The weather continues fine, though warm. Today the principal event was the parade, in which all the Elks here participated. Starting at Twelfth street soon after 10 o'clock, the parade moved cast on Washington avenue and thence through the business section of the city. Almost every building had been decorated in their honor, and on Olive street, at Seventh, an elaborate arch spanned the roadway. All along the line of march there were thousands of spectators, who cheered the different lodges as they

Originality in Dress.

Each lodge in line had some distinctive dress, either a uniform or something unique or startling in effect. The St. Louis lodge. with 400 men in line, dressed in gray and carrying purple and white umbrellas, made a fine appearance. Owensboro (Ky.) lodge No. 513, the youngest in the order, attracted attention all along the line. Calling themselves the babies of the order, they dressed accordingly, in long, white slips, with white bonnets and earrying bottles of milk. Cinclanati lodge. No. 5, dressed as golfers, with red coats and short trousers; the "cherry pickers" of Toledo in red uniforms and carrying rolled umbrellas; Terre Haute (Ind.) lodge, No. 86, in white duck Prince Albert suits and Louisville lodge, No. 8, in immaculate white flannel drill uniforms, divided honors for neatness in appearance and the precision in their movements.

The members of the Greenville, Miss. lodge No. 148, were dressed as southern field hands, earrying bags of cotton. Davenport In., lodge No. 218 made a great hit. It ap peared as the prospective Manila lodge, the members being blacked up and dressed as

M'KINLEY TAKES RIVER RIDE

Executive Party Enjoys Cruise on Board the Last Day of McKinley's Stay in Massachusetts Favored with Ideal Wenther-Takes a River Trip.

HOLYOKE, Mass., June 21.-The closing day of the president's visit to this city, as far as the weather is concerned, was the finest of all. Not a cloud obscured the sky and the air was cool and bracing.

The final good-byes were said at the Whiting home and at 10:15 the entire party went on board the trolley car Rockrimmon Fancy Ribbons for neck and belts in and started for South Holyoke. Here, boarding the little steamer Mascot, they were met by a reception committee from Springfield and the trip down the river to that city was entered upon at 10:40.

Immense crowds were present both at the Vhiting mansion and at South Holyoke to see the president and there was much cheering and cries of "good-bye" all along the route. The Mascot was due at Springfield at 11:30. An elaborate program has been provided there.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 21 .- The city was gaily decorated today in honor of President McKinley's visit. Vast throngs filled the streets, all eager to see the president. The little steamer Mascot arrived at its dock at 11:30 and was accorded a hearty reception by the flotilla of gaily decorated boats which clustered about the craft and from the thousands who lined the river bank. At Holyoke a reception committee from Springfield, headed by Mayor Gilmer, met the president and party. During this trip the navigation committee of this city gave the president an object lesson regarding the immense advantage which would accrue to this city and Holyoke were the river opened for navigation as far as the latter city. The president evinced much interest in the idea, but made no promiees.

On arrival at Springfield the presidential party was taken in carriages for a drive around the city. Later they were driven through the armory grounds to the Nayasset club for luncheon. One pretty feature of the drive was the children from the various schools massed in front of their buildings and at each place two little girls advanced and placed a handsome bouquet in the hands of the president and Mrs. McKinley. After luncheon the women remained at the club building while the president and the other gentlemen were taken to the city hall, where a large platform had been erected. Just before the president reached the boat landing there was a double line of over 1,000 children upon the sidewalk, cheering and waving flags. The president remarked it was the crowning pleasure of his visit to the city and would be one of the things which he should always remember.

The president reviewed the parade, which was composed of the three local military companies of the Second Massachusetts regiment, the naval brigade, Grand Army and Boys' brigade. Afterward he held a reception and shook hands with nearly 3,000

At 2:30 the president and his party were taken under escort of the Grand Army of the Republic to the station, where they boarded the special train for Adams, Mass., where the president will spend a week with W. B. Plunkett. The party were given a rousing send-off. Brief receptions were held at Westfield and Pittsfield.

MRS. RICH AND THE MEXICANS uthorities at Washington Will Be

Asked to Surrender Woman to WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Mexican government has designated a commission to present the extradition case against Mrs. Rich, now held in Texas, on the charge of having killed her husband in Mexico. The case is of unusual interest, as it is the first under the new extradition treaty between this country and Mexico, and because of the peculiar circumstances of the alleged crime. In some respects the case is like that of Mrs. Maybrick, as Mrs. Rich is an American recting that upon the return of the volunwoman charged with killing her husband in American officials are loath to surrender Mrs. Rich until the case against her is well to the regular ration: With each 100 raestablished, as her extradition would mean a foreign trial and punishment.

Why Use Cream With Your Grape Nuts?

************ AN OILY HABIT.

There are people who become unconsciousaddicted to the butter habit; that is to say, they like butter and gradually eat a little more as the months go by, until they find they have consumed, each meal, quite a quantity of fat that they have not vitality enough to properly digest.

This indigested substance causes more or less catarrh of the stomach and trouble with the bowels. The remedy, of course, is to largely cut down the allowance of butter, and for two or three nights, sup nearly a quart of very hot water just before going to bed. This washes out the stomach and bowels and gives them renewed vilality. Then the person should, for a few mornings at least, rely on good, rich cream with Grape-Nuts for breakfast, letting out the butter altogether. The cream gives all the fat needed. Grape-Nuts and cream furnish an ideal portion of any breakfast.
