the Yankee. Toward the end of the race the Yankee lost considerable ground by becoming becalmed while wanaka winner, the Dominion, ran away

POPULAR GIRL VOTE CONTEST

TWO MORE CHANGES IN THE UPPER FOUR

Will Require Careful Calculation to Land or Remain in Second Four at Close of Week,

The caution given to Romeo that "too wift arrives as tardy as too slow" may well e applied in the side offer of silk parasols in The Bee's popular girl vacation contest this week, for to remain in the ranks of the second four it will be necessary to see that not too many as well as not too few votes are cast and one will also have to organization effected. Votes run very close in this region and there will be many slips between now and the awarding of the Boston Store's four silk parasols, which were described in last Sunday's Bee, and which are on exhibition in the Boston Store front show window. BEE NEWSBOYS HAVE A TREAT They Are at the Trocadero by th Courtesy of Manager Cole.

The newsboys of the city who self The Bee were the recipients of an unusually enjoyable treat Monday evening at the instance of Manager Cole of the Trocadero theater. The privilege of free admittance was extended to them and the invitation was accepted by a number that filled all the balcony seats.
