results have justified the step, for the order has been perfect ever since the storm. Even today, with the enormous crowd here, there has not been any disorderly conduct. It was a most respectable and orderly crowd. It did not show undue curiosity or any disposition to pry into the affairs of the citizens, but on the contrary respecting their feelings fully. The visitors passed the time wandering about the ruins, listening to the tales of the survivors and drinking lemonade.

BESEIGED BY SCHOOL GIRLS. McKinley Receives Ovation from Students of Mount Holyoke College. SUNDAY BRINGS LITTLE REST TO EXECUTIVE. Street from His Quarters to Church is Blocked by Friendly Crowd and an Impromptu Reception Follows in Trolley Car.

HOLYOKE, Mass., June 18.—Sunday for the president was anything but the day of rest that was hoped for. The continual crowding of the curious citizens, the immense jam at the church this morning and later in the day an unexpected and totally unprepared for reception in connection with the baccalaureate exercises at Mount Holyoke. The president was not content with going once to church, but went twice, leaving Mrs. McKinley in the hands of her women friends on each occasion. The president and his entire party were escorted about the residence of William Whiting, where the distinguished guests are being entertained, and by the time the party was ready for the short walk of two blocks to the church the way was blocked with people. It was an exciting, decorous and a hardly a word was spoken during the entire journey. At the Second Congregational church, which the Whiting attend, a much larger crowd had assembled, and it was only by deviating and entering a side door that admission was gained. The church was occupied and many extra chairs and settees.

SENECA, Mo., June 18.—The jury in the case of Ed J. Stubbfield, charged with the attempted robbery of a Missouri Pacific express train near here in November last, returned verdict today finding Stubbfield guilty and fixing his punishment at ten years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. The trial of James I. West, Stubbfield's alleged accomplice, will begin tomorrow morning.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 18.—A Sentinel special from Eau Claire, Wis., says: In nine pulpits here today the New Richmond cyclone was the subject of the sermons. A general sentiment expressed was that it was a mysterious dispensation of providence, but the Rev. Joseph Moran of the Episcopal church, said it was the devil's work of an unknown power and not the act of God.

PLANTS THAT SHOOT BULLETS. Efforts of Nature to Scatter Seeds Far. Many common garden plants shoot bullets; not as big nor as hard as those shot from a gun, but they go quite as far and are as effective proportionately. If the plants which shoot them were as big as a gun, these vegetable bullets might do great damage. As it is, battles take place between plants, during which the bombardments are fierce enough while they last. The common wistararia has been known to shoot a bullet over fifty feet.

CHapel Filled by Young Women. As the chapel for the young women filled the auditorium, while the balcony was occupied by several hundred high school girls in black dresses. After the president had been introduced by Mrs. E. S. Meade, the president of the board of trustees, the president of the congregation remaining standing until after the executive had taken his seat. After an organ prelude the college choir sang an anthem, and Rev. Dr. M. W. Jacobs of the Hartford Theological seminary read from scriptures the tenth chapter of St. Luke's gospel.

RECEPTION AWAITED BY VISITORS. The reception which awaited the visitors as they alighted and entered the car was so spontaneous and of such a friendly and cordial nature that, at Mrs. McKinley's request, the president ordered the car to delay its departure for a few moments, while he shook the hand of the people who clustered about the window, where the couple was seated. Mr. McKinley leaned from the window and shook hands with the people as they passed, but later in the day she cried out again, this time insisting that a bullet had struck the window pane and had come across the room. Sure enough, the "bullet" was found at the foot of the bed. When examined it turned out to be a wistararia seed. She then remembered the plants on the mantle. He had ripened and shot their seeds near her bed, and forgot them. Some time afterward, when she lay sick in bed, her family heard her scream out, and rushed into the room to find her in a nervous, frightened condition, exclaiming that a bullet had been shot into the room. She was soothed and quieted by assurances that such a thing was impossible, but later in the day she cried out again, this time insisting that a bullet had struck the window pane and had come across the room. Sure enough, the "bullet" was found at the foot of the bed. When examined it turned out to be a wistararia seed. She then remembered the plants on the mantle. He had ripened and shot their seeds near her bed, and forgot them.
