A squad in charge of Sergeant Whalen surrounded the place and arrested eleven men. two of whom are said to be the proprietors of the place. These two, Frank Ford and George S. Horner, are accused of keeping gambling rooms, while the nine in-mates are charged with gambling. The off-cers secured quite a number of chips and cards.

The colored men who were arrested for gambling at 1120 Dodge street were dis-charged, as the state failed to make a cape against them.

A complaint was filed against Ed Coleman, charging him with being a com-mon gambler. He is in jail and will be tried later.
